COMPENSATION CLAIMS.

MINUTE.

Government House,
Cape Town, 27th June, 1848.

Honorable Gentlemen!

It will be in your recollection, that, upon the 30th of last month, the first day of your sitting, I laid upon the table a Petition very numerous signed by farmers and others, resident upon the Eastern Frontier, and sufferers by the late and former Kafir wars, praying for compensation.

Feeling upon that occasion that the claim preferred by the petitioners was one of no small magnitude, and of a novel nature, I deemed it to be my duty to refrain from entering, with any degree of minuteness, into its merits and details, and commended it to the careful consideration of this Council, simply stating my belief that, in forming your opinion, you would keep in view the good of the whole Colony, justice to all classes, and the rights of your fellow-citizens generally.

I have since deliberately reflected upon the subject, and availed myself of the views, more or less in unison with my own, entertained by others, with, I frankly admit, an earnest desire to see, if I could, some just and expedient mode in which the sufferers might be relieved, and at the same time with a desire no less earnest, not to allow my sympathy with distress to hurry me into any conclusions, injurious to the rights or interests of the Colony at large. It appears to me desirable that I should now state to you the general nature of the opinion which I at present entertain. But in announcing, thus openly and thus early, the views which I have formed, I wish to be understood, as having no desire to forbid, or fetter, the freest discussion of the subject by this Council, and I shall attentively hear and dispassionately consider the statements of every member, who may feel disposed to offer them.

You are already aware that the question to be decided is, in the strictest sense, colonial. Upon grounds which, I think, you will, with me, regard as just and reasonable, and which must, at all events, be looked upon as final and decisive; Her Majesty's government has denied that the people of England are bound to indemnify the inhabitants of this, or any other British Colony, against losses and calamities, whether from war or other causes, to which their situation may expose them.

Principles alike sound and well-established, and the practice of all parent states in regard to their dependencies, draw a clear and obvious distinction between contributing to defend the settlement against the enemies to which its situation exposes it, and paying the inhabitants for such property as those enemies may chance to destroy or carry off. So far as the Cape is concerned, the former of these objects has, as Earl Grey remarks, employed, and that most freely, the troops and treasure of the United Kingdom. The latter of these objects, if it is to be accomplished at all, must be accomplished at the expense of the Colony itself.

The Petition before the Council estimates the losses sustained by the different inroads of the Kafir hordes as amounting, in round numbers, to £600,000. Of this total, about one half is ascribed to the war of 1834-5. The other half, or about £300,000, belongs to the war of 1846.

I am disposed to think, that, in regard to both wars, the losses are considerably, though I am far from saying dishonestly, overstated. Men who have lost their all, naturally magnify to themselves, as well as to others, the greatness of their loss; and most persons are apt to cling to the belief, in reference to such uncertain claims as these, that their whole demand will never be allowed, and that the more they ask for, the more they stand a chance of getting.

Be this, however, as it may, I am bound to give you my opinion, that no claim to compensation, to any extent whatever, founded upon the war of 1834-5, can now be entertained. No man knows better than I do, the severity of the losses which were then endured. No man felt more deeply than I did for the unhappy sufferers. But, nevertheless, I am constrained to state, that to revive at this distant day a claim for the losses then sustained, would be utterly impossible. Time, in reference to matters of this nature, must be allowed to settle and silence claims, even if originally clear; nor could they, with propriety, be entertained after all means of effectually scrutinizing their validity are gone; and when, in many instances, the very claimants themselves would be incapable of being traced. When to these considerations we add the all-important fact, that the war of 1834-5 was not followed by any acquisition from the enemy, out of which compensation could have been afforded, it must, I think, appear to every one that the losses sustained at that period cannot now be either investigated or made good.

In regard to the losses sustained by the inroads of the Kafirs in 1846, the case is different, and I am led to hope that means exist, from which compensation may properly be given. Whether the result of an honest and searching inquiry into the nature and amount of the several claims preferred, would be to swell them above even the sum specified by the petitioners, or, what would seem more likely, to reduce them in the aggregate, by probably one-third; in either case the Colony would seem to be in a position to meet, if not entirely, at least to a large extent, the appeal now made to its justice and humanity.

Not, indeed, by way of indemnity for the charges of the war, or for devastation wantonly committed, but with a view to the better protection and future tranquillity of the Frontier, a new and more desirable Eastern Boundary has been given to the Colony, the effect, though not the object, of which was to inclose a large, and, in many parts, a fertile territory.

Of that territory, a certain portion will be required for general public purposes,—whilst a greater portion will be needed for those military villages, which as a means of cheap, expeditious, and effectual defence, I regard as important, and desire to encourage. Grants of the same extent as those which I have allotted to the men belonging to these villages, have not, I am aware, been judged necessary in other colonies. In New Zealand, for example, of which the circumstances are, in some degree, analogous, the grants to the military settlers are limited to one acre. But in proposing to give each man twelve acres in the new territory, I was influenced by the fact that grants to the same extent had been, before my arrival, assigned to Hottentot settlers, below whom I could not place British soldiers; by the opinion that, owing to the nature of the soil and the local circumstances of the territory, twelve acres could not be deemed excessive, and by the expectation that, in the long run, those military villages would diffuse a sense of security and confidence, which must materially enhance the value of the surrounding land, reserved for the purposes of sale. And it is, at all events, certain that, after every necessary deduction has been made, land in the divisions of Victoria and Albert, of considerable extent and value, will still remain to be disposed of. The petitioners now before the Council, who, from their local knowledge, must be peculiarly fitted to pronounce an opinion upon the subject, state their confident belief that this land, if judiciously sold, would be amply sufficient to raise the funds necessary to compensate claims to the extent of the £600,000, and still to leave a large surplus revenue for government purposes.

With unoffending and ruined colonists, upon the one side, calling for relief, and upon the other, the prospect of so rich a revenue to arise from the land justly taken from the enemy, whose unprovoked aggression occasioned the misery complained of, I cannot bring myself to doubt, that this Council and the Colony will join me in the opinion that after those charges which are clearly and indisputably preferential shall have been provided for out of this Land Fund, compensation to fair claimants ought to be afforded.

I can do little more, at present, than announce a principle. The value placed by the petitioners upon the land in question strikes my mind as over-rated, and some time must, of necessity, elapse, before its correctness can be tested by actual sale. But unless, contrary to the expectation of the petitioners and myself, the Land Fund should fall so far below their estimate as to subvert the basis of the one practicable plan which they propose, we may cherish the hope of being able to grant the relief so urgently solicited, and I believe, in many instances, so much needed, by a large number of our fellow-colonists.

When territory is added to this, or any other, Colony, the first and preferential charge upon its revenues is the expense which its annexation entails upon the Colony at large. The two new divisions ought not to be a burthen upon the general finances. It follows, therefore, that the charge of their judicial and fiscal administration should, by right, be defrayed out of their own resources; calculating, of course, as part of those resources, not merely their Land Fund, but their indirect contributions to the general revenue, arising out of their consumption of articles which have paid customs, or other duties, as roughly estimated from the number and nature of their probable population.

But I am bound to go further, and to submit to you one or two other principles, connected more or less with the due application of the Land Fund of these new Divisions, which principles will be found, I think, as sound and just as that to which I have adverted.

Treating the Land acquired as being virtually equivalent to the money which it will produce, it might seem that the primary application of the Fund should be to defray, as far as it would go, the general expenses of the war. These, however, have been mainly borne by the mother country. There are, however, still pending before me, a number of claims of a very meritorious nature, which await their settlement. I allude to the claims of those who lost wagons, horses, oxen, &c. in the prosecution of the war.

The common sense of mankind, and the usages of all civilized communities, draw a broad and distinguishable line between the owners of property lost in the course of carrying on hostilities against the enemy, and the owners of property lost by the mere inburst of the enemy, without any reference to the general defence, just as by the immemorial and equitable law of the sea, the owners of property sacrificed in a tempest for the preservation of the ship and cargo, have a claim to contribution from those whose interests are thus consulted, which the owners of property destroyed by the mere violence of the waves have not upon this principle, I regard the claims of those Colonists, whose property, employed in the defence of the Colony, perished in the prosecution of the war, as being, in their nature, higher yet than the claims of those Colonists whose property scattered over the country into which the enemy broke, was destroyed or swept away.

The Board which I lately nominated to investigate the class of claims to which I have now adverted, is engaged in the enquiry, and will, I am led to think, soon favour me with its report.

When I shall have received and considered that Report, I shall be in a situation to judge how far it can be justly and fairly shewn, that the property in regard to which the claims in question are preferred, was so employed as to form an inseparable part of that military defence of the Colony during the war, the cost of which Her Majesty's Government seems to admit that the British Treasury is prepared to meet.

My present impression is that the Burgher Force will be viewed by Her Majesty's Government, as cheap substitutes for soldiers, and that the wagons, oxen, and horses, impressed for their equipment, and lost during their service in the field, will, therefore, be paid for out of the same fund, which has borne all kindred charges.

You are, however, aware of the extent to which the British Treasury has already contributed to the charges of the war, and I should fail in candour, did I not call your attention to the possibility that Parliament, beset with critical events and monetary difficulties, and struck with the magnitude of its past votes for the Kafir war, may avert its eyes from the principle involved, and refuse to entertain this additional demand.

Should it so happen, that Her Majesty's Government feels itself unable to undertake the payment of those claims, it will behove this Council to consider the manner in which they should be met. To me it appears that, in such event, they should be defrayed out of the purchase money of the Territory taken from the enemy, and that they should be so defrayed before claims to compensation for losses, which, however ruinous to individuals, were useless to the public, can expect to be satisfied. If, however, as there is reason to anticipate, those meritorious claimants should be paid out of the Military Chest, the Land Fund of the new Divisions will be laid open for other purposes, and the relief of the petitioners amongst the rest.

By the extract from Lord Grey's dispatch which I laid before you on Friday last, you will have learned that the revenues of the United Kingdom, will not be subjected to the expenses of any future Kafir war, should such a war unhappily occur. The colony, it is plain, must hereafter contribute, and that liberally, to its own defence. I believe that it is able to do so—that it ought to do so—and that it is prepared to do so. One means of your defence will be the organization of some sort of Frontier Militia, to be called out occasionally, and in case of need. Another means of your defence will be the Kafir Police, which have already proved their value and utility. It will be my constant labour, as it is my steadfast hope, to make those and similar agencies so powerful and effective, as, with God's blessing, to ensure peace and good order on both sides of the boundary, to render war almost impossible, and to promote the moral and social advancement of all classes of the population, colonists and Kafirs.

But certain of those beneficial agencies will necessarily entail expense. In the progressive improvement of the Colonial Revenue, I am willing to discern a source from which a portion of that expense may properly be defrayed. Viewing the Colony as one and indivisible, I regard all portions of it as being interested in the maintenance of the Frontier defences, and I conceive that a portion of the general revenue would be well spent in their adequate support. The new boundary, instead of being more expensive, will be less expensive, than the old; and to preserve the integrity of our Frontier is the common concern of us all. This is universally and cheerfully admitted. The difficulty which is felt is to fix the proportion in which the fund to be raised by the sale of land taken from the former enemy, should be charged with the cost of our means of defence against a recurrence of aggression, before it can be properly made applicable to the settlement of such claims as those of the petitioners.

If the valuation put by the petitioners upon the land in Victoria and Albert be even approximately realized, we shall, in a great degree, if not altogether, be relieved from difficulty. Should, however, the land fund in question turn out to be much below the amount thus calculated, a competition of opposing claims, attended with more or less of difficulty, will, in all probability, arise.

If we suppose that the ordinary Revenue of the new Divisions, independently of Land Sales, would cover, or nearly so, the expense of their ordinary administration; and if we farther assume that Her Majesty's Government will be prepared, after suitable explanations have been offered, to satisfy the peculiar class of claimants to whom I have adverted, no reasonable doubt can well be entertained that the land fund will be large enough to meet the remaining demands upon it, viz.: its just proportion of the permanent expenses of the Frontier, together with the payment of compensation to the petitioners. This, however, is taking the most favorable view of the case—and should any part of the ordinary administration of the new Divisions be ultimately thrown upon the Land Fund, and the claimants, whom I regard as preferent, be also thrown upon that Fund, it may be feared that, unless the sales prove not less successful than the petitioners anticipate, it will not be practicable to afford to the petitioners more than partial indemnification.

Until we shall have ascertained, with some degree of certainty, the amount of the Land Fund, the amount of all claims to compensation of every class, the decision of Her Majesty's Government upon the question to be submitted, and the state and prospects of the general Revenue at the time when the matter shall be ripe for an ultimate determination, it would, I think, be improper for me to say more. Let it, therefore, suffice to add, that after the claims which I have specified as preferent to those of the petitioners, shall be either defrayed out of other sources, or out of the Land Fund itself, I shall be ready to support the view that the surplus, so far as it may be required to cover all fair and proved demands upon the part of sufferers by the incursions of the Kafirs in 1846, should be applied to that humane and meritorious purpose, instead of being merged in the general Revenue of the Colony.

(Signed) H. G. SMITH.

LAW OF MASTER AND SERVANT. MINUTE.

Government House,
23d June 1848.

HONORABLE GENTLEMEN,

I have recently received from several divisions of the Colony very urgent representations as to the defective state of the law prevailing in this Colony, for regulating the relations between masters and servants. It is stated in these petitions that, in consequence of the indolent character of the Hottentot population, the farmers are so crippled by want of a steady supply of labor as to be unable to work their farms with efficiency and success; and that the law provides no adequate remedy for breaches of contract, on the part of the servant, which are alleged to be flagrant and of frequent occurrence.

The law on this subject now in force in the Colony is, as you are aware, fixed by Her Majesty's order in Council of the 21st of January, 1846, and it is therefore out of our province to legislate on the subject; but, as the complaints are very urgent, and as the defects of the law are stated to be very great, I think we shall do well to collect all the information we can obtain, to be submitted to Her Majesty's Government. With this view, I propose to refer the subject to a committee of the whole Council (of whom four to form a quorum,) by which means a body of evidence and information may be collected which will serve as the basis of future sound legislation.

H. G. SMITH.

Extract of a Despatch from Earl Grey to His Excellency Sir Harry Smith, dated 31st March 1848, received 21st June 1848.

"The lessons taught by the recent course of events in the Colony, the state of affairs at home, and the enormous expense of the military operations just concluded, all contribute to impose on me the duty of directing you distinctly to warn all those portions of the public whom it may concern, not to expect that any new war of the same kind can be carried on at the cost of this country. It is the opinion of Her Majesty's Servants, that although under the circumstances of the late Kafir war, they were justified in recommending to Parliament the very large grant which has just been made for the payment of its expenses, such an effort on the part of the mother country cannot be expected on the recurrence of a similar contingency. These recent events must have given the Colonists ample warning of their danger, and if they think fit to occupy lands situated in the immediate vicinity of barbarous Tribes without due precaution, they must do so at their own risk. Her Majesty's Government will take care to maintain in the Colony a regular British force sufficient to garrison the Seat of Government and some of the more important Posts. But the Militia, or whatever other description of Irregular Troops or Local Police it may be necessary to employ for the protection of the spacious Territory now included within its boundaries, must be kept up at the cost of the inhabitants.—It will, therefore, be one of your first and most important duties to establish some system of local organization for these purposes, and to propose to the Legislative Council the enactment of such Laws as may be necessary for organizing the people of the Colony, and especially of the Frontier Districts, for self-defence, and for providing for the expense of such arrangements.

"In conclusion, I cannot too strongly press upon you the indispensable necessity of speedily and effectually reducing the heavy demands upon the British Treasury on account of the Colony committed to your charge, and I, therefore, learn with much satisfaction that you have already taken steps for diminishing the number of British troops detained in the Colony, and for accomplishing a gradual but decided reduction of Establishments."

(True Extract.)

JOHN GARVOCK, Major,
Private Secretary.

GOVERNMENT NOTICE.

Colonial Office, Cape of Good Hope,
27th June 1848.

A paragraph having appeared in the Graham's Town Journal, of the 17th inst., as follows:—

"A case of atrocious cruelty on the part of the Kaffir Chiefs Sandilla and Macomo, has lately been brought under the notice of the authorities of this place. We stated a fortnight ago, that the former Chief had been on a visit to COLONEL SOMERSET, by whom he had been received and treated with great kindness. It now appears, that while enjoying the hospitality of the gallant Colonel, he had, unknown to him, caused a Kaffir woman, a concubine of Macomo's, whom he discovered in town, to be seized, bound with riems, and kept three days without food. Subsequently, she was conveyed by him a prisoner to Macomo, by whom she was confined in a hut stark naked; the intention being, as is stated, to put her to a cruel death. The wretched creature succeeded, however, in effecting her escape, and again sought refuge in Graham's Town from her merciless tormentors. The matter has, we understand, been referred to the authorities of British Kaffraria, by whom the whole subject will be, as we understand, carefully investigated, and who will, we may hope, teach the chiefs in question—and through them the whole of Kaffriland—that this Colony is a refuge against savage violence,—and that the sanctuary it affords to the injured and helpless cannot be violated with impunity."

His Excellency has directed the publication of the following letter on the subject from COL. SOMERSET C.M.R. in contradiction of the above mis-statement.

Graham's Town, 18th June 1848.

Sir,—Perceiving by the public journals that a statement has been circulated, that the Kaffir Chief Sandilla, when a guest at my house, had seized a reputed wife of Macomo's, and had kept her bound with riems and without food,—I think it right to acquaint you, for the information of the Government, that there is no truth in the statement.

The Kaffir women, whom Sandilla had collected here, all ran away, or left the house, (with exception of a sister of Sandilla's, and the woman said to be Macomo's wife) the second day after he had brought them here; these two women were lodged and fed in a room in my house, and were attended upon by my own servants.

They were laughing and joking the whole time they were here, and they might have gone away had they chosen to do so. I saw them both ride away from my house perfectly unrestrained and apparently in high good humour.

I have the honor to be,

Sir,

Your obedt. servant,

H. SOMERSET, Colonel.

To H. HUDSON, Esq.

Resident Magistrate, Albany.

15 Sheep and Cattle Farms IN THE Nieuweveld and near Beaufort

WITH reference to an Advertisement in the Government Gazette of 13th January last, — I, THE UNDERSIGNED, HEREBY GIVE NOTICE, that all my THIRD PARTS or SHARES in the following which are all well described in the Supplement to the Government Gazette, herein referred to, are for Sale, and my Agent, Mr. HENRY ROSE of Beaufort, will receive offers for the same, namely:—

No. 1.—Maatjes Valley,	10,309	Morgen

15.—Dornhoek,	4381	Do.

90,768 Morgen.

It is worthy of remark and may be stated, that in the District of Beaufort, where these Farms are situated, occasional droughts are experienced, during the continuance of which many of the best Places are of comparatively little value; while, on the other hand, after seasonable rains, water is plentiful, and the Pastures become so rich, luxuriant, and abundant, that few, if any, of the present Farmers of the District have stock sufficient to consume it, which proves that the Places are too large, and the Farmers too few in number; and generally the Undersigned ventures an opinion that for all practical purposes, one-third Part or Share of most of the above Farms is very little inferior in real value to the whole; and Purchasers of Thirds secure another important advantage, for two-thirds less capital, in an extensive range of various kinds of pasture over a wide extent of Country, which is a matter of no little importance and value, well known to the experienced South African Stock Farmer.—Application can also be made in Cape Town to the Undersigned.

TERMS OF PAYMENT made easy, and to suit the convenience of Purchasers.

A PUBLIC SALE

OF the whole of my One-third Parts or Shares in the above FARMS, or so many of them as may not be previously sold, will be held at the Town of Beaufort,

ON MONDAY,

THE 7th AUGUST 1848,

when the whole will be most positively sold without Reserve.

TERMS.

Payment in four equal parts, the First in Cash; the Second in one year; the Third in two years; and the Fourth in three years from the day of Sale, with Interest on the same, at 6 per cent. per annum.

Further particulars made known on the day of Sale. In the mean time, Applications for PRIVATE PURCHASE may continue to be made to Mr. HENRY ROSE, of Beaufort, and the Undersigned in Cape Town.

ORDINANCE

Enacted by the Governor of the Colony of the Cape of Good Hope, with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof.

To amend the Ordinance No. 49.

WHEREAS His Excellency Sir HENRY GEORGE WAKELYN SMITH, Bart., G.C.B., &c. &c., Administrator of the Government of the Settlement of the Cape of Good Hope, and Her Majesty's High Commissioner for settling and adjusting the Affairs of the Territories in Southern Africa, adjacent or contiguous to the said Settlement, did, by his Proclamation bearing date the 27th of January 1848, refer to the introduction into this Colony of Kafir Youths to be apprenticed to farmers and others, and provide rules and regulations to be observed in the apprenticing of the said Youths, together with a form of Indenture to be used in such cases: And whereas the provisions of the said Proclamation are in certain respects repugnant to or inconsistent with the provisions of the Ordinance No. 49, bearing date the 14th of July 1828, entitled "Ordinance for the admission into the Colony, under certain restrictions, of persons belonging to Tribes beyond the Frontier thereof, and for regulating the manner of their employment, as free labourers, in the service of the Colonists:—Be it enacted by the Governor of the Cape of Good Hope, with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof, that so much of the said Ordinance No. 49, as is repugnant to, or inconsistent with, any of the provisions of the said Proclamation, shall be repealed, and the same is hereby repealed accordingly.

2. And be it enacted, that it shall and may be lawful for all resident magistrates, and all others, to carry into effect the provisions of the said Proclamation, of which a copy is hereunto annexed, and that every indenture executed, or to be executed, under or in pursuance of the said provisions, shall be binding and effectual to all intents and purposes.

3. And be it enacted, that this Ordinance shall commence and take effect from and after the promulgation thereof.

Schedule.

PROCLAMATION.

WHEREAS the introduction into this Colony (or such Districts of the same as are sufficiently removed from the Eastern Frontier thereof) of Kafir Youths, to be apprenticed to Farmers or others, would greatly tend to the promotion amongst them of christianity, civilization, and industrious habits, and, at the same time, tend in some degree to supply the want of Field and other Labor, which the Inhabitants experience: And whereas the results which have attended the system of apprenticing, with care and attention, Captured Negroes set free from slavery, have been such as to show that Kafir youths will be sure of finding humane and kind treatment, and in time be enabled to improve themselves and benefit the Colony, in a degree proportionate to their known natural capacity: And whereas, in order to secure the social advantages aforesaid, I have made, and caused to be made, to the subjugated Chiefs and People, strong representations in regard to the benefit which would accrue to their now very destitute and wholly ignorant and helpless youths, were they placed under the care and protection of the Colonial Government, in order to be apprenticed to carefully selected masters, whose duty it should be to feed, clothe, and instruct them: And whereas, I have reason to believe that a considerable number of Kafir youths of different ages will be voluntarily, and from time to time, placed in my hands, for the purpose aforesaid, whom it is my intention to send to the several Districts of this Colony, as I may, from time to time deem suitable: And whereas it is necessary to make known the rules and regulations under which the said youths will be apprenticed:—Now, therefore, I do hereby Proclaim, Declare, and Make Known, that the following Rules and Regulations shall be strictly observed:

1st. Every apprentice shall be apprenticed by an Indenture, as much as may be in the same form as the blank Indenture hereto annexed.

2. Every such Indenture shall be executed by the Resident Magistrate of the District, acting for the Apprentice, on the one part, and by the Master on the other part.

3. Every Apprentice under fifteen years of age may be apprenticed to a trade, or as a Farm or Domestic Servant, till he attain the age of Eighteen years.

4. Every Apprentice of the age of Fifteen years or upwards may be apprenticed for a term not exceeding three years.

5. Every Indenture shall be executed in duplicate;—one copy to be delivered to the Master, and the other copy to be preserved of record in the office of the Resident Magistrate, who shall make periodical returns of the contracts or every such Indenture, in such manner as he shall hereafter be directed.

And I do further proclaim, declare, and make known, that all Resident Magistrates who shall, or may be, called upon to act in or about the apprenticing of any of the young persons aforesaid, are enjoined and expected to exercise their best and most anxious discretion in selecting from amongst the Inhabitants applying for such apprentices, fitting Masters or Mistresses, and to take steps, from time to time, to ascertain that the terms and conditions of the Indentures entered into are duly fulfilled, and generally to endeavour, as much as in them lies, to secure the well-working of the present attempt to add to the scanty supply of Colonial labour, and at the same time by reclaiming from a life of idleness, ignorance, and lawlessness, a number of the youths of British Kaffraria, to contribute, together with the other measures now in progress, to the peace, good order, and gradual advancement of that important Province.

And in case of any default or neglect in the due performance of all or any of the aforesaid Covenants, which, on the part and behalf of the said are to be done, kept, and performed, all right and title to the further Service of the said Apprentice shall, at the election of the Resident Magistrate of the said District for the time being, be forfeited, and the terms of apprenticeship, hereinbefore mentioned, shall thenceforth, should he think proper, absolutely cease and determine.

Provided always, and it is hereby declared and agreed, that in case the said shall happen to depart this life before the expiration of the said term hereinbefore mentioned, then, and in that case, all right and title of the said Executors and Administrators, in and to the services of the said Apprentice shall thereafter cease and determine to all intents and purposes whatsoever, as if this Indenture had not been made.—And the Resident Magistrate of the said District for the time being shall and may be at free liberty again to put out and apprentice the said Apprentice to such other Person or Persons as he, in his discretion, shall deem expedient for that purpose, for the remainder of the said term, without any molestation or interruption whatsoever from the Executors or Administrators of the said

And, lastly, for the due and faithful performance of all and every the several Covenants, Clauses, and Agreements hereinbefore mentioned and contained, which, by and on the part and behalf of the said are to be done, kept, and performed in manner and form aforesaid, the said doth hereby bind self, Heirs, Executors, and Administrators, and his Person and Property according to Law.

And, lastly, it is hereby further agreed and declared, that it shall and may be lawful to and for the Resident Magistrate of the said District, for the time being, or any other person authorized thereto by His Excellency the Governor of this Colony, for the time being, to commence and prosecute, have, sue for, recover and receive, but on behalf of Her Majesty, Her Heirs and Successors, any action or actions, suit or suits, or other proceeding or proceedings, on foot of this Indenture, for obtaining redress, and for the protection of the said Apprentice, or otherwise, according to the law of the said Colony, and to issue Execution thereon.

In Witness whereof, the said Parties to those Presents have hereunto set their Hands and seals, the Day and Year first above written.

ORDINANCE

Enacted by the Governor of the Colony of the Cape of Good Hope, with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof.

For rendering legal certain Marriages supposed to be invalid.

WHEREAS His Excellency Sir HENRY GEORGE WAKELYN SMITH, Baronet, G.C.B., &c. &c. &c., Her Majesty's High Commissioner for the settling and adjustment of the Affairs of the Territories of Southern Africa, adjacent and contiguous to the Eastern and North Eastern Frontier of the Colony of the Cape of Good Hope, did, by his Proclamation, bearing date the 17th of May 1848, of which a copy is set forth in the Schedule hereunto annexed, make provision for rendering valid and effectual certain marriages or reputed marriages in the said Proclamation described, and whereas it is expedient that the marriages so legalized by the said High Commissioner in and for the certain Territories in the said Proclamation mentioned, (being part and parcel of Her Majesty's dominions, but not part or parcel of this Colony,) should likewise be rendered valid and effectual within this Colony: Be it enacted by the Governor of the Cape of Good Hope, with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof, that all and singular the provisions of the Proclamation aforesaid, and hereunto annexed, shall, within this Colony, have the force and effect of law, and that the registration of marriages in and by the said Proclamation provided shall, for purposes civil or criminal, have the same effect and none other, within this Colony, which, under and by virtue of the said Proclamation, it is declared or intended to have within the territories aforesaid.

2. And be it enacted, that the certificate in the 15th Section of the said Proclamation mentioned shall be good evidence of every such marriage as aforesaid, before all Courts and Magistrates in this Colony.

3. And be it enacted, that this Ordinance shall commence and take effect from and after the promulgation thereof.

Schedule.

PROCLAMATION.

WHEREAS I did, by a Proclamation, bearing date the 3d of February 1848, issued by me, in my capacity as Her Majesty's High Commissioner for settling and adjusting the affairs of certain Territories adjacent to the Colony of the Cape of Good Hope, proclaim, declare, and make known the Sovereignty of her said Majesty over certain Territories North of the Great Orange River, in the said Proclamation mentioned and described: And whereas, at various times during the period for which Her Majesty's Emigrant Subjects have occupied parts or portions of the said Territories, many marriages have taken place amongst them, which, owing to the impossibility of obtaining the presence or aid of any Minister of the Gospel, and of conforming to divers requirements of law, have not, as it is supposed, been solemnized in such a manner as to render the same valid and effectual: And whereas the said marriages were so irregularly contracted by reason solely of the necessity under which the parties lay, while deprived alike of Religious Teachers, and of regular and established Laws, and arose from no want of due reverence for the Holy Ordinance in question, or for the spiritual sanctions with which, amongst Christians, it is customarily and fitly solemnized: And whereas, taking these things into my consideration, and being desirous to confer upon Her Majesty's said Subjects the important advantage of having their children's legitimacy established, and their said Marriages legalized for all purposes of law, I have determined to exercise for that end, the powers and authorities in me vested:—Now, therefore, I do, as Her Majesty's High Commissioner as aforesaid, hereby PROCLAIM, DECLARE, and MAKE KNOWN, the several following Provisions and Regulations, touching and concerning the Marriages aforesaid; that is to say—

1st. The British Resident in the Territories aforesaid is hereby authorized and required to frame and preserve a General Register of all such Marriages as shall, under any of the Provisions hereinafter contained, be transmitted or reported to him for registration.

2d. Such General Register shall set forth or show the names and residence of the husband and of the wife; their respective ages and condition in life; the date of the Marriage, and any other particulars which the said British Resident may be instructed by the High Commissioner to record.

3d. Every couple (except as hereinafter excepted) united together within the said Territories as man and wife, in the presence of Witnesses, by any form of words expressive of their mutual and solemn consent to become and be, then and there, and from thenceforth, married people, married together, may have their said marriage registered. But no marriage, or pretended marriage, shall be registered, in which the parties are connected with each other by consanguinity or affinity in such a degree that the Governor of the Colony of the Cape could not by law have granted to them, if resident in the said Colony, a valid dispensation or authority to marry, and that no valid marriage could, by the laws of the said Colony, be therein solemnized between them, if domiciled in the said Colony; and if any marriage, or pretended marriage, hereby declared incapable of registration, shall yet be registered, such registration shall have or possess no force or effect: But no ground of objection arising from consanguinity or affinity which could in the said Colony have been dispensed with, by the authority of the said Governor, shall prevent registration, or its consequences, as hereinafter declared.

4th. Whenever any two spouses, married as aforesaid, shall together come before the British Resident, or any Magistrate resident in the said Territories, and shall declare the fact of such marriage, the Resident or Magistrate (as the case may be), shall ascertain, and record in writing, the names of the said Spouses, their residence, the date and place of their said marriage, and their respective conditions in life at the time of such marriage, whether they were previously married or not; and such record shall be signed or acknowledged by the said Spouses, in presence of the Resident or Magistrate. When any doubt shall appear to rest upon the fact or date of the alleged marriage, the Resident or Magistrate may call for the certificate in writing, or the solemn declaration before himself of such credible witness or witnesses as were present at, or cognizant of, the said marriage. But when, and as often as, any such marriage shall have been contracted before, and attested by, any person or persons recognized at the time amongst Her Majesty's Emigrant Subjects as holding a public office or authority, entitling him or them to attest marriage, any such attestation or a copy thereof shall, upon the identity of the married people being ascertained, be conclusive proof of the fact and date of the said marriage.

5th. In case it shall be inconvenient for both spouses to repair to the said Resident, or to any Magistrate, the latter may ascertain from the husband alone the circumstances aforesaid, and from them prepare the record. But when the husband shall appear alone, he will provide himself with a written certificate or statement, signed by the wife, or acknowledged by her in the presence of two neighbours, who shall witness the same, in which certificate or statement the wife shall set forth the date of the marriage between herself and her husband. And this certificate or statement shall be preserved, together with the record signed by the husband. In case of any doubt as to the fact or date of the marriage, the Resident or Magistrate shall proceed as before, in order to remove the same.

6th. Should either of the Spouses have departed this life, since contracting any such marriage as aforesaid, leaving the other of them still surviving, such survivor may appear before the British Resident or any Magistrate as aforesaid, and thereupon the record shall be prepared as if both spouses were living and present; except that the signature of the survivor alone shall be sufficient, and that the record shall set forth the death of the deceased. In every such case, moreover, the Resident or Magistrate shall require clear evidence, whether oral or by certificate or affidavit, as he shall judge necessary, of the fact and date of the marriage, and shall, when it is practicable, ascertain that the relatives or friends of the deceased concur in recognizing the said marriage.

7th. Should it happen, in any instance in which any such marriage shall have been contracted before, and attested by, any such persons in office or authority as are hereinbefore referred to, that either of the spouses shall refuse to join the other of them in obtaining the registration of the said marriage, then the spouse desiring such registration shall be at liberty to appear before the Resident or Magistrate, who shall, upon proof of such refusal, and production of such attestation as aforesaid, or an authentic copy thereof, and upon such further inquiry or proof, if any, as the said Resident or Magistrate shall judge necessary, prepare the necessary record, to which the signature of the spouse applying shall be sufficient, and which shall set forth the refusal of the other spouse.

8th. It shall not be any ground for refusing to prepare a record of, or to register any marriage, that both or either of the parties to the same, at the time of contracting the same, were underage.

9th. When, and as often as, any such Magistrate as aforesaid shall have prepared any such record as aforesaid, he shall, with all convenient speed, transmit the same, with all other writings or papers connected therewith, to the British Resident, who shall register every such marriage; and in all cases in which the necessary records shall be prepared by such Resident himself, he shall, from or by means of them, register the marriage therein mentioned.

10th. Every such marriage as aforesaid, when registered by the British Resident, shall, from and after such registration, be a marriage as lawful for all objects and purposes as a lawful marriage within the Colony of the Cape of Good Hope, and shall for all purposes and objects of a civil nature be deemed and taken to have been a lawful marriage from and after the date of the contracting of the same; but whether the same shall, from the date last mentioned, be deemed and taken to have been a lawful marriage for the purpose of a prosecution for bigamy or polygamy, in case either party shall afterwards, during the life-time of the other party, have contracted another marriage, shall be judged of and determined by the general principles of law, and independently of any of the provisions of this Proclamation.

11th And whereas some Ministers of the Dutch Reformed Church of the Cape Colony have heretofore proceeded to the said Territories, for the purpose of performing therein, as generally as circumstances would permit, the rites and services of religion: And whereas, certain of the Emigrant Subjects aforesaid have, from time to time, been married by such Ministers, as also by the officiating Minister in the Dutch Reformed Church at Pietermaritzburg, in the District of Natal: And whereas, there is reason to suppose that in all cases in which any such Minister as aforesaid shall have solemnized any marriage between parties who had previously lived together as man and wife, by virtue of any such irregular marriage as is hereinbefore mentioned, the said Minister has recorded as well the fact and date of such previous marriage as the marriage solemnized by himself: And whereas it is fit that full credit be given to all matters so vouched, it is hereby declared and directed that the British Resident shall receive all original marriage records made by any such minister, or authentic copies thereof, as evidence of the facts therein contained, and shall from or by means of them register the marriages therein mentioned, without requiring the presence of either spouse, or any further proof; and that from and after such registration every such marriage shall be deemed and taken to have been a lawful marriage, to all intents and purposes, from the date of the solemnization thereof by such minister, and to have been for all purposes of a civil nature a lawful marriage, from the date mentioned in the marriage record made by such minister, as that on which the first or previous marriage (if any) was contracted. But if, in any case, the fact or date of such previous marriage shall not appear in or by such marriage record, then the spouses or spouse desiring the registration of such first or previous marriage shall proceed in the same manner as is in that or the like behalf hereinbefore provided; but in every case, the marriage solemnized by such minister shall, after the registration thereof, be deemed to be a lawful marriage, to all intents and purposes, from the date of such solemnization.

12th. And whereas it is necessary to make temporary provision for the contracting of marriages within the territory aforesaid, pending the opening of churches and the settlement of fixed ministers within the same, it is hereby declared and directed that all persons who shall hereafter be married by any minister belonging to the Dutch Reformed Church of the Cape Colony, or person commissioned by the same to solemnize marriages within the said territories, shall be deemed and taken to be lawfully married; and such marriage shall be registered by the British Resident aforesaid, from or by means of the marriage records of such minister or person, and no publication of banns shall be necessary.

13th. If it shall so happen that any persons desirous to marry shall be unable to obtain the services of a minister, from whom their marriage might receive the solemn and becoming sanctions of religion, such persons may apply to, and come before, the said British Resident, or to the nearest Magistrate, and each of them shall, in his presence, solemnly declare that they know of no impediment to their marriage, and that they desire him to witness that they take each other respectively to be husband and wife; and thereupon a record of the said marriage shall be prepared, and the same shall be duly registered; and every such marriage shall be deemed to be as valid and effectual, and of the same force and obligation, as a lawful marriage solemnized within the Cape Colony.

14th. If both or either of the intended spouses be under age, the Resident or Magistrate (as the case may be) shall, before permitting the marriage, (unless in the case of a widow or widower) require proof of the consent of the parents or guardians, unless it shall be made to appear to him that there are none such living, or that they, without sufficient reason, refuse consent, or that, owing to distance or other causes, such consent could not possibly, or without much inconvenience, be obtained. But no marriage, once permitted and recorded, shall be impeached upon the ground that both or either of the spouses, being under age, were or was married without consent of parents or guardians.

15th. A certificate, signed by the British Resident, or Officer acting as such, stating the registered particulars of any marriage registered by him or in his office, in pursuance of this Proclamation, shall be good evidence of such marriage before all Courts and Magistrates.

And, lastly, I do hereby PROCLAIM, DECLARE, and MAKE KNOWN, that while, in my earnest desire to consult, as much as in me lies, the interests and feelings of all Her Majesty's subjects in the Territories aforesaid, and those of their wives and children, I have determined to take all measures necessary for establishing their marriages aforesaid beyond dispute or controversy; nothing in this Proclamation contained is to be construed so as to render invalid any marriage, contracted in the said Territories, and not registered under this Proclamation, which marriage would otherwise, by law, be regarded as valid;—it being my wish and intention not now to decide that any sort or description of marriage is illegal, but to furnish an easy and convenient mode by which certain marriages, now supposed to be illegal, may have their legality placed beyond doubt.

ORDINANCE

Enacted by the Governor of the Colony of the Cape of Good Hope, with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof.

For enabling Resident Magistrates to exercise, in regard to disputed rights of water, certain powers formerly exercised by Landdrost and Heemraden.

WHEREAS, in times of drought, disputes not unfrequently arise between farmers and others respecting the enjoyment of the water running through and over their respective properties; and whereas, before the abolition of the Boards of Landdrost and Heemraden, such disputes were cognizable by such Boards, which were accustomed to settle and arrange the same speedily, and at small expense. And whereas, since the abolition of the said Boards on the 31st of December, 1827, no local court or functionary has had any jurisdiction or authority touching or concerning such disputes, which could alone be entertained by the Supreme Court of the colony or by some Circuit Court: And whereas recourse, in the first instance, to either of such courts, is necessarily attended with delay in a class of cases in which a speedy remedy is particularly important,—while the expense of resorting to the same is often disproportioned to the injury complained of, whereby wrong-doers, calculating upon probable impunity, are emboldened to deprive their neighbours of their just rights: And whereas, by the Ordinance No. 77, bearing date the 30th of October 1830, and entitled "Ordinance for the better defining and fixing the duties and functions of the Civil Commissioners of this colony,"—all such duties as were formerly performed by the Landdrosts of the same districts, and which had not, by any other ordinances, been appointed to be performed by the Resident Magistrates, or any other officers, were directed to be performed by such Civil Commissioners: And whereas no law or ordinance has yet bestowed upon such Civil Commissioners, or any other officers, the powers, or any of them, which were formerly exercised by the Board of Landdrost and Heemraden: And whereas it will be expedient, in regard to disputes and questions about water, to bestow the jurisdiction and authority hereinafter mentioned, upon the Resident Magistrates, rather than upon the Civil Commissioners,—the same being of a judicial nature.—Be it enacted by the Governor of the Cape of Good Hope, with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof, that anything in the Royal Letters Patent, granted by his late Majesty King William the Fourth, bearing date at Westminster, the 4th of May, in the second year of his reign,—and commonly called the Charter of Justice,—or in the Ordinance No. 33, bearing date the 19th of December, 1827, entitled "Ordinance for creating Resident Magistrates and Clerks of the Peace in certain districts and places in this colony,"—or in any other law or ordinance heretofore in force in this colony,—which shall be repugnant to, or inconsistent with, any of the provisions of this ordinance, shall be repealed,—and the same is hereby repealed accordingly.

2. And be it enacted, that the respective Courts of Resident Magistrate shall possess and exercise, in regard to all complaints and disputes arising within their respective districts, relative to the wrongful diversion or appropriation of water, or injury to, or obstructions in, water courses, the same powers, jurisdiction, and authority, which the former Board of Landdrost and Heemraden of the same district, or of any district which embraced the territory now constituting the district of the Resident Magistrate, together with other territory, possessed and exercised in like cases. Provided always, that nothing herein contained shall be construed so as to confer upon any Resident Magistrate the right or power to frame or enforce any new distribution of any stream or supply of water, or to alter rights to water as subsisting at the time of the commencement and taking effect of this Ordinance. But in regard to the vindication of all subsisting rights, whether arising from regulations duly made by any former Board of Landdrost and Heemraden, or from contract, condition, prescription, or other legal source or origin, the Resident Magistrate shall adjudge and determine in like manner as Landdrost and Heemraden might, if now in existence, have lawfully adjudged and determined. Provided, however, that except in a case in which, by some written record, act, or instrument, preserved of record, and having the force of law, some greater sum is fixed by way of damages or penalty for the act complained of, and proved before such Magistrate, such Magistrate, acting under the provisions of this Ordinance, shall not be authorized, in any civil case, to award any damages, or, in any criminal case, to impose any fine, exceeding the sums to which his general jurisdiction in civil and criminal cases, respectively, is limited.

3. And be it enacted, that in adjudicating upon all such cases and questions as aforesaid, the Resident Magistrate shall proceed according to the rules and regulations in force for the time being in regard to the Courts of Resident Magistrate,—and every judgment or sentence of any such Magistrate shall be liable to be brought in appeal or review before the Supreme or any competent Circuit Court, in manner and form as shall by such rules and regulations be, in that behalf, provided. And the said Supreme or Circuit Court may reverse or alter the judgment of the said Magistrate, in such manner as justice shall require; and in case the record of the Resident Magistrate shall not appear to such Court to furnish sufficient evidence or information for the due determination of the case, may remit the same to the Resident Magistrate with instructions in regard to the taking or setting out of further evidence or information; or such Supreme or Circuit Court may order the parties, or either of them, to produce, at some convenient time, in such Court, such further proof as shall seem necessary or desirable; or such Court may take such other course as shall seem to tend to the most speedy, and the least expensive, settlement of the case.

4. And be it enacted that nothing in this ordinance contained shall be deemed or taken to impair the rights of Her Majesty the Queen, in regard to rivers, streams, or water-courses,—or to prevent her from regulating the same in any manner in which she might, before the passing of this ordinance, lawfully have regulated the same, by virtue of Her Royal Prerogative or any powers or authorities in that behalf, expressly or by implication, reserved to or vested in Her said Majesty.

5. And be it enacted, that this Ordinance shall commence and take effect from and after the promulgation thereof.

For enabling certain Public Sales to be held by Persons not licensed as Auctioneers, and without the payment of Auction Duty.

WHEREAS certain Associations or Societies have, from time to time, been formed in this Colony, for the promotion of Agriculture and the improvement of Live Stock:—And whereas the beneficial objects of such associations or societies, whether present or future, will be advanced by enabling them, at their respective periodical meetings, to hold or authorise public sales of farming produce and live stock, at which such stock and produce may be sold by persons not licensed as Auctioneers, and in regard to which no auction duty shall be payable:—Be it enacted by the Governor of the Cape of Good Hope, with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof, that so much of the Ordinance No. 6, 1844, entitled “Ordinance for regulating Sales by Auction,” as is repugnant to, or inconsistent with, any of the provisions of this Ordinance, shall be repealed, and the same is hereby repealed accordingly.

2. And be it enacted, that it shall and may be lawful for the Governor of this Colony, for the time being, upon the application of any such association or society as aforesaid, to grant permission to the same to establish, during the pleasure of the said Governor, fairs or markets to be held upon the occasion of the various meetings thereof, at which fairs or markets it shall be lawful to sell, by public sale or auction, horses, mules, asses, horned cattle, sheep, goats, pigs, implements of agriculture or husbandry, and all agricultural and farming produce and no person holding such sale as aforesaid, under or by virtue of any such appointment as is hereinafter mentioned, shall be required to take out or possess any licence in order to act thereat as auctioneer; nor shall any auction duty be paid or payable in regard to any such sale. Provided always, that not more than four such fairs or markets shall be held in any one year, by or in connection with any one association or society:—Provided also, that no such fair or market shall continue longer than two days.

3. And be it enacted, that it shall and may be lawful for any association or society which shall have received any such permission as aforesaid, to appoint, subject to the approbation of the resident magistrate of the district within which any such fair or market shall be held, some fit and proper person, or so many fit and proper persons, as shall be deemed to be expedient, to conduct, as auctioneer or auctioneers, the sales at such fair or market; and such resident magistrate, with the advice of such association or society, shall approve of and authorise such rate of remuneration for such person or persons as shall appear just and reasonable. Provided always, that no such resident magistrate shall, by reason of his having approved of such person or persons, or of the rate of remuneration which he or they shall receive, be deemed or taken to be in any degree responsible for the acts or conduct of such person or persons in regard to the sales held by him or them.

4. And be it enacted, that this Ordinance shall commence and take effect from and after the promulgation thereof.

ORDINANCE

Enacted by the Governor of the Colony of the Cape of Good Hope, with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof.

For amending and continuing certain provisions of the Ordinance No. 8, 1843, entitled “Ordinance for improving the Public Roads of the Colony.”

WHEREAS by the Ordinance No. 8, 1843, entitled “Ordinance for improving the Public Roads of the Colony,” it is provided, that the Central Board of Commissioners of Public Roads therein mentioned, should not assess or impose, in any one division, under and by virtue of the said Ordinance, any greater number of the rates in the said Ordinance described, than three: And whereas it is necessary, for the purpose of completing the main roads of the colony, that the said Board should be empowered to levy certain further rates in each division not exceeding three:—Be it enacted by the Governor of the Cape of Good Hope, with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof, that the said Central Board of Commissioners of Public Roads shall be, and it is hereby, authorised to assess and impose in each division of this colony, any number of further or additional rates not exceeding three, which further or additional rates shall be assessed, imposed, and levied, and in every respect treated and considered like the rates in the 24th section of the said Ordinance mentioned, precisely as if the said section, instead of providing that no greater number of such rates than three should be assessed or imposed, had provided that no greater number should be assessed or imposed than six.

2. And whereas, since the commencement and taking effect of the said Ordinance No. 8, 1843, to wit, upon the 8th of March 1848, His Excellency the Administrator of the Government, by his Proclamation in that behalf, erected and established certain new divisions, embracing territories which previously belonged to, and formed part of, the divisions which were in existence when the said Ordinance took effect as law: And whereas it is expedient that such new divisions should possess, respectively, divisional boards for improving the branch roads in such divisions:—Be it enacted, that within one calendar month next after the commencement and taking effect of this Ordinance, the civil commissioner of every such new division, or the officer for the time being, acting as such, shall call, in manner and form as in the 29th section of the said Ordinance set forth, the meeting therein mentioned; and every divisional board thereafter elected for any new division shall be deemed and taken to be a divisional board duly elected within the meaning of the said Ordinance, and invested with all the powers and authorities by the ordinance conferred upon divisional boards. Provided always, that in reckoning the number of rates which any divisional board for any such new division may hereafter lawfully assess and impose, every rate which may have been already assessed and imposed upon the immoveable property within such new division, or upon any part of it, by the divisional board of any division in which any such property was formerly situate, shall be duly taken into account, and regarded as if assessed and imposed by such new divisional board.

3. And be it enacted, that no divisional board, elected before the erection of any such new division as aforesaid, for a division which then comprised territory now embraced in such new division, shall have any power or authority in regard to the assessing, imposing, or levying rates; or in regard to any matter or thing whatever within any of the territory withdrawn from the old division and included in the new; but every such divisional board shall continue and be the divisional board for the residue of such old division and no more. Provided always, that if, in any case, any member of such divisional board shall be resident in the territory now belonging to the new division, he shall be held to be disqualified as such member, and his office is hereby declared vacant.

4. And be it enacted, that the divisional board of every such new division as aforesaid, and none other, shall be entitled to collect and receive any amount of road rates already assessed by any other divisional board upon, or in respect of, any immoveable property now situate within such new division, and which remain due and unpaid; and such new board shall have the same right and remedies to recover such arrears, as if they had been arrears of a rate imposed by such board.

5. And be it enacted, that in case any divisional board now existing, shall at any time before the 30th of May 1848, have raised money by way of loan on the credit of any rates to be assessed by such board, or shall have incurred any debt upon the faith of such rates, (whether already assessed and imposed or not), the divisional board for any new division, which shall embrace any of the immoveable property which before belonged to the division for which such old divisional board was elected, shall be bound to raise and pay to such old divisional board such a proportion of such loan or debt, as the value of the immoveable property which, when such loan or debt was incurred, belonged to the old division,—but is now included in the new,—bears to the value of the whole of the immoveable property which, at the time last-mentioned, belonged to the old division. And in case of any difference or dispute arising between the divisional boards of any old or any new division, touching the amount of any such contribution, the central board aforesaid shall examine into the same, and its decision shall be final, and binding upon both parties.

6. And be it enacted, that if, at any time hereafter, the Governor for the time being, shall be pleased, by proclamation, to erect or create any new division for or in respect of matters connected with the functions and duties of civil commissioners, which new division shall comprise and embrace immoveable property that, before such proclamation, belonged to, or formed part of, some older division or divisions then, and in that case, a divisional board shall be elected for such new division, and the provisions of the 2d, 3d, 4th, and 5th sections of this ordinance shall, so far as applicable, be applied to the divisional board of such new division, and the divisional board or boards of such other division or divisions as previously comprised any of the immoveable property of such new division. And in every such case, the civil commissioner of such new division shall, within one calendar month next after the day of the promulgation of the proclamation aforesaid, creating such new division, call the meeting hereinbefore and in the 29th section of the ordinance aforesaid, No. 8, 1843, mentioned.

7. And whereas, by the ordinance aforesaid, No. 8, 1843, the rates to be assessed or imposed by any divisional board are restricted to three: And whereas, it is expedient to provide for enabling the rate-payers, if so disposed, to authorise the divisional board, for the time being, to improve, from time to time, the branch roads of the several divisions:—Be it enacted, that, after the said three rates by the ordinance aforesaid authorised shall have been assessed and imposed, it shall and may be lawful for the civil commissioner of any division for the time being, and he is hereby required, when, and as often as he shall receive a requisition to that effect, signed, by any number of rate-payers in the division, not less than twelve, to call, upon a notice to be published in the Government Gazette for not less than thirty-one days, a meeting of all the owners of immoveable property in such division, valued at fifty pounds or upwards, to be held at some convenient time and place to be named in such notice, for the purpose of deciding whether or not a further rate shall be levied upon such immoveable property, in order to improve the branch roads of such division; and if, at such meeting, the majority, in value of rateable property, shall be in favor of assessing and imposing a further rate of a certain amount, not exceeding one penny in the pound, and shall so resolve; then the divisional board for the time being shall assess and impose such rate, which shall, in all respects, be deemed, taken, and judged of precisely as if the same had been one of the three rates by the ordinance aforesaid contemplated. But if any such meeting shall negative any proposed further rate, no meeting shall be called for again considering the propriety of assessing and imposing a further, until the expiration of a period of twelve calendar months from the day on which the former meeting was held.

8. And be it enacted, that this ordinance shall commence and take effect from and after the date of the promulgation thereof.

ORDINANCE

Enacted by the Governor of the Colony of the Cape of Good Hope, with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof.

For enlarging, in certain respects, the Powers of Municipal Commissioners, in regard to the Common Pasture Lands of the Municipality.

WHEREAS, by the 39th Section of the Ordinance No. 9, 1836, entitled, "Ordinance for the creation of Municipal Boards in the Towns and Villages of this Colony, on which the Local Regulations of each shall be founded," it is provided, in regard to the Common Pasture Lands, the property of any Municipality erected under or by virtue of the said Ordinance, that the Commissioners of such Municipality shall not be authorised or permitted to dispose of, alienate, build upon, inclose, or cultivate any such Common Pasture Lands, nor suffer any other person to build upon, inclose, or cultivate the same; and that any such alienation, by sale, gift, or otherwise, shall be null and void:—And whereas, in certain of the Municipalities established under and by virtue of the Ordinance aforesaid, it has become necessary to provide for locating, in an orderly and proper manner, such Fingoes and others as are now to be found irregularly squatting or living upon such Common Pasture Lands, to the serious detriment of the Pasturage thereof:—And whereas the nature and extent of such Common Pasture Lands are, in some places, such that portions thereof may be appropriated for the purpose aforesaid, and for other purposes useful to the public and profitable to the municipality, without prejudicing or interfering with any of the objects for which such common pasture lands were originally reserved:—And whereas it is expedient to authorise and empower the commissioners of the several municipalities aforesaid, under certain limitations and conditions, to carry into effect any such plan or purpose as aforesaid, which shall appear to them as necessary or desirable:—Be it enacted by the Governor of the Cape of Good Hope, with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof, that so much of the Ordinance aforesaid, No. 9, 1836, as is repugnant to or inconsistent with any of the provisions of this ordinance shall be repealed, and the same is hereby repealed accordingly.

2. And be it enacted, that when and as often as any Board of Commissioners appointed under or by virtue of the ordinance aforesaid, shall, at any meeting thereof, duly convened in pursuance of the said ordinance, or of the municipal regulations for the time being, determine that it is expedient, for or on account of any such object or purpose as is in the preamble of this ordinance mentioned, to dispose of, or alienate, or permit to be built upon, inclosed, or cultivated, any part or portion of the common pasture lands of the municipality to which such Board of Commissioners belongs, or any other lands of which the property shall be vested in such board, it shall and may be lawful for such board to apply in writing for the consent of the Governor of this Colony, for the time being, with the advice of the Executive Council, to the proposed sale, lease, or other arrangement for the occupation or inclosure of any part or portion of such lands, and upon obtaining such consent, but not otherwise, to execute or carry into effect such sale, lease, or other arrangement. Provided always, that no such application shall be made to the Governor aforesaid, until a notice in writing of such intended application shall have been posted for general information, at some conspicuous place of public resort within the municipality, for a period of not less than fourteen days, which notice shall, in some part thereof, describe the part or portion of land proposed to be sold, leased, or otherwise permitted to be occupied or intended to be enclosed, and the object, terms, and conditions of the proposed sale, lease, or other right of occupation or inclosure, and shall require any person objecting to the proposed proceeding to lodge with the Commissioners, within fourteen days from and after the date of the posting of such notice, his objections thereto in writing.

3. And be it enacted, that in every case in which any such board as aforesaid shall apply to the Governor for such consent as aforesaid, they shall transmit, together with such application, a copy of the notice posted as aforesaid, and of all objections which shall have been lodged in pursuance thereof, with such observations, if any, upon such objections, as they shall deem necessary or fitting.

4. And be it enacted, that when and as soon as the Governor aforesaid shall have signified his consent to the object of any such application as aforesaid, all contracts, leases, or other instruments necessary to effect the said object may be signed or executed by any two or more of the said commissioners, on behalf of the rest of them, in case they do not all join; and every such contract, lease, or other instrument, shall, thereupon, be deemed and taken to be binding upon the municipality, and the said commissioners, and their successors in office; and it shall and may be lawful for any person, lawfully claiming under any such contract, lease, or other instrument, to build upon, inclose, or cultivate such part or portion of common pasture land, or other land, in manner and form as he shall, by such contract, lease, or other instrument, be authorised to build, inclose, or cultivate:—Provided always, that nothing herein contained shall be deemed or taken to deprive any such commissioner as aforesaid of the right or power to carry into effect any plan for locating Fingoes or others upon the common pasture or any other lands, or any other plan involving the building upon, inclosure, or cultivation of any part or portion of the said lands, by means of municipal regulations duly made and published.

5. And be it enacted, that all monies arising from the sale or occupation of any part or portion of any such lands as aforesaid shall be payable to the commissioners of the municipality for the time being, as part and portion of the municipal funds of such municipality.

6. And be it enacted, that no person holding any office under any board of commissioners for any municipality shall purchase, or hire from, or acquire any right of occupation under the board of commissioners in or under which such person holds office. And if any such person shall, directly or indirectly, so purchase, or hire, or acquire any such right of occupation, he shall thereby forfeit a sum not exceeding five hundred and not less than one hundred pounds:—Provided always, that nothing herein contained shall extend, or be construed to extend, so as to prevent any such person from being chosen to fill any such office as aforesaid, at any time after the expiration of twelve months from the completion of any such sale or lease, or the acquisition of any such right of occupation as aforesaid; but no such person shall be eligible to be so chosen before the expiration of such twelve months.

7. And be it enacted, that this ordinance shall commence and take effect from and after the promulgation thereof.

ORDINANCE

Enacted by the Governor of the Colony of the Cape of Good Hope, with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof.

For regulating the Duties and Remuneration of Field-cornets.

WHEREAS, owing to the various alterations made from time to time, in the administration of the country districts of this colony, the functions of field-cornets have been considerably narrowed; and it is now expedient to define or describe their duties, and to substitute for the principle of a fixed annual allowance, a remuneration proportioned to the services performed:—Be it enacted by the Governor of the Cape of Good Hope, with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof, that the "Instructions for the Field-cornets in the several Country Districts," published by the then Governor and Council of this Colony on the 24th October 1805, shall be repealed, except in so far as the same repeal any former placards, ordinances, or customs, and the same are hereby repealed accordingly. Provided always, that the field-cornets and assistant field-cornets shall continue to be appointed as at present.

2. And be it enacted, that from and after the commencement and taking effect of this Ordinance, the several duties belonging to the office of field-cornet shall be the following, that is to say,—

- (a) He is, by virtue of his office, an officer of the law proper for the execution of criminal warrants, and as such, is bound to apprehend without warrant, every person whom he shall have reasonable grounds to suspect of having committed any murder, culpable homicide, rape, robbery, or assault, with intent to commit any of those crimes, or assault, in which a dangerous wound is given, arson, housebreaking, with intent to commit a crime therein; or theft of any cattle, sheep, or goat; or any other crimes of equal guilt with any of those crimes. And he may also take into custody every person whom he shall see engaged in any affray, or whom he shall find attempting to commit a crime, or clearly manifesting an intention so to do.
- (b) Whenever it shall be brought to his knowledge that any person, within his ward, has died other than a natural death, namely, by violence or accident, or his own act, or the act of God, the field-cornet shall, with all speed, repair to inspect the body, and hold an inquest thereon.
- (c) The field-cornet will obtain and transmit to the resident magistrate the fullest information respecting the circumstances of any such untimely death, and communicate, at the same time, the result of his own observations.
- (d) In cases of assault in which any wound, supposed to be dangerous, has been given, the field-cornet will repair to and examine the injured party, and apprise the resident magistrate of the case and its circumstances.
- (e) When he shall arrest any prisoner, he is authorized, if need be, to appoint any proper person or persons to be a special constable or special constables, for the custody and conveyance of such prisoner to the nearest field-cornet on the road to the nearest gaol, or in case he himself be the field-cornet nearest to the gaol, then he will send the prisoner to the gaol direct. And every such special constable will be paid at the rate of four pence for each mile which he shall convey any prisoner, or prisoners, and four pence for each mile which he shall be obliged to return to his own residence, besides being repaid any sum which he may have expended in providing necessary food or lodging for such prisoner or prisoners.

(f) Every field-cornet is bound to receive all prisoners brought to him from any field-cornet or justice of the peace at a greater distance from the gaol, and to pass such prisoners on towards the gaol in the same manner as if he had arrested them himself. And any special constable appointed by him to convey any such prisoner,—whether the same special constable who brought such prisoner, or one appointed anew,—shall be entitled to the mileage aforesaid.

(g) Every field-cornet whose ward adjoins the sea, shall, in all cases of ships or vessels wrecked or stranded upon the coast, repair to the spot, and use every exertion in his power to save life and property; and he may appoint such number of special constables as may be necessary to protect property and prevent plunder.

(h) Every field-cornet receiving special instructions from the resident magistrate, respecting any special duty to be performed, will duly conform to the same.

3. And be it enacted, that the remuneration to be received by field-cornets shall, hereafter, be as follows, that is to say,—

(a) When he shall be from home engaged in any such service as aforesaid, he shall receive an allowance for horse-hire at the rate of one shilling and sixpence per hour.

(b) When he shall be from home, engaged in any such service as aforesaid, he shall receive an allowance for his time at the rate of seven shillings and sixpence per day.

(c) Besides any claim which he may have for time and horse-hire, he shall receive for every inquest which he may hold, the sum of one pound.

(d) For receiving, supplying with necessary food, and forwarding from his residence, any person brought to him on his way to gaol, he shall be entitled to the sum of one shilling per day.

(e) For any special service required of him by the resident magistrate, and not adequately repaid by an allowance for time and horse-hire, the field-cornet shall receive such a sum as the governor of the colony shall approve of and direct.

4. And be it enacted, that from henceforth, the field-cornets shall be deemed and taken to be under the authority of the resident magistrate of the district, as well as of the civil commissioner of the division.

5. And be it enacted, that nothing in this Ordinance contained, shall extend to, alter, or affect any former Law or Ordinance, by which any duty or service has been imposed upon field-cornets; and every field-cornet while acting in the performance of any such duty or service not otherwise remunerated, shall be entitled to be paid for time and horse-hire at the rate aforesaid.

6. And be it enacted, that this Ordinance shall commence and take effect, as law, from and after the 1st January, 1849.

ORDINANCE

Enacted by the Governor of the Colony of the Cape of Good Hope, with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof:

For amending the Ordinance No. 86, entitled "Ordinance for establishing and regulating a new Savings Bank, in the Colony of the Cape of Good Hope."

WHEREAS the Ordinance No. 86, entitled "Ordinance for establishing and regulating a new Savings Bank in the Colony of the Cape of Good Hope," requires, in some respects, to be amended:—Be it enacted by the Governor of the Cape of Good Hope, with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof, that so much of the said ordinance as shall be repugnant to or inconsistent with any of the provisions of this ordinance shall be repealed, and the same is hereby repealed accordingly.

2. And be it enacted, that all inhabitants resident in Cape Town, or within ten miles thereof, shall be eligible to be elected and become managers of "the Cape of Good Hope Savings Bank Society."

3. And be it enacted, that no person, by reason merely that such person is a member of the said society, shall be deemed or taken to be debarred from making deposits in the said Savings Bank, or deriving interest or profit from the funds so deposited, in like manner as if such depositor were not a member of the said society.

4. And whereas the attendance of two or more managers, as in the 20th section of the ordinance aforesaid mentioned, is at times irregular, and it is desirable to provide for greater punctuality in the despatch of the business devolving upon such managers; Be it enacted, that it shall and may be lawful for the committee of management of the said society, by any resolution thereof, from time to time to authorize and direct the payment, out of the surplus funds of the said society, of a fee or allowance, not exceeding the sum of five shillings to each manager, not exceeding two, who shall attend at the office or place of business of such society at such time as shall be appointed by any rule or regulation of the said society. And it shall and may be lawful for the said committee of management, by any resolution thereof, to provide as they shall see fit for the mode in which other managers, or another manager, shall be called in, in case of non-attendance at the proper time of both or either of the managers in their order of rotation, and to determine that the fee or allowance which would have belonged to the person or persons absenting himself or themselves had he or they attended, shall be received by the person or persons attending, in manner and form as the said committee shall by resolution fix, in his or their room and stead.

5. And be it enacted, that the general meeting of the committee of management in the 10th section of the said ordinance mentioned, and therein directed to be held on the first Thursday in every month, may be lawfully held upon such day in the first week of every month, as shall by any rule or regulation of the said committee of management be fixed and appointed.

6. And be it enacted, that the general meeting of the said Savings Bank Society, in the 17th section of the ordinance aforesaid mentioned, and therein directed to be holden in the month of January in each year, shall be held, not in the said last mentioned month, but, in lieu and stead thereof, in the month of March in each year. Provided always, that the said 17th section shall, in all other respects, remain and continue in full force and effect, and that the committee of management now existing, shall continued to act until their successors shall be elected at the next general meeting aforesaid, which will be held in the month of March 1849.

7. And be it enacted, that for the purpose of attesting any such declaration as is in the 21st section of the said ordinance mentioned, any office bearer in the said society shall be taken and construed to be a manager, and, as such, to be competent to attest any such declaration.

8. And be it enacted, that this ordinance shall commence and take effect from and after the promulgation thereof.

SEE SUPPLEMENT

Council Chamber, June 28th, 1848.

THE following Minute and Memoranda were laid on the Council Table by His Excellency the Governor, and ordered to be published for general information.

WM. HOPE,
Clerk of the Legislative Council.

WINE AND SPIRIT ORDINANCE.

MINUTE.

Government House, 28th June, 1848.

Honorable Gentlemen.—Petitions have been received from the inhabitants of certain divisions of the Colony, accompanied by representations from gentlemen whose opinions are entitled to respectful consideration, setting forth that the Ordinance No. 29, of 1846, "For the better regulation of the sale of Wines and Spirituous and Fermented Liquors," has given rise to an increase of drunkenness, indolence, and immorality; and that the increased sale of intoxicating liquors, resulting from the reduction of the sums payable on obtaining licenses, has had the double effect of lowering the price of such liquors, and introducing a new class of keepers of public-houses who are less respectable in character, and less scrupulous in infringing the provisions of the Ordinance than was the case under the former law.

My attention was, in the first instance, particularly called to the prayer of these petitions by a Memorandum from the Secretary to Government, in which he represents that the evils complained of have arisen, in his opinion, not from any defect in the Ordinance, but from its not having been properly understood by the officers whose duty it is to administer it: that the Ordinance was designed to prevent the sale of intoxicating liquors in unlicensed houses; and that, with this view, the sum payable for a license was reduced, in order that a sufficient number of licensed houses might be provided to meet the wants of the public; while, at the same time, it was rendered so obviously the interest of the keepers of licensed houses, and of the public in general, to expose and bring to punishment unlicensed dealers, that the police, with the aid of orderly and well-disposed persons would, on the supposition that the law were properly administered, suffice for the performance of their legitimate duties under the Ordinance, viz.: the detection and exposure of unlicensed traders in spirituous liquors. But the Memorandum of the Secretary to Government proceeds to state that, instead of contemplating these legitimate objects of the Ordinance—the supply of the requisite number of licensed houses, and the punishment of unlicensed traders, not by the forcible interference of the police, but by detection, and conviction in the Magistrates' Courts—the Magistrates, in most divisions of the Colony have licensed a greater number of houses than were required for the proper accommodation of their districts; and have employed their police, rather in the forcible suppression of drunken riots, than in the prevention of such scenes by means of informations, and consequent convictions in the Magisterial Courts. In short, it is averred in this Memorandum, that there has been a general misinterpretation and consequent mal-administration of the Ordinance, which has, consequently, not been fairly tried by its legitimate results.

On the receipt of this Memorandum, I thought it advisable to refer the whole question to His Honor the Chief Justice, who having lately returned from a judicial circuit through all the divisions of the Colony, was obviously well qualified, by his recent opportunities of observation, to afford a leading opinion on the effect of the Ordinance—the manner in which it has been worked—and the amendments of which it is capable.

In the Memorandum with which His Honor has furnished me, in reply to this reference—he enters very fully into the objects and effect of the Ordinance.

The general object of laws on this subject is, he observes, to do away with drunkenness altogether: but as the law has never been able to effect this, it has endeavored to obtain an approximation to it. The most obvious means (he considers) to effect this end, would be to increase the difficulty of obtaining intoxicating drinks, by raising the price of licenses, and consequently reducing the number of licensed houses—but the Ordinance has increased the number of such houses—has lowered the character of public-house keepers, and has afforded facilities for inebriety, by increasing the number of isolated public-houses. His Honor thinks, for these reasons, that the present law encourages drunkenness, and that this vice can only be checked by reducing the number of licenses, raising the character of publicans—and, in every way, discountenancing temptation. He is further of opinion, that the probabilities of detection are not sufficiently strong; that the people aggrieved by drunken riots will not, on that account, assist the police in their detective duties, and that the object of the Ordinance has not been, and will not be, attained. For these reasons, the Chief Justice doubts the possible efficiency of the present Ordinance: and also, whether the Resident Magistrate be not bound to grant all licenses which are not objected to by a householder, and is accordingly of opinion that the law is defective, and requires material amendment.

The discrepancies between these Memoranda are too obvious to require comment, but as the Ordinance was passed by a unanimous vote of the Council, upon the grounds and principles stated by the Secretary to Government, I think that the whole Council should undertake its revision; and with this view I have ordered all the papers bearing upon the subject to be laid upon the table for your consideration.

It will be your province to decide which of the opposite views set forth in the Memoranda above alluded to, is founded in justice and reason; and in order to give you a fair opportunity of doing so, I propose that you should consider this Ordinance, and its effects, in a Committee of the whole Council, (four to form a quorum,) when I do not doubt that the examination of the evidence bearing upon this important question will lead you to a conclusion which will prove beneficial to the interests of the society committed to your charge.

H. G. SMITH.

Colonial Office, 16th May, 1848.

MEMORANDUM.

I submit to His Excellency the Administrator of the Government, for his consideration, a petition from certain inhabitants of Port Elizabeth and its vicinity, relative to the working of the Ordinance No. 29, of 1846, for the better regulation of the sale of wines and spirituous and fermented liquors: together with a letter from the Rev. F. McClelland, Colonial Chaplain at Port Elizabeth, accompanying the same; also a memorial from certain inhabitants of the village of Colesburg upon the same subject, and the report of the Resident Magistrate of Colesburg thereon.

The complaint of the memorialists, in both cases, is that the ordinance in question has given rise to an increase of drunkenness, indolence, and immorality; and that the increased sale of intoxicating liquors, resulting from the reduction of the sum payable on obtaining licenses, has had the double effect of lowering the price of such liquors, and introducing a new class of keepers of public houses, who are less respectable in character, and less scrupulous in infringing the provisions of the ordinance than under the former law.

I submit that, in point of fact, these evils are not properly attributable to the ordinance itself, but to the manner in which it has been administered in the particular districts alluded to, as well as in most of those throughout the Colony, and that if it be examined on the supposition that a sound discretion is exercised in the administration of its details, it will be found to be calculated rather to repress than to promote the evils here complained of.

The complaints of the memorialists are, in substance, two: firstly, that the number of licensed houses of accommodation has greatly increased; secondly, that in consequence of this increase, which renders it more difficult for the police to maintain a proper surveillance over them, and of the inferior character of the present class of publicans, the houses are not so orderly and so respectably conducted as they used to be.

With reference to the first of these complaints it cannot be denied that the number of such houses has greatly increased, but it has so increased in consequence, in most places, of a corresponding diminution in the number of unlicensed retailers. Whether it might be beneficial altogether to prevent the consumption of intoxicating liquors in the community, is a question which it would be useless here to enter upon; however desirable it might be considered, it has never been considered practicable. Obviously, therefore, the wisest course for the government was to take measures for placing houses, intended for the sale of wines, &c., under efficient superintendence. By lowering the cost of obtaining a license they left less temptation open for keeping unlicensed houses; and by inflicting penalties upon unlicensed dealers, and depriving them of all power of recovering debts which might be incurred to them (even to the extent of invalidating promissory notes and other otherwise legal documents, given on such consideration,) the advantages enjoyed by the licensed over the unlicensed dealers were made so great, that it was naturally expected that the effect of the ordinance would be almost to put an end to unlicensed dealing; and wherever the law has been properly administered, experience has verified this expectation.

But if it be said that the drunkenness and its concomitant evils, described in these memorials, exist in consequence of the number of unlicensed houses, the answer is that the ordinance has provided such stringent regulations for the suppression of this nuisance, that if it is suffered to continue it must be through the fault of the magistrate or the inhabitants. A man is seen coming drunk out of a house not licensed for the sale of intoxicating liquors; he is pointed out by one of the inhabitants to the police; the police watch the house; similar cases, attended with riot and disturbance, are found to occur; information is laid before the magistrate, or, (if the seat of magistracy be inconveniently distant,) before a justice of the peace; who may convict the party accused, upon reasonable inference, without actual proof of any money payment.

Again, because the cost of obtaining a license has been reduced, it does not on that account follow that it is incumbent on a resident magistrate to grant every license that is applied for. Any inordinate increase in the number of these houses is expressly provided against by the ordinance, which gives the most ample opportunity to objectors to oppose the granting of a license in each individual case, particularly on the ground of character, which the magistrate is expressly required to consider in granting a license; a good character affording the best guarantee for an orderly house. An indiscriminate issue of licenses is subversive of this salutary requisition.

It is further made part of the duty of the resident magistrate to enquire into the "number of previously licensed houses already in the neighbourhood." If a resident magistrate overlook this direction, and license a number of houses too large for control, it is certainly not wonderful that such a step should lead to an increase of intoxication and all its concomitant evils, but such an unfortunate result must be attributed, not to any defect in the ordinance, but to a want of discretion on the part of the resident magistrate. The proper effect of the law appears to be to check the unlicensed sale of intoxicating liquors, firstly, by rendering it more safe for the dealers themselves to sell with a license than without one; secondly, by making it the interest of the licensed dealers to expose and bring to punishment unlicensed traders; and thirdly, by inducing licensed dealers to prefer orderly to disorderly houses.

With reference to the second complaint of the memorialists, it can only be said that the legislature appears to have taken every possible precaution to check the spread of intoxication, and to secure the proper management of licensed houses of accommodation. Before an applicant can obtain a license he must produce a certificate of his respectability by at least two householders of good repute; and by the chief officer of the police of the town or district in which the house to be licensed is situated—he is bound, on all occasions, to produce his license to the police, when required—he must at any moment admit the police to inspect his premises; and he is liable to heavy penalties if any person, not being a lodger, is found in his house at illegal hours; in short it would seem impossible to devise more satisfactory precautions to prevent those very evils which are alleged to have resulted from this ordinance. But if the resident magistrate act upon the principle that he has no course but to grant every application made to him, without reference to the number of houses already licensed, and the requirements of the neighbourhood, or his means of control, by surveillance, not physical force. No police would be sufficient to preserve order under such a system. I submit, therefore, that no alteration in the law is required, but that the exercise of a sounder discretion in the administration of it will lead to all the advantages which the memorialists desire to obtain.

The advantages which may be secured by a proper and discreet working of the law may, by way of example, be illustrated by the case of Simon's Town, where the scenes of drunkenness, rioting, and debauchery, under the former law, were such as to exceed belief, and lead, in some instances, to fatal consequences; whereas, now, though the number of licensed houses has increased three fold, order and regularity prevail. But there is no longer an unlicensed house in Simon's Town, although under the old law they were six times as numerous as the licensed houses.

Since the passing of this ordinance, there have been only two unlicensed houses in Simon's Town, both of which were detected within a very short space of time, and have been put down.

"Of all places in the Colony, Simon's Town is the one which might be supposed to lead to drunken and riotous disturbances, in consequence of the great numbers of seamen constantly coming on shore from the different ships of war, &c. &c. yet there is not now a more orderly town or village in the Colony. It would be absurd to suppose that the four policemen of the district keep the twelve houses in order by any exertion of physical force, nor will it be imagined that a higher feeling of morality pervades in Simon's Town than in other parts of the Colony. Obviously, therefore, this happy result must be referred to the working of the new law. In Simon's Town there is not an unlicensed house; not because they are put down by the police, but because there is so large a body of licensed people, having a direct interest in their detection, that they cannot hope to escape. In consequence of the magistrate controlling the licensed houses by the power of the law, and not by physical force; not one of the keepers of licensed houses dares to let a man leave his house drunk, or to permit drunkenness within it, because he knows, that if he did so, he would be informed against by the police, and would lose his license; the attention of the police being directed to the detection of offences against the ordinance, so as to ensure conviction in the magistrates' court, rather than the forcible suppression of such offences.

I submit that, if a similar course were adopted in other districts of the Colony, similar results would inevitably follow.

The object of the law is to provide houses for the accommodation and wants of the public, and not to permit drinking in excess, or any other immorality to be committed in them; and it is by taking proper steps to insure informations being laid against those who act otherwise, that the law is properly worked.

The mistakes which have been committed in most divisions of the Colony, have been the licensing of an excessive number of houses, and the supposition that the police must be employed to suppress, by force, any irregularity which may arise therefrom; whereas the law has provided other means for securing its objects. The forcible interference of the police is likely only to add to the uproar, and to bring the law into contempt; but the presence of competent witnesses in the Magistrate's Court, who can prove that any infraction of the law has taken place—that there has been drunkenness, gambling, or debauchery of any description in any of the licensed houses—would afford the best security for the proper working of the law. With such information, and a clear case before him, the Resident Magistrate can, not only deprive the offender of his license—but fine him £50, the amount of his recognizance. It is the proper function of the police to provide such information, by watching the proceedings of the licensed retailers of intoxicating liquors—and I submit that it is the want of these precautions, and the attempt to put down the evils complained of, by means of physical force—a course which the Ordinance did not contemplate—that have led to the evils complained of in the accompanying Memorials.

JOHN MONTAGU.

His Excellency the Administrator of the Government.

MEMORANDUM.

As to the beneficial operation, or otherwise, of the Spirit-Licence Ordinance, now in force.

In the enquiry, how far the local Law, as to the sale of "Spirituous Liquors," has proved beneficially effective in actual operation, it becomes incumbent, in the first place, it would seem, to ascertain what in view with the Legislature were the object and purposes in framing the Law;—and having arrived at that principle, then to examine its soundness as a principle of well founded legislation for carrying into effect those purposes and object.

"The 'preamble' of the Ordinance itself only states it to be 'expedient to amend and consolidate the laws' then in force, though its 'title' stands for the better regulation of the sale of wines and spirituous liquors.

General expediency, therefore, must be referred to for the exposition of the probable views with the legislature in the legal enactments of the Ordinance.

In general theory, it would be admitted, as of course, that all such indulgence of appetite for wines and spirituous liquors, as may subvert self-control, and restraint, is of mischievous tendency, affecting, more or less, the maintenance of orderly conduct and peaceable dispositions. If so, that law would prove the most beneficially effective, that best restrained the so vicious indulgence of that appetite with so numerous a class of the community to which any legislative check would be requisite and attach.

For, though wholesome sound wine may not be considered deleterious, except in excess, the "spirituous liquor," in its common supply, to that class, has been found more or less prejudicial, even without excess, to heal and habits of strict sobriety—while to render even the Wine of the Colony sufficiently strong to taste, depraved by custom, of those, who have little to spend, at a time, upon its gratification, a spirituous compound is generally so mingled, as almost to raise it to the strength of a spirit, in quick excitement, and if taken, not even in any great quantity, almost certain intoxication.

Such reasoning, pressed to extremes, would clearly extend to the prohibition, by law, of all "wine and spirit" sales;—but as the natural appetite for them cannot be extinguished, but will have its indulgence, "per fas atque, a fas," the law attempts not the quixotic project of eradicating the vice, and only can seek to restrain it, as much as may be, from proving mischievous to the peace and good order of the general community, while correcting the individual habits.

Unfortunately, the refreshment and enjoyment, supposed, (whether justly, or otherwise), to belong to the accommodation of the debauches, whether in the towns or country of England, cannot be found in any like local accommodation here. The hotels and inns, throughout the colony, and so few, comparatively, in number, are suited only to visitors of better means and degree; while the catered-supply, in its fiery ingredients, soon puts good sense and better feeling into confusion, and destroys all quiet fellowship and good humour. Enjoyment, even if it could be had, as to, or in the appetite, would be too dearly purchased in the contact with such association, as would surely attach to it; and even the local catered accommodation is unsuitable to any society, that would cheer, enliven, or invigorate.

If such be the true state of things, as to the indulgence of this appetite, and as to the places of procuring it, it would seem, a priori, desirable to reduce, rather than increase the number of catered-places, so as to abate the temptation, which even this frequency may expose to; and thus, also, obviously to facilitate the police surveillance, as to their proper conduct and regulation.

Such views, however, are in direct conflict certainly with the tendency and provisions of the Ordinance in question. For, where, by the former law, repealed by the Ordinance, every licence, in the towns of the colony, cost the holder for the year £112—that amount now stands reduced to £20. The natural result has been, as of course was expected, the greatly increased number of licenses.

for the discussion sake, perhaps, to ascertain the comparative numbers. But it cannot be controverted, that purchasers, at so low a cost, must differ much in character and substance with the former licensed keepers at the higher rate. The means as the credit of the lower purchasers may, in many instances, be such, as not to enable them to supply good stock or any thing like good accommodation, as our every day's sight will prove. The too great competition for canteen profits, create disregard of all hazards, but of losing the customer and the liquor, levy upon him. In the solitary canteens, along the roads, in the interior of the colony, any and every irregularity may be committed with perfect impunity, except as to the evils brought thus upon the master, or family of the almost way-laid traveller, or habitual drunkard. In canteen rivalry for custom the credit, upon which alone the immediate appetite may be indulged perhaps, is more readily obtained. The temptation to seek that credit is increased, and the more ready indulgence leads to intemperance.

As to coffee, public, or eating houses here, as in England, there are none. I am satisfied, and to take the statutes in force there, as to licenses, as at once applicable to the colony, would seem to be less wary of all the local principles, which should direct and regulate all local legislation. If the habit of drinking is to be discouraged, as tending to reduce and relax all moral influence, (and all police regulation, except as to revenue, must be taken, "ipsa virtute" so to apply to it), then the number of licenses should be kept down to the lowest proportionate level of every particular portion of the population, with which each spirit-license has to deal; while the condition and circumstances of each license-holder should afford him competency to deal respectably, as to his supplies, in respect of means or credit, and able to provide, at least decent accommodation, (as notoriously, not now the fact) for his customers, having, with it, a character to lose, and above the temptation of making every visitor a drunkard, if only he can thrust him unseemly from his house.

To repress the indulgence of the vicious appetite by punishment of the drunkard, or the party, who has made, or suffered, him to become so, may be, justly, a wholesome legal restraint; but as precaution is better than punishment, the law, that in any degree, countenances and fosters temptation, in this, exposes to it, becomes accessory, almost, to the crime, and at once highly questionable, as to its policy.

I am wholly at a loss, therefore, I confess, to understand, in any way, how the increased number of "spirit licenses" can serve the moral influence of so desirable action in every community, as to abstinence from drinking, and considering the preservation of such habits, as in their results the most certain, as the highest revenue, that the public interest shall seek or could realize, I cannot for a moment presume, that the local legislature has had even in consideration any comparative revenue amount from the grant of "spirit licenses."

But the trade, certainly, as concerned in the licenses, should be protected, yet this caution should take, I consider, only secondary place with the legislator, even when liquor-smuggling is brought to bear upon the question. This is no doubt, the great difficulty the legislature has to contend with, in the unlicensed retail dealer, who robs the revenue, and him, who has been called upon to defray the license dues.

It has been assumed, whether upon certain proof I am not aware, that smuggling houses have diminished in the ratio, that canteens have increased. Such a conclusion would find its warranty, considerably, in comparison, from the Record Books of the Magistracy, of the convictions upon information, within fixed equal periods. But be it so, the trade, I conceive, would be too dearly protected, at the cost and risk of greater temptation to the vicious indulgence of spirit drinking. Police information and its consequences, are in commencement only, be it remembered, when the actual offence of "drunkenness" stands committed. On this side of drunkenness, and just only so, no police restriction applies. If the customer can only walk his way from the house, the license-keeper has only realized the legal proceeds of his license;—and again and again, the visitor may renew his spirit-potations without exposure of his host or himself to the police, till the deleterious, treacherous habit leads on to the confirmed and convicted drunkard; while in innumerable instances the canteen-keeper still escapes detection, however rigid the legislation was intended to be for securing it. The trade, therefore, is too dearly protected, I must repeat, at the cost of moral principles, if its violation is thus at all induced. To try the truth, in some degree, of this position, also, and either way, compare the number of convictions for drunkenness, with those, against "canteen-keepers," for that offence; and however liberal be the allowance, to be made, for drunkards from private houses, the very inferior number of any canteen informations—or I am indeed much mistaken—will prove, that all the stringent regulations of the law, now in force, have been carried out with little apparent efficiency.

But to recur again to the evils, as resulting from unlicensed spirit dealing, will it be deemed of little significance, that the legislature itself is not, in that case, chargeable with being accessory to the vicious practice of such great demoralizing tendency! In avoidance, however, of the evil, to increase the penalty upon conviction, (especially if the license charge be high) and the whole of it to the informer, would seem to myself, as likely to operate more forcibly in repression, than by lowering the license charge, so as to render it scarce worth while to incur the hazard. But this may be mere matter of opinion, while it is too certain, that the smuggling trade cannot be deterred, and the character, condition, and the conduct of the canteen keeper, at the higher or at the lower license, remain unaltered upon the legislative balance.

Spirit smuggling, which must ever avoid, with more than ordinary caution, detection and exposure in drunkenness, or the effects of it, was alleged to be the proof, on which the altered and existing law was fixed, as now, wholesale purchases are related to be the great cause of its failure in just and effective operation, in restraint of drunkenness. Upon either point of its active defect, in legal efficiency, the responsibility and discretion of the legislature would appear to me less intimately involved, than in immediately and directly leading itself to the facility and means of indulgent habits, (the most destructive of the "moral feeling" and its influences over the whole community) legitimately too, however pernicious, as the most prolific parent of every species of crime, just only not up to drunkenness, and is this almost inevitably at length, to the habitual commission, at least, of that legal offence.

Immediately after the new law, as now in force, the practice of clogging together for the purchase of wholesale quantities, did, as might be expected, very much prevail,—as I found in then passing through the colony on circuit. But I have reason, also, to believe,—from subsequent, like experience, that the custom has, of late, greatly abated;—and naturally so,—because the ready money, generally requisite for the wholesale purchase, is not so readily found or made up, as the small pittance for the canteen,—or the easier credit probably afforded by it; while even the habit will be less accelerated in growth, than by the more constant canteen-indulgence of it.

Be this, however, as it may, I must venture to repeat, that the guilt of drunkenness, through unlicensed dealing, as of all the various heinous crimes it has led, and will ever lead to, lies not at all with the Legislature, as to the immoral influence. The culprit is not made so by its direct agency and improvidence, and that law surely is the soundest, which holds the chief public good, as founded in the habits of sobriety, paramount to all other considerations.

Without taking licence to determine whether the principle and policy of the existing Spirit Ordinance, contemplated even, or extended further, than to the efficiency of the Police Regulations for the prevention of unlicensed spirit dealing, and of irregularities under the license, when obtained,—it does not seem so certain, that the attainment even of these desirable objects can be effectuated by the provisions of the Ordinance,—and of the simple (amongst other) reasons.

The efficiency is wholly dependent upon "informations," and sufficient proof in support of them by PEOPLE, who will not—and justly perhaps—cannot be expected to be at the trouble of affording it. Nuisances, of all sorts, are ever, and constantly, induced by a neighbourhood of individuals of it, who will not become "informers," not only disliking the character and the service; but as not individually, and thus, too little interested in the concern. Thus persons get licenses, which, if just objections, in the open court, had been made to them, they would have failed to obtain. Drunkards, from houses—licensed and unlicensed—are seen, but passed by, and noted only, as proving the so general prevailing degeneracy from sobriety. No one, scarcely, could perhaps, or would, take the trouble, or not consider it, as a misapplication—if not waste of his time—to go some three miles, or more, to a Resident Magistrate—for to him, at such distance, must the complaint be made,—though a Justice of the Peace, and one, who was willing, and able, to do the duty under, and as prescribed by the Ordinance, might nearer be found—to lodge an information, under the Ordinance, and again, afterwards, to attend once, if not oftener, for the purpose of sustaining a legal conviction.

Drunkenness, made a crime by law, is considered so; and, as a crime, left with the Police surveillance and detection; while not being looked upon, as a crime of any enormity—as theft, robbery, and the like, all take less care, as to the conviction, or escape, of the offender;—and the offender, in point of fact, is left, almost wholly to, and with, the Police.

Equally, is it the fact, that licenses are granted to persons without character, because no objections are lodged. The Magistrate may, himself, have no knowledge of the applicant, or not sufficient to warrant refusal, where no objectors appear, and a license inundation bursts in devastations upon the public moral interests.

Experience has fully shown, I am impressed, and will continue to show, that if the Police does not, or cannot, in its so various and manifold duties, take charge of the sobriety law, the law will, and must, remain ineffectual.

Except in the towns, the Police can rarely, if at all, be expected to act; and yet on the roads, where canteens are, too frequently, found open, no small injury is sustained from the drunkenness of those, to whom the transport of valuable goods, as the performance of other serious services, must be entrusted. If police restraint be wanting, and penalties excite neither interest with the informer, nor fear with the parties exposed to him, the legal restrictive regulations, however sound, even in theory, will become a dead letter in operation; and thus the Ordinance in question has become, in the general opinion, and justly, I conceive, in my own, inefficient and inert.

But it has been considered, that the evil of too numerous canteens, at any given place, or neighbourhood, is chargeable to the Resident Magistrate, as having been invested, by the Ordinance, with a discretionary power, as to the grant or refusal of "spirit licenses."

This seems, however, by no means clear. The jurisdiction—as generally given in the Ordinance, may be held only to be "ministerial";—and if so, and a license were refused, all the requisites of the formal application having been submitted, it is by no means certain that a "Mandamus" would lie from a superior Court. For though, in terms, the Ordinance declares, that the Magistrate shall, on the day of hearing, in open court, grant, or refuse, the license, applied for, "as the circumstances of the case may require,"—the "case" under the Ordinance, for the decision of the Magistrate, is as to "objections, if any, of any 'householder,' resident near the 'house,' for which the license is sought, whether grounded on the character and conduct, or unfitness of the applicant, &c.; or number of previously licensed houses already in the neighbourhood, &c." and the only "circumstances" in question before the Magistrate are the satisfactory legal qualifications of the party applying for the licence, and the due proof of any objections of such "householders," against its grant. Upon the application, the Magistrate is immediately—without any demur or discretion on his part, to take certain steps, by advertisement, &c., upon which he must, on a fixed day, judicially minister in the open court. The Magistrates, throughout the colony, almost universally, have asked, I believe, upon this impression and construction of the Ordinance, and the result has been a mischievous redundancy, confessedly, of "licenses" all over the colony;—not only in towns, but along the roads. Within a few miles of Graham's Town, three houses were building, all intended for canteens. In many other places, the like project was on foot. In respect of number, the new law, if adequate, must enforce, or if not so, be allowed, so as to enforce, the due limitation of license-grants, proportionately to the neighbourhood.

As to canteen debts, the law has generally barred all recovery, if under a certain amount, though now, more advisedly, to any amount.

With regard, therefore, to the existing law, I am judicially of opinion, as that opinion has been required of me, that although the principle and design of the Ordinance, on which it is founded, may not justly be considered false and erroneous, as to its main object, or the mode of its accomplishment; yet, that it has fallen short, and will continue to fall short, in actual efficiency of its virtual operation; and from a cause inherent in it, which will never become changed or removed. For in its very provisions that cause would seem to be engendered; because those provisions wholly subsist and depend upon an agency found unequal to carry them into effect.

But even if those provisions could be so carried out, as more or less, in particular places they may have been carried out under peculiar activity or influence, the Ordinance would still appear to me, as faulty and inexpedient, because it adds to the temptation, generating evil drinking-habits, and to the facility of taking to them. The law, as it stands, commences only in restriction of the crime, of which, in the plurality of canteens, it may have lent itself to the commission. That law would be more salutary and beneficial, that with practicable Police Regulations, lessened the opportunities,—and, herein, the necessity for their application. Revenue, it is admitted, belongs not to the question; and should reject any duties, but such, as may aid in the means of obtaining deliverance from the evil consequences, so sure to follow from intemperance. It is ever the painful experience of judicial criminal jurisdiction, that hence proceed the majority, the very great majority of the crimes of every kind, more especially in cases of culpable homicide and grievous assaults. No criminal session can pass without certain proof of this, as the truth; and aggravated, necessarily must be such evils, if the sources of them have been, and continue to be more freely open for the indulgence, whence they issue. The "Canteens" of the Colony may pass—I regret to believe—under the like judgment and condemnation of the "Gin-shops" in England; and be equally branded with infamy—as the nurseries of every crime—the destruction, by degrees, of every good principle—and thus the ruin of the most vital interests of the community.

If it be said—however—that it is trite and worthless to refer thus to acknowledged evils, unless some better remedial course can be pointed out for their avoidance or diminution—oppressed—I alone confess—by the difficulty that has, ever and everywhere, been felt—when the question has been mooted—I can only bespeak the hope of some such happy result—more or less.

If no retail "Spirit License" were granted—except where refreshments, for man and horse, could, also, if required be had; call it inn—hotel—eating—or public-house.

That the number of such licenses should be so few, in proportionate relation to the population of the neighbourhood, as to make the grant of a license valuable, as almost a certain source of profit, under good conduct, good accommodation, and good supplies.

For the assurance whereof, in some degree, that no license should be granted for any term, short of 12 months.

That the rate of every license—if indeed not to the amount fixed by the Ordinance No. 93—should be of such amount, as to be obtainable only by persons of condition and credit.

That licenses for houses on the road should be very few, and at such distances, as might supply requisite refreshment, but not profligate tipping.

That the licenses generally, under particular exceptions perhaps, should be granted at one particular time of and for the year.

That the names of the applicants should be advertised, in a body, as also, notice of the day for hearing objections in the open court.

And also, that the number of the Licenses to be issued for each particular place, be previously notified, as such number may have been limited, from year to year, by the government upon, or without suggestion, as deemed more fitting, of the Resident Magistrate.

In respect of penalties for unlicensed dealers, the amount should not be so high, I consider, as under the Ordinance No. 93, because the apprehension of discovery force to such concealment and stratagem, as too often to succeed against all power of detection; while the more frequent infliction of a less penalty would operate in sufficient check upon the offender, and in his actual conviction, more strongly, upon others, as to exposing themselves to it; an excessive penalty keeps the offender so long the prison-fine, as to be forgotten by others, if not contaminated by a association, which the excellent prison-discipline may still not be continued long enough to convert.

These observations have been wholly confined to retail Canteen licenses, as to which alone the so strong public complaint has been, not unjustly, as I must think, raised, and in respect of which little, or no change, and modification, as to the police-regulations, would seem to be requisite.

JNO WYLDE,
Chief-Justice of the Colony.
Supreme Court, Chambers, 23d June 1848.

PROCLAMATION

BY HIS EXCELLENCY LIEUTENANT GENERAL
SIR HENRY GEORGE WAKELYN SMITH,

Baronet, Knight Grand Cross of the Most Honorable Military Order of the Bath, Colonel of the Second Battalion of the Rifle Brigade, Governor and Commander-in-Chief of the Settlement of the Cape of Good Hope in South Africa, and of the Territories and Dependencies thereof, and Ordinary, and Vice Admiral of the same; and Her Majesty's High Commissioner for the settling and adjustment of the Affairs of the Territories in Southern Africa, adjacent and contiguous to the Eastern and North Eastern Frontier of the said Colony, &c. &c. &c.

WHEREAS it has been represented to me, that the Eastern limit of the Colony, as proclaimed on the 17th day of December 1847, is not sufficiently defined, and whereas I have found it necessary and expedient to adopt, in said Eastern direction, a more clear and better boundary: Now, therefore, I do hereby, in the name of Her Majesty, and subject to Her Royal confirmation, under and by virtue of the several powers and authorities in me vested, Proclaim, Declare, and Make Known, that the said Eastern boundary of the Colony of the Cape of Good Hope shall, from and after this date, be as follows, that is to say, from the Mouth of the Kiskamma River, ascending along the Western bank of the same, up to its confluence with the Chumie River, thence up the Western bank of the last-mentioned river to its Northernmost source, thence along the summit of the Katberg Range, to the centre of the Loheri Mount or Gaik's Kop; thence to the nearest source of the Klip Plaats River, and down the Eastern bank of the same, to its junction with the Zwart Kei River; thence descending the Eastern bank of the last mentioned river, to its junction with the Witte Kei River; from this point it will run Northerly along the Eastern bank of the Witte Kei, to its source in the Stormbergen, thence to follow a line running along the summits of the Stormbergen to the source of the Kraai River; then to continue along the East bank of this river until it touches the base of the Wittebergen; it will then follow these mountains until they meet at some conspicuous rocks, known by the name of the "Giant's Rocks;" from these rocks to run due West until it joins the Wilge Spruit, which it follows until it falls into the Orange River.

And I do further Proclaim, Declare, and Make Known, that all Territory to the West of any portion of the line aforesaid, shall be, and the same is hereby, annexed to, and incorporated with, the Colony of the Cape of Good Hope, as part and parcel thereof.

WHEREAS the Eastern boundary of the Colony as proclaimed by me on the 17th day of December, 1847, has been better and more clearly defined by Proclamation of this date, by which the boundaries of the Division of Albert have been altered,—and whereas it has been represented to me, that it would be expedient to include in the said Division of Albert the two field cornetries of Agte

Zuurberg and Groote Rivier, now belonging to the Division of Colesberg,—I do therefore hereby, in the name of Her Majesty and subject to Her Royal confirmation, under and by virtue of the several powers and authorities in me vested, Proclaim. Declare, and Make Known, that the boundary of the Division of Albert, shall from and after this date, be as follows, that is to say, on the North of the Orange River, viz. from the debouchure of the Zuurberg Spruit to where the periodical stream known by the name of the Wilge Spruit falls into the Orange River; on the East the boundary will run up the East Bank of the Wilge Spruit until it arrives at a point due West of some remarkable rocks at the foot of the Wittebergen, shown in plan as the "Giant Rocks," from these Rocks it will continue along the summit of the Wittebergen to a spot where the Kraai River touches the base of these mountains; from thence to follow the East Bank of the Kraai River to its source in the Stormbergen, whose summits and those of the Bamboesbergen it will follow in a North Westerly direction until it arrives due South from the principal source of the Zuurberg Spruit, which it will join and follow until it falls in the Orange River, including the field cornetries of Agter Zuurberg and Groote Rivier, hitherto belonging to the Division of Colesberg.

MUTUAL LIFE ASSURANCE SOCIETY

OF THE

CAPE OF GOOD HOPE.

Report of the Directors at the Third Annual General Meeting of Members, held at the Society's Office, Cape Town, Monday, the third day of July, 1848.

ON presenting their third Annual Report, the Directors have again the pleasure of congratulating the Members on the success and uninterrupted prosperity of the Institution. In the course of last year, Ninety Three new Policies have been granted for the gross sum of £58,200, yielding in Annual Premiums the sum of £1,740 19 5, being an increase on this head over the preceding year of £39,900 on the sum insured, and £1,166 10 9 in the premiums, exclusive of Interest on the same, added to the income of the Society.

The total amount remaining insured on the 31st May last, after deducting lapsed and surrendered Policies, was £211,550, and upon these the annual Premiums amounted to £6,336 4 2.

The accumulated fund at that date, had reached the large sum of £11,715 11 6, which has been laid out and invested in the following safe and available securities, viz:—

On 1st Mortgages on immoveable property	..	£6,702 15 9
On Loans under Security of Shares in public	..	4,115
Institutions	..	485
On Loans under Security of Bonds	..	412 15 9
Balance in the Bank	..	£11,715 11 6

Total, £11,715 11 6. The Society have to lament the loss of one of its Members, but of one only out of 385 during the past year. This was Mr. Hendrik Pieter Moller, who, it will be recollected, was suddenly cut off, in the prime of life, without any previous illness, the sum for which he was assured (£500) was paid to his Widow.

The number of policies granted since the Society commenced its operation in May 1845, is 423, and the amount received in premiums and interest on capital, up to the 31st May last, was £16,768,10,2.

Taking into consideration the smallness of that class of persons in this colony, who have yet been accustomed to regard Life Assurance, as an eligible mode of making provision for their families after their decease; and also the number of persons out of that small class who had effected assurances, in other offices, previous to the establishment of this Society, which are of course continued, the number of policies issued, and the amount assured during its short career, of three years, may well be regarded as conclusive proof of the popularity of the principles on which it is founded, and of its being in the full enjoyment of public confidence.

Although the number of persons assured at this office, has amounted to 412, the Society has suffered loss on only five. This, it will be observed, is a rate of mortality far below that indicated in the tables on which the rates of premium are calculated. Acknowledging the goodness of Divine Providence, in this respect, it may also be observed, that as the Society commenced business, without any paid up capital, or funds of any kind, the Directors thought it prudent to accept of none but what in the language of insurers, are called first class lives, that is, persons not only in perfect health, and free from all marked predisposition to any dangerous disease, but also residing in localities favorable to health, and not exposed professionally, or otherwise, to more than the ordinary Risks of humanity. The consequence of this necessary caution and reserve at the commencement, has been that out of 537 applicants for admission as members, 101 were declined, many of whom would have been, and some of whom were, readily accepted at other offices, of longer standing, possessing larger means to meet demands.

But the amount of the accumulated fund, and of the annual income from premiums and capital at interest, has satisfied the Directors, that the time has come, when the usefulness of this institution may be considerably extended without endangering its stability; by gradually relaxing their practice in this respect, and they have therefore just passed in the usual manner, the following Bye Law:—That with the view of extending the advantages and usefulness of this Society, and increasing its resources, the Board shall in future when considering proposals of Insurance or "Licences," charge such additional rates, beyond the existing tables, as the nature and extra risk of the proposal then under consideration, shall, to the majority of Directors present, be considered prudent and advisable.

According to a provision in the Trust Deed, the following members of the Direction retire from office now:—John Fairbairn, Henry Sherman, and Archibald Shaw Robertson, Esquires, but they are eligible for re-election.

It will devolve on the Meeting to elect three Directors and two Auditors for the ensuing year.

The Meeting will also have to elect another Director in the place of Richard Fryer, Esquire, who has retired.

The Accounts audited to the 31st May, are laid on the table for inspection and general information.

It is recommended that a like sum be set aside for the Directors and Auditors as an acknowledgment for their services, as that voted at the last Annual Meeting.

JOHN FAIRBAIRN, Chairman.

The following resolutions were then moved, and carried unanimously:—

That the report now read be adopted and entered on the Minutes.

That the thanks of the Meeting are presented to the Directors for their assiduous and careful attention to the affairs of the Society.

That the thanks of the Meeting are presented to the Medical Officers, Auditors and Secretary for their assiduous and careful attention to the Affairs of the Society.

That R. D. JONES, and A. C. WYLDE, act as Scrutineers, and that the Ballot Box remain open till 2 o'clock, for the election of 3 Directors, and two Auditors, in the stead of those now retiring from the Direction, and that the Ballot Box remain open from half-past 2 till 3 o'clock, for the election of a Director in the place of R. FRYER, Esq., who had retired.

The Scrutineers certified that the following Gentlemen were duly elected, viz:—

A. S. ROBERTSON,
J. FAIRBAIRN,
H. SHERMAN, Esqrs., as Directors, and
G. N. EBDEN, and T. CHRISTIAN, Esqrs., as Auditors.

And that J. W. EBDEN, Esq., M.A., had been duly returned to act as Director in the room of R. FRYER, Esq., who had retired.

15 FARMS,

which are all well described in the Supplement to the Government Gazette, herein referred to, are for Sale, and my Agent, Mr. HENRY ROSE of Beaufort, will receive offers for the same, namely:—

14.—Palmiet Fontein,	3752	Do.
15.—Dornhoek,	4381	Do.

90,768 Morgen.

It is worthy of remark and may be stated, that in the District of Beaufort, where these Farms are situated, occasional droughts are experienced, during the continuance of which many of the best Places are of comparatively little value; while, on the other hand, after seasonable rains, water is plentiful, and the Pastures become so rich, luxuriant, and abundant, that few, if any, of the present Farmers of the District have stock sufficient to consume it, which proves that the Places are too large, and the Farmers too few in number; and generally the Undersigned ventures an opinion that for all practical purposes, one-third Part or Share of most of the above Farms is very little inferior in real value to the whole; and Purchasers of Thirds secure another important advantage, for two-thirds less capital, in an extensive range of various kinds of pasture over a wide extent of Country, which is a matter of no little importance and value, well known to the experienced South African Stock Farmer.—Application can also be made in Cape Town to the Undersigned.

TERMS OF PAYMENT made easy, and to suit the convenience of Purchasers.

Het is aanmerkenwaard, en kan vermeld worden dat in het District Beaufort waarin deze Plaatsen gelogen zijn, soontyds droogten worden ondervonden gedurende het aanhouden van welken velen de beste Plaatsen in vergelyking van geene waarde zijn; terwyl aan de andere zyde na voordeelige regens het water overvloedig is, en de Weide zo vet en weelderig, dat weinig of geen Boeren tegenwoordig Vee genoeg hebben om het af te weiden, hetwelk byna bewyst dat de Plaatsen te groot zijn, en de Boeren te weinig in getal, en in het algemeen durft de Ondergeteekende het als zyn gevoelen geven, dat voor alle practische einden, Eenderde Deel of Aandeel van bovengenoemde Plaatsen weinig minder in wezenlyke waarde is dan het geheel, en Koopers van Derden hebben een ander belangryk voordeel van Tweederden minder kapitaal te behoeven, in het verzekeren van een uitgebreid gebruik van onderscheiden soorten van weide over een groote uitgestrekte Land, hetwelk een zaak is van geen gering aubelaug, wel bekend by den ervaren Kaapschen Verboer.

The Premiums are payable yearly in advance; or, at the option of the Assured, half-yearly, with a slight increase of the rate.

The Capital and Profits of this Institution are the ENTIRE PROPERTY of the holders of Policies of Insurance.

The Profits will be divided amongst the holders of Policies, at the termination of every period of THREE YEARS, after the year 1850, when the first distribution will take place; and each holder may determine that his Share shall be added to the sum assured by him;—or converted into a present payment;—or applied in reduction of the future annual premiums payable by him.

The pecuniary advantages, therefore, are the greatest that can be secured to Policy-holders in any Institution of this nature.

Any Person whose Life is assured, and who has paid Five Annual Premiums, may proceed direct to any part of this Colony, and to any dependency thereof;—and to any part of Europe in time of peace, at his pleasure.

Any Person whose Life is assured may proceed direct to any part of this Colony, and to any dependency thereof by sea and by land, at his pleasure.

For those who have not paid Five Annual Premiums, a Licence from the Board of Directors, but no additional Premium, is required when they proceed beyond the limits of this Colony and the dependencies thereof.

No Institution of this nature, it will therefore be seen, can so reasonably consult the convenience of the assured to a greater extent.

By comparing the Rates or Scale of Premiums, the Public will perceive that those adopted by this Society are lower than those adopted by any respectable and safe Companies, in which, of course, a proper return for paid-up Capital, for risks, with profit to the Shareholders, must be provided for, as well as the benefit of the Assured or Policy-holders.

In this Society the Members and Policy-holders being the only Shareholders, receive back directly whatever excess of Rate the Tables may still retain. Every error, therefore, fully corrects itself;—and in this respect, also, MUTUAL ASSURANCE SOCIETIES excel all others.

The Principle and Tables of the Scottish Equitable Life Assurance Society have been adopted; and that Society in the course of only thirteen years from its commencement, after meeting all demands, sets forth, that its "NETT REALISED FUNDS amounts to £263,719 6 8,"—although in Scotland the rate of interest is more than FORTY PER CENT. LOWER THAN AT THE CAPE.

QUARTERLY FAIRS.

GENERAL COMMISSION SALES,

TO BE HELD AT

BEAUFORT (WEST.)

THE Undersigned intends holding GENERAL COMMISSION SALES, every Quarter, of such STOCK, HORSES, CATTLE, SHEEP, LANDED PROPERTY, MERCHANDISE, &c., as parties may be desirous of offering for Public Competition.

Persons wishing to avail themselves of these opportunities will please to give the Auctioneer notice of their intention at least one or two months previous to the time specified for holding the several Sales, to enable him to advertise.

The First Quarterly Sale

will be held at Beaufort on the 4th of OCTOBER next. Some parties have already expressed a wish to avail themselves of the opportunity of disposing of Stock, and the Undersigned will advertise, in due time, the description of Stock and other Articles that will be offered on the above date, to enable parties residing at a distance to be present.

The attention of Speculators and Butchers is particularly called to this notice. These Sales will open a field of safe speculation, and present great advantages to the Butchers, as they will probably be able to purchase a large Stock of either Cattle or Sheep, and take them to a Market without being necessitated, as is now the case, to go from farm to farm to collect a sufficient supply.

For further particulars apply, if by letter postpaid, to the Undersigned.

Natal Cotton Company.

SHAREHOLDERS

ARE hereby informed, that twenty-five thousand Acres of Land, situate in the most eligible localities at Natal, for the purpose of Cotton Cultivation, have, at length, become the Property of the above Company, by purchase at the original Upset Price of 2s. per Acre. But Shareholders are further required to notice, that the purchase is merely nominal; the Land being a free grant of the Government to the Natal Cotton Company, on condition that the said Company import into Natal a certain number of approved Emigrants, subjects of the Crown of Great Britain, in which case the whole of the Purchase Money will be appropriated by Government to the importation of such Emigrants, the erection of Schools, Churches, &c. for their use.

As immediate steps therefore will be taken to fulfil the Conditions of the Grant, by importing the Emigrants, or by engaging portions of such as may occasionally arrive at this Port, with a view to the early commencement of Cotton-planting, the Directors of the Company hereby give Notice, that the THIRD INSTALMENT of One Pound Sterling per Share is payable to the Undersigned, on or before the 21st July, next, when Certificates of Shares will be granted.

KAAPSTAD, DEN 6DEN JULY 1848.

GOUVERNEMENTS KENNISGEVING.

Koloniale Secretary, 27 Juny 1848.

EENE paragraaf zynde verschenen in de Graham's Town Journal, van 17 Juny II, luidende als volgt:—

“Eene zaak van woeste wreedheid van de zyde der Kaffer Opperhoofden Sandilli en Macomo, is onlangs ter kennisgeving van de overheden ahier gebracht. Wy melden voor veertien dagen dat het eerste Opperhoofd een bezoek had. uitgelegd by Kolonel SOMERSET, door wien hy met veel vriendelykheid was ontvangen en behandeld. Het blykt nu dat terwyl hy de gastvryheid van den dapperen Kolonel genoot, hy buiten deszelfs weten eene Kafferin, eene byzet van Macomo, welke hy in de stad had ontdekt, had doen vatten, met riemen binden, en drie dagen zonder voedsel houden. Vervolgens werd zy door hem gevangelyk gevoerd naar Macomo, door wien zy geheel naakt in eene hut werd gesloten; niet voornemen zoo als men zeide, om haar wreedelyk ter dood te brengen. Het gelukte het ellendige schepsel te ontkomen, en weder te Grahamstad eene toevlugt te zoeken, tegen hare genadelooze martelaars. De zaak is naar wy verstaan, aan de overheden in Britsch Kafferland gerefereerd, door wien de geheele zaak, naar wy vernemen zorgvuldig zal worden onderzocht, en die, hopen wy de bedoelde Opperhoofden en door hen het geheele Kafferland zullen leeren, dat deze Kolonie eene schuilplaats is tegen barbaarsch geweld,—en dat de vryplaats welke dezelve schenkt aan beleedigen en hulploozen niet straffeloos kan worden geschonden.”

Zyne Excellentie heeft de publicatie van den volgende brief van Kolonel SOMERSET over het onderwerp, wedersprekende de bovenstaande valsche opgave.

Grahamstad, 18 Juny 1848.

Mynheer.—Ziede uit de publieke nieuwspapieren, dat ene opgave is rondgestrooid, dat het Kaffer Opperhoofd Sandilla, toen hy te gast was aan myn huis eene voorgevonde vrouw van Macomo had gevat en met riemen gebonden en zonder voedsel had gehouden,—Ik oordeel het regt U. E. te berichten, tot nader bericht van het Gouvernement, dat er geene waarheid is in deze opgave.

De Kafferinnen die Sandilla hier had bygebragt, liepen allen weg, of verlieten het huis, (met uitzondering van ene zuster van Sandilla, en de vrouw gezegd Macomos vrouw te zyn,) op den tweeden dag na hy hen hier gebragt had, deze twee vrouwen werden gehuisvest en gevoerd in eene kamer in myn huis, en werden door myn eigen dienstboden verzorgd.

Zy lachten en snaptten gedurende al den tyd dat zy daar waren, en zy hadden kunnen weggaan indien zy zulks goedvonden. Ik zag hen beiden van myn huis weg ryden, onbedwongen en schynbaar zeer vrolyk.

Ik heb de eer te zyn,

Mynheer,

U. E. Dienstwaardige Dienaar,

THE Ordinance No. 9, "For Regulating the Duties and Remuneration of Field-cornets," having been printed in the Gazette of this day's date without some amendments, it is re-printed correctly as amended and passed.

W. HOPE, Clerk of Councils.

No. 9,—1848.

(Signed) H. G. SMITH.

ORDINANCE

Enacted by the Governor of the Colony of the Cape of Good Hope, with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof.

For regulating the Duties and Remuneration of Field-cornets.

WHEREAS, owing to the various alterations made from time to time, in the administration of the country districts of this colony, the functions of field-cornets have been considerably narrowed; and it is now expedient to define or describe their duties, and to substitute for the principle of a fixed annual allowance, a remuneration proportioned to the services performed:—Be it enacted by the Governor of the Cape of Good Hope, with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof, that the "Instructions for the Field-cornets in the several Country Districts," published by the then Governor and Council of this Colony on the 24th October 1805, shall be repealed, except in so far as the same repeal any former placards, ordinances, or customs, and the same are hereby repealed accordingly. Provided always, that the field-cornets and assistant field-cornets shall continue to be appointed as at present.

2. And be it enacted, that from and after the commencement and taking effect of this Ordinance, the several duties belonging to the office of field-cornet shall be the following, that is to say,—

- (a) He is, by virtue of his office, bound to apprehend without warrant, every person whom he shall have reasonable grounds to suspect of having committed any murder, culpable homicide, rape, robbery, or assault with intent to commit any of those crimes, or assault in which a dangerous wound is given, arson, housebreaking with intent to commit a crime therein; or theft of any cattle, sheep, or goat; or any other crimes of equal guilt with any of those crimes. And he may also take into custody every person whom he shall see engaged in any affray, or whom he shall find attempting to commit a crime, or clearly manifesting an intention so to do.
- (b) Whenever it shall be brought to his knowledge that any person, within his ward, has died other than a natural death, namely, by violence or accident, or his own act, or the act of God, the field-cornet shall, with all speed, repair to inspect the body, and hold an inquest thereon.
- (c) The field-cornet will obtain and transmit to the resident magistrate the fullest information respecting the circumstances of any such untimely death, and communicate, at the same time, the result of his own observations.
- (d) In cases of assault in which any wound, supposed to be dangerous, has been given, the field-cornet will repair to and examine the injured party, and apprise the resident magistrate of the case and its circumstances.
- (e) When he shall arrest any prisoner, he is authorized, if need be, to appoint any proper person or persons to be a field-corporal, or field-corporals, constable or special constables, for the custody and conveyance of such prisoner to the nearest field-cornet on the road to the nearest gaol, or in case he himself be the field-cornet nearest to the gaol, then he will send the prisoner to the gaol direct. And every such special constable will be paid at the rate of six pence for each mile which he shall convey any prisoner or prisoners, and six pence for each mile which he shall be obliged to return to his own residence, besides being repaid any sum which he may have expended in providing necessary food or lodging for such prisoner or prisoners.
- (f) Every field-cornet is bound to receive all prisoners brought to him from any field-cornet or justice of the peace at a greater distance from the gaol, and to pass such prisoners on towards the gaol in the same manner as if he had arrested them himself. And any special constable appointed by him to convey any such prisoner,—whether the same special constable who brought such prisoner, or one appointed anew,—shall be entitled to the mileage aforesaid.

- (g) Every field-cornet whose ward adjoins the sea, shall, in a cases of ships or vessels wrecked or stranded upon the coast repair to the spot, and use every exertion in his power to save life and property; and he may appoint such number of special constables as may be necessary to protect property and prevent plunder.
 - (h) Every field-cornet receiving special instructions from the resident magistrate, or civil commissioner, respecting any special duty to be performed, will duly conform to the same.
3. And be it enacted, that the remuneration to be received by field-cornets shall, hereafter, be as follows, that is to say,—
- (a) When he shall be from home engaged in any such service as aforesaid, he shall receive an allowance for horse-hire at the rate of one shilling and sixpence per hour.
 - (b) When he shall be from home, engaged in any such service as aforesaid, he shall receive an allowance for his time at the rate of seven shillings and sixpence per day.
 - (c) Besides any claim which he may have for time and horse-hire, he shall receive for every inquest which he may hold, the sum of one pound.
 - (d) For receiving, supplying with necessary food, and forwarding from his residence, any person brought to him on his way to gaol, he shall be entitled to the sum of one shilling per day.
 - (e) For any special service required of him by the resident magistrate, or civil commissioner, and not adequately repaid by an allowance for time and horse-hire, the field-cornet shall receive such a sum as the governor of the colony shall approve of and direct.

4. Be it enacted, that from henceforth, the field-cornets shall be deemed and taken to be under the authority of the resident magistrate of the district, and not of the civil commissioner of the division.

5. And be it enacted, that nothing in this Ordinance contained, shall extend to alter, or affect any former Law or Ordinance, by which any duty or service has been imposed upon field-cornets; and every field-cornet, while acting in the performance of any such duty or service not otherwise remunerated, shall be entitled to be paid for time and horse-hire at the rate aforesaid.

6. And be it enacted, that this Ordinance shall commence and take effect, as law, from and after the 1st January, 1849.

No. 12,—1848.

ORDINANCE

Enacted by the Governor of the Colony of the Cape of Good Hope, with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof.

For enabling Catherine Mary Pigot, Executrix of the Will and Testament of the late George Pigot, to sell and dispose of a certain piece of Perpetual Quitrent Land, called "Pigot Park," and to invest the proceeds thereof in the names of Trustees for the purposes provided by the said Will and Testament.

WHEREAS by the Last Will and Testament of the late George Pigot, late of "Pigot Park," in the Division of Albany in this Colony of the Cape of Good Hope, duly executed upon the fourth day of September 1828, and which said Will and Testament was confirmed by the subsequent death of the said George Pigot, he did amongst other things give and bequeath to his daughter Catherine Mary Pigot therein named Catherine Mary Pigot, and to her heirs in succession a certain piece of Perpetual Quitrent Land, therein described as his quitrent farm called "Pigot Park," in Albany, South Africa, as also the buildings thereon, and by the said Will further provided, that in case his said daughter Catherine Mary Pigot should die without children, he entailed the farm called Pigot Park on his daughter Sophia Moodie, (wife of Donald Moodie) and to her children in succession, as follows: first, Sophia Eliza (now married to David Taylor), second, Catherine Jemima, third, William James Dunbar; the said piece of Perpetual Quitrent Land being a piece of one thousand, eight hundred and twenty-eight morgen, and three hundred and eighty-eight square roods of land, granted to the said George Pigot, as more fully described in the grant thereof made and executed by the Governor of this Colony upon the 20th day of November 1823; which said piece of perpetual quitrent land the said Catherine Mary Pigot, as the Executor Testamentary of the said George Pigot, ceded and transferred to and on behalf of herself upon the 4th day of June 1841: And whereas it would be advantageous to the said Catherine Mary Pigot and to the said Sophia Moodie and her children, named in the said Will and Testament of the said George Pigot, to enable her to sell the said piece of perpetual quitrent land, and to lay out and invest the proceeds thereof in such manner as that the same may be safe and available for the purposes set forth in the said Will and Testament: And whereas the said Sophia Moodie and her husband the said Donald Moodie for their own interest, the said Sophia Eliza Moodie and her husband the said David Taylor for their own interest, and the said Donald Moodie as Guardian of the said Catherine Jemima Moodie and the said William James Dunbar Moodie, who are minors, consent and desire that the same should be sold, and the proceeds invested as aforesaid.

1. Be it therefore enacted, by the Governor of the Cape of Good Hope, with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof, that the said Catherine Mary Pigot shall be and is hereby authorised and empowered, with the consent and approbation of the said Sophia Moodie, Donald Moodie, Sophia Eliza Taylor, David Taylor, for their own interests respectively, and the said Donald as Guardian of the said Catherine Jemima Moodie and William James Dunbar Moodie, to sell the said piece of perpetual quitrent land either by public sale or private contract, and for such sum as can be obtained for the same, and thereupon to cede and transfer the same to the purchaser or purchasers thereof, as his or their free and unincumbered property. Provided, however, that the net proceeds arising from the sale thereof shall be laid out and invested by and in the name of the said Catherine Mary Pigot, Donald Moodie, and David Taylor, as Trustees for the purposes set forth in the said Will and Testament, but subject, however, to all just and lawful claims to which the said land would have been liable in case the same had not been sold.

2. And be it enacted, that it shall and may be lawful for the said Trustees, and the Trustees for the time being, to be appointed in manner hereinafter provided, to withdraw the said proceeds or such sum or sums as may come into their hands by virtue of the Trusts hereby in them vested, and to re-invest the same in such manner as may seem to them most advantageous and expedient. Provided always that the securities for all monies so invested, and the title of all real property, if any, which may be purchased with the said proceeds or monies, shall be framed and taken in such manner as that the same shall be vested in the said Trustees, or the Trustees for the time being, for the purposes set forth in the said Will and Testament.

3. And be it enacted, that in case any of the said Trustees shall happen to die, or desire to be discharged from the Trust hereby in them vested, then and so often it shall and may be lawful for the remaining trustee or trustees to appoint a new Trustee or Trustees in the place of such Trustee or Trustees so dying, or being discharged from the said Trust, and the Trustee or Trustees so appointed shall have the like power to act in the aforesaid Trust to all intents and purposes as if he or they had actually been herein nominated and appointed to be a Trustee or Trustees.

4. And be it enacted, that the Trustees hereby appointed or hereafter to be appointed in manner aforesaid, and each of them, and the Heirs, Executors, and Administrators of them, and each of them, shall be chargeable and responsible for such monies or property as they shall respectively actually receive, or become possessed of, by virtue of the Trust hereby in them respectively vested, and any one or more of them shall not be chargeable or responsible for the acts, neglects, or defaults of the other or others of them, but each of them only for his acts, neglects, or defaults, and also that the said Trustees and each of them, and the Heirs, Executors, and Administrators of them, and each of them, shall and may, out of such monies as shall come into their hands by virtue of the Trust aforesaid, reimburse themselves respectively, and also allow to their Co-Trustees or Trustee all reasonable costs, charges, and expenses which they or either of them shall or may suffer, sustain, disburse or be put to, in or about the due execution of the aforesaid Trust or in any way relating thereto.

5. And be it further enacted, that any two of the said Trustees hereinafter or hereafter to be appointed, shall at all times be a quorum for the execution of the said Trust.

6. And be it enacted, that this Ordinance shall commence and take effect from and after the date of the publication thereof.

As immediate steps therefore will be taken to fulfil the Conditions of the Grant, by importing the Emigrants, or by engaging portions of such as may occasionally arrive at this Port, with a view to the early commencement of Cotton-planting, the Directors of the Company hereby give Notice, that the THIRD INSTALMENT of One Pound Sterling per Share is payable to the Undersigned, on or before the 21st July next, when Certificates of Shares will be granted.

It is worthy of remark and may be stated, that in the District of Beaufort, where these Farms are situated, occasional droughts are experienced, during the continuance of which many of the best Places are of comparatively little value; while, on the other hand, after seasonable rains, water is plentiful, and the Pastures become so rich, luxuriant, and abundant, that few, if any, of the present Farmers of the District have stock sufficient to consume it, which proves that the Places are too large, and the Farmers too few in number; and generally the Undersigned ventures an opinion that for all practical purposes, one-third Part or Share of most of the above Farms is very little inferior in real value to the whole; and Purchasers of Thirds secure another important advantage, for two-thirds less capital, in an extensive range of various kinds of pasture over a wide extent of Country, which is a matter of no little importance and value, well known to the experienced South African Stock Farmer.—Application can also be made in Cape Town to the Undersigned.

TERMS OF PAYMENT made easy, and to suit the convenience of Purchasers.

A PUBLIC SALE

OF the whole of my One-third Parts or Shares in the above FARMS, or so many of them as may not be previously sold, will be held at the Town of Beaufort,

ORDINANCE

Enacted by the Governor of the Colony of the Cape of Good Hope, with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof,
For regulating Weights and Measures.

WHEREAS it is necessary for the security of commerce and the good of the community, that weights and measures should be just and uniform; and that true standards should exist, by means of which the accuracy of the weights and measures in public use may be tested and ascertained: And whereas, in regard to certain of the weights and measures in public use in this Colony, no standard thereof exists, either in this Colony, or in any other part of the world, and the same, or many of them, though inconsistent with each other, and obviously erroneous, cannot be rectified, or freed or preserved from error, which is the cause of great confusion and manifest frauds; and whereas the existence of such evils will be best remedied, and the recurrence thereof in future will be best prevented, by establishing in this Colony the standard of weights now established in and for the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, and the standard of certain of the measures now established in the said United Kingdom, commonly called the Imperial Weights and Measures: Be it enacted by the Governor of the Cape of Good Hope, with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof, that all former laws, customs, or usages repugnant to, or inconsistent with, any of the provisions of this Ordinance, shall be repealed, and the same are hereby repealed accordingly.

2. And be it enacted, that it shall and may be lawful for the Governor of this Colony to obtain and import, as soon as may be after the passing of this Ordinance, a copy or model of the standard pound avoirdupois, of the standard yard, and of the standard gallon, as respectively defined and established in and for the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, by an Act made in the 5th year of his late Majesty King George the IV., entitled "an act for ascertaining and establishing uniformity of weights and measures," together with a copy or model of every part or multiple of such standard pound, yard, and gallon, duly made and verified in pursuance of the said act, under the direction of the Lord High Treasurer of the said United Kingdom, or the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, or any three of them, which said copies or models shall be made of such materials as shall be best calculated to resist the action of wear and tear, and of the atmosphere.

3. And be it enacted, that the several copies and models aforesaid, so obtained as aforesaid, shall be deposited and carefully preserved, for custody and inspection, in the office of the Treasurer General of this Colony; and such copies and models shall be, and the same are hereby declared to be, the original and genuine standards, in and for this Colony, of such weights and measures by this Ordinance established and made necessary, and the said Treasurer General shall, upon reasonable notice, and at all reasonable times, produce, or cause to be produced, for inspection, or for testing the correctness of any measure of weight, extension, or capacity, such one or more of the said copies or models as any person shall in writing desire him to produce, such person paying for or in respect of every such copy or model so produced, the sum of Two Shillings and Sixpence, to be paid into the Colonial Treasury. Provided also, that as soon as such copies or models shall be received and deposited, information thereof and of the several descriptions and denominations thereof shall be given by a Government Notice in the Government Gazette.

4. And whereas it is expedient to continue in use, and to declare the contents of, the local measure of capacity called the "Schepel;" and to provide for the preservation of a standard copy thereof; and whereas the said measure called the "Schepel" ought of right to contain or consist of one thousand six hundred and ninety-seven cubic inches and four hundred and nine thousandths parts of a cubic inch, being equal to six imperial gallons, and one hundred and twenty-two thousandths parts of such a gallon: Be it enacted, that the Governor aforesaid shall cause to be made of such metal as he shall deem best fitted for the purpose, a measure of such contents as aforesaid, which measure shall be deposited, together with the copies and models aforesaid, in the office of the Treasurer General of the Colony, and such measure so deposited shall be, and is hereby declared to be, the standard colonial "Schepel," and four such schepels shall form and be a "muid" of grain or other dry goods.

5. And be it enacted, that if any copy or model, for the time being, so deposited as aforesaid, shall be lost or destroyed, or if the same shall be injured, or supposed or suspected so to be, it shall and may be lawful for the Governor aforesaid to obtain, import, or substitute a fresh copy or model, so verified as aforesaid, in place and stead thereof; and thereupon such fresh copy or model shall be deemed and taken to be the same standard of weight or measure (as the case may be) which the copy or model that it replaced would have been deemed and taken to have been, had the same been duly preserved, and none other substituted for it.

6. And be it enacted, that it shall and may be lawful for the Governor aforesaid to provide, from time to time, such and so many sets of standard weights and measures, verified as in the second section of this Ordinance mentioned, or otherwise verified by comparison with the copies or models deposited, as aforesaid, in the office of the Treasurer General, as the said Governor shall deem to be required, for the adjustment and comparison of the weights and measures in use in the several districts of this Colony; and the said Governor shall cause such standard weights and measures to be preserved by the Resident Magistrates respectively of the several districts of this Colony, or by such other person, or so many other persons, as he shall direct and appoint; and every weight and measure, so provided and preserved as in this section set forth, shall, until the contrary be proved, be deemed and taken to conform to and correspond with the copy and model of the standard weight or measure of the same description or denomination deposited, as aforesaid, in the office of the Treasurer General of this Colony, and to be fit and proper for testing and ascertaining the correctness of other weights or measures, as the case may be. Provided always, that such standard weights and measures, so to be provided as aforesaid, shall not be deemed or taken to be unfit for the purposes aforesaid, by reason that they or any of them are not made of the same materials as the copies or models deposited as aforesaid in the Office of the Treasurer General.

7. And be it enacted, that it shall and may be lawful for every person in this Colony, unless some municipal regulation, duly promulgated, or some provision of this Ordinance shall be thereby contravened, to make use of any weights or measures, being true and just, which shall appear to have been so verified as in the second section of this Ordinance mentioned, and that no assizing nor any mark or stamp by any officer or authority within this Colony shall in such case be necessary.

8. And be it enacted, that from and after the 1st day of July 1849, no weights or measures, not so verified as aforesaid, shall be used for the purposes of any sort of trade or dealing, unless the same shall have been previously assized and stamped or marked, either by the officer in that behalf hereinafter mentioned, or by some municipal officer, authorized by, and acting in pursuance of, some municipal regulation; and any person who shall sell by any weight or measure not so assized and stamped or marked, shall, on conviction, be liable to a penalty not exceeding the sum of twenty shillings. Provided always, that no person shall, under the same penalty, sell beyond the limits of any Municipality, by any weight or measure assized and stamped or marked by any officer of such Municipality, unless such weight or measure shall be assized or stamped or marked by the officer hereinafter mentioned; and provided also that nothing herein contained shall be deemed or taken to impair or affect any regulation in force within any Municipality, touching weights and measures.

9. And be it enacted, that the Governor aforesaid shall nominate in each district some one person or more to be the assizer or assizers of the weights and measures within such district, or within such portion of the same as any such person shall be appointed to act for, and every such assizer shall have charge of or access to some such set of weights and measures as in the fifth section mentioned. And every such assizer shall examine, compare, and, if found correct, stamp or mark with such sufficient stamp or mark as shall, by the Governor aforesaid, be provided and directed, all such weights and measures brought to him for that purpose, as shall, under the provisions of this Ordinance, be proper to be stamped. And for examining, comparing, and stamping or marking weights or measures, such assizer shall demand and receive such fees, not exceeding those in the Schedule to this Ordinance mentioned, as the said Governor shall, from time to time, approve and authorise; and which fees such assizer shall take for his own use, in recompense of his pains and trouble. Provided always, that no weight or measure once stamped or marked by any assizer appointed by the said Governor, under the provisions of this Ordinance need be again assized for the purposes of this Ordinance, unless the owner shall so desire in order to ascertain that it remains and is correct.

10. And be it enacted, that if any assizer, whether one appointed under the provisions of this Ordinance, or one appointed or authorized by the Commissioners of any Municipality, shall either wilfully or for want of due and proper care or skill, stamp or mark as correct any weight or measure, which, by reason of any excess or deficiency therein, ought not to have been so stamped or marked, such assizer shall, for every such offence, be liable to a penalty not exceeding the sum of Five Pounds, and be liable, moreover, to satisfy and make good such damages, if any, as the person at whose instance or on whose behalf such weight or measure was brought to be assized, shall have suffered from his default.

11. And be it enacted, that no assizer appointed under the provisions of this Ordinance shall at any time, nor (except as hereinafter excepted) shall any assizer appointed or authorized by any Municipal Commissioners, at any time after the 1st of July 1849, assize, stamp, or mark any description for denomination of weight or measure which shall not in shape, form, and contents conform to or correspond with some description or denomination of weight or measure, provided as aforesaid, for the use of the district in which such assizer, appointed under the provisions of this Ordinance, shall act, or in which the Municipality in question shall be situated. Provided always, that nothing herein contained shall be deemed or taken to prevent the assizing, stamping, or marking of the local measure called the "scheipel," or any part or multiple thereof, although the same may not in shape or form correspond with the standard copy thereof.

12. And be it enacted, that from and after the 1st day of July 1849, all weights, commonly called Dutch weights, shall be abolished, as also the lineal measure called the "ell," together with the measure of capacity known as the "old gallon;" and if any person shall, after the said 1st day of July 1849, sell by or according to any standard of weight other than the standard pound, as hereinbefore described, and deposited in the office of the Treasurer General, or some part or multiple thereof; or (except as hereinafter excepted) by or according to any standard measure of extension other than the standard yard aforesaid, deposited in the office aforesaid, or some part or multiple thereof; or, in regard to liquids, by or according to any measure of capacity other than the standard gallon aforesaid, deposited in the office aforesaid, or some part or multiple thereof; such person shall, upon conviction, be liable to a penalty not exceeding the sum of Twenty Shillings. Provided that nothing herein contained, in regard to the measure of extension, shall extend to land or any sale thereof: And provided also, that all bargains, sales, and other contracts bona fide made before the said 1st day of July 1849, shall be performed and judged of in like manner as if this Ordinance never had been passed. And provided further, that nothing in this Ordinance contained shall extend to any weights used in the sale of gold, silver, or precious stones, or in the sale of drugs, by retail.

13. And whereas the use of weights made of soft materials affords facilities for fraud: Be it enacted that no assizer appointed under the provisions of this Ordinance shall at any time, and that no assizer appointed and authorised by any Municipal Commissioners shall, at any time after the 1st day of July 1849, stamp or mark any weight made of lead or of pewter, or of any mixture thereof; and any person who shall, after the said 1st day of July 1849, sell by any such weight, shall, for every offence, be liable to a penalty not exceeding the sum of Twenty Shillings. Provided always that nothing herein contained shall prevent the use of lead or pewter, or of any mixture thereof, in the manufacture of weights, if they be wholly and substantially casted with brass, copper, or iron, and legibly stamped or marked "cased;" nor shall anything herein contained prevent the insertion of such a plug of lead or pewter into weights as shall be bona fide necessary for the purpose of adjusting them and of affixing thereon the proper stamp or mark.

14. And be it enacted, that no weight or measure duly stamped by any assizer appointed under the provisions of this Ordinance shall be liable to be restamped, although the same be used in any other district than that in which the same was originally stamped, but shall be considered as legal weight or measure throughout the Colony, unless found to be defective or unjust, or unless some municipal regulation shall be thereby contravened.

15. And be it enacted, that if any bargain, sale, or contract, concerning any goods, wares, or merchandise, shall, after the said 1st day of July 1849, be made on the "hundred," or the "hundred weight," or by any part or multiple of either such "hundred," or "hundred weight," (as the case may be) the same shall be deemed and taken to mean one hundred and twelve pounds imperial avoirdupois, unless it shall be made clearly to appear that one hundred such pounds was actually meant, by both the parties.

16. And be it enacted that from and after the 1st of July 1849, it shall, and may be lawful for any Resident Magistrate, Justice of the Peace, or Chief Constable of Police, at all reasonable times, to enter any shop, store, warehouse, stall, yard, or place, within the limits of his jurisdiction or district, and not being within the limits of any municipality, wherein goods shall be exposed and kept for sale, and therein to examine all weights, measures, balances, steel-yards, or other weighing machines there being, and to compare and try such weights and measures with the copies of the imperial standard weights and measures, authorised to be provided as in the fifth section of this Ordinance mentioned; and if upon such examination it shall appear that any weight or measure found therein is formed to represent some weight or measure not belonging to or included in the imperial weights and measures by this Ordinance established, or although formed to represent some weight or measure belonging to or included in the said imperial weights and measures, established as aforesaid, are not stamped or marked, as by this Ordinance required, or, although stamped or marked, are light or otherwise unjust, the same shall be liable to be seized, and the person or persons in whose possession the same shall be found shall, upon conviction, incur the forfeiture thereof, and also a penalty not exceeding the sum of £5; and any person who shall have in his possession any balance, steel-yard or other weighing machine, which shall, on such examination, be found incorrect or otherwise unjust, or who shall refuse or neglect to produce for such examination, when thereto required, all weights, measures, balances, steel-yards, or other weighing machines, which shall be in his possession, or shall otherwise obstruct or hinder such examination, shall incur the like penalty of any sum not exceeding £5. Provided always that nothing in this Ordinance contained shall be deemed or taken to prevent any person from being prosecuted, in ordinary course of law, for any fraud or other crime punishable by law, committed by means of false weights, balances, or measures.

17. And be it enacted, that if any person shall forge or counterfeit, or cause, or procure to be forged or counterfeited, any stamp or mark by this Ordinance required or directed upon any weight or measure, or shall knowingly sell, utter or dispose of or expose to sale any weight or measure with a forged or counterfeit stamp or mark thereon, such person shall, for every such offence, be liable to a penalty not exceeding the sum of Five Pounds; and all weights and measures with such forged or counterfeited stamps or marks shall be forfeited.

18. And be it enacted, that all penalties and forfeitures imposed by any of the provisions of this Ordinance shall be recoverable and adjudged, in the court of the Resident Magistrate within whose jurisdiction the act or omission entailing such penalty or forfeiture shall have been done or committed, and may be proceeded for by any person who shall sue for the same; and one moiety of every penalty or forfeiture recovered shall be paid to the party suing for the same, together with his costs, as hereinafter mentioned, and the other moiety to the Colonial Treasury. And in case the party convicted shall not forthwith pay, or secure to the satisfaction of such Resident Magistrate, the amount of the penalty imposed, together with the reasonable costs, incurred by the party suing for the same (such costs, however, not to exceed the amount of costs which, by the rules of the said court, for the time being, would have been payable to such party, had the prosecution by him instituted been a civil action or proceeding for the recovery of an amount equal to the penalty so recovered), it shall be lawful for such Magistrate to commit the offender to prison, and with or without hard labour, for any term not exceeding one month. Provided always, that whether such offender shall be committed to prison or not, it shall and may be lawful for the party who shall have prosecuted such offender to sue out (but at his own expense) a warrant under the hand of such Magistrate, authorizing the levy by distress and sale of the moveable property of such offender, of the amount of such penalty and costs, together with the expense of such distress and sale. Provided also, that any such offender, if committed to prison, shall be forthwith discharged therefrom, although his term of imprisonment shall not yet have expired, in case he shall pay or cause to be paid the amount of such penalty and costs, or in case such amount, together with such expenses as aforesaid, shall have been fully levied and made by force or virtue of the said distress and sale. Provided always, that any weight or measure adjudged, under any of the provisions aforesaid, to be forfeited, shall be broken up, and, if saleable, sold, and the proceeds thereof, after deducting the expenses of breaking up and selling the same, shall be paid, one moiety to the party who shall have proceeded for such forfeiture, and the other half to the Colonial Treasury.

19. And be it enacted, that in the construction of this Ordinance the term "Governor" shall mean the officer for the time being administering the Government of this Colony; and that when and as often as any Public Functionary or officer is herein designated by his name of office, such name shall mean the functionary or officer for the time being acting as such, and that the singular number shall, when necessary to give effect to the enactments of this Ordinance, include several persons or things, as well as one person or thing, and that the masculine gender shall include females as well as males.

20. And be it enacted, that this Ordinance shall commence and take effect from and after the first day of July 1849.

KAAPSTAD, DEN 13DEN JULY 1848.

No. 4. 1848.

(Geteekend) H. G. SMITH

ORDONNANTIE

Vastgesteld door den Gouverneur van de Kolonie de Kaap de Goede Hoop, met advies en consent van den Wetgevenden Raad van dezelve.

Tot het wettig verklaren van zekere huwelijken, verondersteld onwettig te zyn.

NADEMAAL Zyne Excellentie Sir HENRY GEORGE WAKELYN SMITH, Baronet, G. C. B. enz. enz., Harer Majesteits Hooge Commissaris voor het afdoen en vereffenen van de zaken van het Grondgebied van Zuid Afrika, grenzend aan de Oostelyke en Noord Oostelyke Frontieren van de Kolonie de Kaap de Goede Hoop, by zyne Proclamatie gedaateerd 17 Mei 1848, waarvan eene copy is herhaald in de Schedule hier annex, voorzieningen heeft gemaakt voor het wettig en geldig maken van zekere huwelijken of voorgewende huwelijken in de gez. Proclamatie beschreven, en nademaal het raadzaam is dat de huwelijken dus gewettigd door de gez. Hooge Commissaris in en voor het gez. Grondgebied in de gez. Proclamatie vermeld, (zynde een deel van Harer Majesteits Grondgebied, maar geen deel van deze Kolonie,) mede wettig en van kracht zullen worden gemaakt binnen deze Kolonie: Zoo zy het vastgesteld door den Gouverneur van de Kolonie de Kaap de Goede Hoop, met advies en consent van de Wetgevende Raad daarvan, dat alle en iedere der voorzieningen van de Proclamatie voormeld en hier annex, binnen deze Kolonie, de kracht en werking van wet zullen hebben, en dat de registratie van huwelijken in de gez. Proclamatie voorzien, voor einden civiel en crimineel, hetzelfde gevolg en geen ander, in deze Kolonie zullen hebben, als onder de voorzieningen van gez. Proclamatie is voorzien, of bedoeld te hebben, binnen het Grondgebied voormeld.

2. En zy vastgesteld, dat het certificaat in de 15de Sectie van gez. Proclamatie voormeld, een goed getuigenis zal zyn van ieder zoodanig huwelyk als voormeld, voor alle geregtshoven en Magistraten in deze Kolonie.

3. En zy vastgesteld, dat deze Ordonnantie zal aanvangen en van kracht zyn van den datum van de promulgatie daarvan.

Schedule.

PROCLAMATIE.

NADEMAAL ik by eene Proclamatie gedaateerd 3 February 1848, uitgevaardigd door my, in myne hoedanigheid als Harer Majesteits Hooge Commissaris voor het afdoen en schikken van de zaken van zeker Grondgebied belendend, aan de Kolonie de Kaap de Goede Hoop, de Souvereiniteit van Hare gez. Majesteit over zeker Grondgebied, ten Noorden van de Groote Oranje Rivier, in die Proclamatie vermeld, en omschreven heb geproclameerd, verklaard, en bekend gesteld. En nademaal op verscheiden tyden, gedurende het tydvak, gedurende hetwelke Harer Majesteits Uitgeweken Onderdanen zekere deelen van gez. Grondgebied hebben bezaten, zekere huwelijken onder hen hebben plaats gevonden, welke van wege de onmogelykheid om de tegenwoordigheid of hulp te bekomen van eenen bedienaar des Evangeliums en zich te gedragen naar de onderscheiden vereischten der wetten, zoo als men veronderstelt, niet zyn voltrokken op zoodanig eene wyze dat dezelve wettig en van kracht zyn. En nademaal de gem. huwelijken onteregeld zyn aangegaan, alleen uit reden van de noodzakelykheid waaronder de partyen waren, terwyl zy verstoken waren, beide van godsdienst onderwyzers, en van geregeld vastgestelde wetten en niet ontstonden uit gebrek aan eerbied voorde heilige instelling in kwestie, of van de geestelyke toestemming waarmede, onder Christenen, hetzelfde gewoonlyk en gepastelyk voltrokken wordt.

En nademaal ik deze zaken in myne overweging hebbende genomen, en verlangend zynde aar gez. Harer Majesteits Onderdanen het belangryk voordeel te schenken, van het vaststellen van de wettigheid en echtheid hunner kinderen, en der gez. huwelijken gewettigd voor alle einden van regten, zoo heb ik besloten tot dat einden het vermogen en gezag in my gevestigd uit te oefenen;—Zoo is het, dat ik by deze als Harer Majesteits Hooge Commissaris voormeld, PROCLAMEER, VERKLAAR, en BEKEND MAAK, de onderscheiden volgende Voorzieningen en Regulatien betreffende de huwelijken voormeld, dat is te zeggen:—

1. De Britsche Resident in het grondgebied voormeld, wordt by deze geauthoriseerd en gerequireerd een algemeen Register op te maken en te houden van alle zoodanige huwelijken welke onder eenige der voorzieningen hieronder vermeld aan hem ter registratie worden ingezonden of gerapporteerd.

2. Zoodanig algemeen register zal toonen den naam en de woonplaats van den man, en van de vrouw, derzelver respectieve ouderdommen en stand in het leven, den datum van het huwelyk, en alle andere byzonderheden welke gezegde Britsche Resident door den Hooge Commissaris zal gelast worden aan te teekenen.

3. Ieder paar, (uitgezonderd als hieronder uitgezonderd) te zamen verbonden binnen het grondgebied als man en vrouw, in de tegenwoordigheid van getuigen, by eenige vorm van woorden te kennen gevende hunne wederzydsche en plegtige toestemming om dan en daar, en van dien tyd af, te zyn echte lieden, te zamen gehuwd, kunnen hun gez. huwelyk doen registreren. Maar geen huwelyk zal mogen worden geregistreerd waarin de partyen door bloedverwantschap of namaagschap bestaan in eenen graad waarin de Gouverneur van de Kolonie de Kaap de Goede Hoop, in regten, geene dispensatie of verlof om te huwen zou hebben kunnen toestaan, indien zy binnen dezelve resideerden, en dat geen wettig huwelyk volgens de wetten van de Kolonie daarin zou kunnen worden voltrokken, indien zy in de gezegde kolonie gedomicilieerd waren; en wanneer eenig huwelyk of voorgewend huwelyk by deze verklaard ongeschikt voor registratie, echter zal geregistreerd worden, zal zoodanige registratie geen kracht of gevolg hebben; maar geen gronden van objectie uit reden van bloedverwantschap of namaagschap welke in gez. kolonie kunnen gedispenseerd worden, by gezag van gez. Gouverneur, zal de registratie of deszelfs gevolgen beletten als hieronder omschreven.

4. Wanneer twee partyen, gehuwd als voormeld zullen compareren voor den Britschen Resident of voor eenig Resident Magistraat, binnen gez. Grondgebied, en de daadzaak van zoodanig huwelyk zullen verklaren, zal de gez. Resident of Magistraat (naar het geval moege zyn) vernemen en schriftelyk aantekenen de namen van gez. partyen, derzelver woonplaatsen, de datum en plaats van hun huwelyk, en hunnen respectiven stand in het leven, ten tyde van zoodanig huwelyk, of zy toen vroeger getrouwd waren of niet, en zoodanige aantekening zal moeten worden geteekend of erkend door de gez. partyen in de tegenwoordigheid van den Resident of Magistraat. Wanneer eenige twyfel zal ontstaan aangaande de daadzaak of datum van gez. huwelyk, zal de Resident of Magistraat mogen vragen naar het schriftelyk certificaat, of de plegtige verklaring, voor hem zelf, van zoodanige geloofwaardige getuigen die by gez. huwelyk tegenwoordig waren, of daarvan kennis droegen; maar wanneer en zoo dikwyls als eenig zoodanig huwelyk zal zyn aangegaan, ten overstaan van en betuigd zyn door eenig persoon of personen op dien tyd onder Harer Majesteits Onderdanen, erkend als bekleedende eenig publiek ambt of gezag hem of hen het regt gevende om huwelijken te attesteren, zal zoodanige attestaat, of eene copy daarvan, wanneer de identiteit van de gehuwde lieden zal erkend zyn, beslissend bewys zyn, van de daadzaak en datum van zoodanig huwelyk.

5. Ingeval het ongeryfelyk zal zyn voor de beide partyen zich te begeven voor den gez.

Resident of voor eenig Magistraat, kan de laatste zich verzekeren van den man alleen van de handelingen voormeld en daaruit de aantekening opmaken. Maar wanneer de man alleen zal verschynen zal hy zich moeten voorzien van een schriftelyk certificaat, of opgave, geteekend door de vrouw, of erkend door haar in tegenwoordigheid van twee bureu, die hetzelfde zullen betuigen, in welk certificaat of opgave de vrouw zal moeten verklaren den datum van het huwelyk, tusschen haar en haren man, en dit certificaat of opgave zal moeten bewaard worden, benevens de aantekening geteekend door den man. Ingeval van eenige twyfel aangaande de daadzaak of datum van het huwelyk, zal de Resident Magistraat te werk gaan als boven, ten einde dezelve uit den weg te ruimen.

6. Indien een van beide gehuwden overleden zy na het aangaan van eenig zoodanig huwelyk als voormeld, latende de andere nog in leven, zal zoodanige langstlevende kunnen compareren voor den gez. Britschen Resident of eenig Magistraat als voormeld, en daarop zal de aantekening worden bereid als of beide partijen nog in leven waren en tegenwoordig, behalve dat de teekening van den langstlevende alleen van kracht zal zyn, en dat de aantekening het overlyden van den overledene zal vermelden. In ieder zoodanig geval zal de Resident of Magistraat echter duidelyk getuigenis moeten vorderen, hetzy mondelyk of by een certificaat of affidavit, zoo als hy noodig zal oordeelen, van de daadzaak en datum van het huwelyk, en waar het mogelyk is, zich verzekeren dat de nabestaanden of vrienden van den overledene toestemmen in het erkennen van zoodanig huwelyk.

7. Indien het zal gebeuren in eenig geval, waarin eenig zoodanig huwelyk zal zyn aangegaan, en zyn geattesteerd door eenig zoodanig persoon in ambt of gezag als hierboven bedoeld, dat een van beide partijen zal weigeren zich met de andere te vereenigen in het bekomen van de registratie van zoodanig huwelyk, zal het de party die verlangend is zoodanige registratie te verkrygen vrystaan te verschynen voor den Resident of Magistraat, die op bewys van zoodanige weigering en productie van zoodanige attestatie als voormeld, of eene authentieke copy daarvan, en op zoodanig verder onderzoek of bewys, als de gez Resident of Magistraat noodig zal oordeelen, de noodige aantekening zal bereiden, waartoe de teekening van de aanzoekdoende party genoegzaam zyn zal, en welke de weigering van de andere party zal moeten bevatten.

8. Het zal geen grond zyn voor weigering van het bereiden van eene aantekening van, of het registreren van eenig huwelyk, dat beiden of eene der partijen tot hetzelfde, tydens het aangaan van het huwelyk, minderjarig waren.

9. Wanneer en zoo dikwyls als eenig Magistraat als voormeld, eenige aantekening als voormeld zal bereid hebben, zal hy met alle doenlyke speed hetzelfde, benevens alle papieren of documenten daartoe behoorende, moeten toezenden aan den Britschen Resident, die ieder zoodanig huwelyk zal moeten registreren, en in alle gevallen waarin de noodige aantekeningen zullen zyn bereid doorden Resident zelf, zal hy van of door middel van dezelve het huwelyk moeten registreren.

10. Ieder zoodanig huwelyk als voormeld door den Britschen Resident geregistreerd zynde, zal van en ra dien datum een huwelyk zyn, even wettig en geldig tot alle einden, als een wettig huwelyk binnen de limiten van de Kaap de Goede Hoop, en zal voor alle einden van eenen civilen aard worden beschouwd, als zynde een wettig huwelyk geweest van den dag af dat het is aangegaan; maar of hetzelfde van den datum laatst gemeld, geoordeeld zal worden een wettig huwelyk te zyn, voor de einden van eene prosectie voor tweewyvery of veelwyvery, ingeval eene der partijen naderhand gedurende het leven van de andere party, een ander huwelyk zal hebben aangegaan, zal moeten worden geoordeeld en beslist volgens de algemeene principes van regten, en onafhankelyk van eenige der voorzieningen van deze Proclamatie.

11. En nademaal zekere Leeraars van de Nederduitsche Hervormde kerk zich vroeger hebben begeven naar gezegd grondge-bied, ten einde daarin, zoo algemeen als de omstandigheden zulks toelieten, de plegtigheden en diensten der godsdienst te volbrengen en nademaal zekere van de uitgeweken onderdanen voormeld, van tyd tot tyd zyn getrouwd door zoodanige Leeraars, alsmede door den dienstdoende Leeraar in de Nederduitsche Gereformeerde Kerk te Pietermaritzburg, in het district Natal, en nademaal er reden is te veronderstellen, dat in alle gevallen waarin eenig zoodanig Leeraar als voormeld, eenig huwelyk heeft voltrokken tusschen partijen die vroeger te zamen leefden, als man en vrouw, uit kracht van eenig zoodanig ongeregeld huwelyk als bovengemelden, de gez. Leeraar, zoowel de daadzaak als den datum van zoodanig voorgaand huwelyk heeft aangeteekend, als het huwelyk door hemzelf voltrokken, en nademaal het gepast is dat vol geloof worde gegeven aan alle zaken dus bewezen, zoo wordt by deze verklaard en gelast dat de Britsche Resident alle origenele huwelyks aantekeningen gedaan door eenig zoodanig Leeraar, of authentieke copyen daarvan, zal moeten aannemen als getuigenis van de daadzaken daarin vervat, en van en door middel daarvan de huwelyken moeten registreren daarin vermeld, zonder de comparitie van eenige der partijen en of eenig verder bewys te vorderen; en dat van en na zoodanige registratie zoodanig huwelyk zal worden beschouwd en geoordeeld als een wettig huwelyk, tot alle einden van den datum van het voltrekken daarvan, door zoodanig Leeraar, en voor alle einden van eenen civilen aard een wettig huwelyk te zyn geweest van den datum vermeld in het huwelyks certificaat, gemaakt door gez. Leeraar, als dat waarop het eerste of vroegere huwelyk (zoo er eenig is.) was aangegaan. Maar indien in eenig geval de daadzaak of datum van zoodanig vroeger huwelyk niet in zoodanig huwelyks certificaat blijkt, dan zullen de partijen de registratie van zoodanig eerst of vroeger huwelyk verlangende, moeten voortgaan op gelijke of dezelfde manier als in dat of gelyk geval hierboven voorzien is, maar in ieder geval zal het huwelyk dus voltrokken door zoodanigen Leeraar, na de registratie daarvan, worden beschouwd als een wettig huwelyk tot alle einden van en na den datum van deszelfs voltrekking.

12. En nademaal het noodzakelyk is temporaire voorzieningen te maken voor het voltrekken van huwelyken binnen het voormelde grondgebied, bevorens het openen van de Kerken en het vestigen van bepaalde Leeraars in dezelve, zoo wordt by deze vastgesteld dat alle personen die in het vervolg zullen worden getrouwd door eenen Leeraar van de Nederduitsche Gereformeerde Kerk van de Kaapsche Kolonie, of persoon door dezelve aangesteld om huwelyken te voltrekken binnen gez. grondgebied, zullen worden geoordeeld en beschouwd als wettig getrouwd; en zoodanige huwelyken zullen moeten worden geregistreerd door den Britschen Resident voormeld, van of door middel van de huwelyks certificaten van zoodanige Leeraars of andere personen, en geene afkondiging van huwelyksgeboden zal noodig zyn.

13. Indien het zal gebeuren dat personen die verlangen in den echten staat te treden, niet in staat zullen zyn de diensten te bekomen van eenen Leeraar van wien hun huwelyk de plegtige en passende sanctie van de godsdienst kan bekomen, zullen zoodanige personen zich kunnen vervoegen by den Britschen Resident of den naasten Magistraat, en ieder hunner zal dan in deszelfs tegenwoordigheid plegtig moeten verklaren dat zy niet bekend zyn met eenige verhuidering tegen hun huwelyk, en dat zy hem verlangen te getuigen dat zy elkander respectively nemen als man en vrouw; en daarop zal eene aantekening van gez. huwelyk worden bereid, en hetzelfde zal behoorlyk moeten worden geregistreerd; en ieder zoodanig huwelyk zal zyn en geoordeeld worden te zyn even wettig en van kracht, als een wettig huwelyk, voltrokken binnen de Kaapsche Kolonie.

14. Indien beide of een van beide partijen minderjarig zullen zyn, zal de Resident of Magistraat, naar het geval moege zyn, voor hy het huwelyk toelaat, (behalve in geval van eenen weduwnaar of eene weduwe) bewys moeten vragen van de toestemming van de ouders of voogden, tenzy het hem zal blyken dat er geen zoodanige in leven zyn, of dat zy, zonder grondige redenen, hun consent weigeren, of dat, van wege den afstand of andere oorzaken zoodanig consent met geene mogelykheid, of niet zonder groote ongelegenheid te bekomen is. Maar geen huwelyk eens toegestaan en aangeteekend, zal kunnen vernietigd, worden op grond dat eene of beide partijen minderjarig zynde, was getrouwd zonder consent van de ouders of voogden.

15. Een certificaat geteekend door den Britschen Resident of ambtenaar als zoodanig fungerende, meldende de geregistreerde byzondheden van ieder huwelyk, door hem of ten zynen kantoore geregistreerd, uit kracht van deze Proclamatie, zal goed getuigenis van zoodanig huwelyk zyn voor alle Geregthhoven en Magistraten.

En ten laatste proclameer, verklaar, en maak ik by deze bekend, dat in myn ernstig verlangen om zoo veel als my mogelyk is, de belangen en gevoelens van alle Harer Majesteits Onderdanen in het Grondgebied voormeld, en die van hunner vrouwen en kinderen te raadplegen, ik alle noodige maatregelen heb genomen, om hunne huwelyken voormeld, boven allen twist en twyfel te bevestigen, niets in deze Proclamatie vervat, moet worden uitgelegd als invaliderende, eenig huwelyk aangegaan binnen gez. Grondgebied, en niet geregistreerd onder deze Proclamatie, welk huwelyk anderzins, in regten, als geldend zou worden beschouwd, daar het myn wensch en voornemen niet is nu te beslissen, dat eenige aard of soort van huwelyk onwettig is, maar eene gemakkelijke wyze te voorzien waarop zekere huwelyken, nu beschouwd als onwettig, boven allen twyfel als wettig kunnen worden verklaard, NADemaal Zyne Excellentie Sir HENRY GEORGE WAKELYN SMITH, Baronet, G.K.B. enz., Administrateur van het Gouvernement van de Kaap de Goede Hoop, en Harer Majesteits Hooge Commissaris voor het afdoen en vereffenen van de zaken van het Grondgebied in Zuid Afrika, belendend aan gez. Volkplanting, by eene Proclamatie van den 27 January 1848, heeft gerefereerd tot het invoeren in deze Kolonie van Kaffer Jongelieden om te worden geaprenticeerd aan Landbouwers en anderen, en regulatie heeft voorzien, welke zullen moeten worden in acht genomen in het apprenticeren van de gez. Jongelieden, benevens eenen vorm van Indenture in zoodanige gevallen te worden gevolgd: En nademaal de voorzieningen van de gez. Proclamatie in zekere opzichten strydig of onbestaanbaar zyn met de voorzieningen van de Ordonnantie No. 49, gedateerd 14 July 1828, getiteld "Ordonnantie tot het toelaten in deze Kolonie, onder zekere bepalingen, van personen behorende tot de Volkstammen buiten de Frontier daarvan, en voor het regelen van de wyze van derzelver aanwending als vrye arbeiders in de dienst van de Kolonisten:" Zoo zy het vastgesteld door den Gouverneur van de Kolonie de Kaap de Goede Hoop, met advies en consent van den Wetgevenden Raad daarvan, dat zooveel van de gez. Schedule.

PROCLAMATIE.

NADemaal het invoeren in deze Kolonie, (of in die Districten van dezelve die genoegzaam verwyderd zijn van de Oostelyke Frontier van dezelve,) van Kaffer Jongelieden, om te worden geapprenticeerd aan Landbouwers en anderen, grootelyks zou strekken tot het bevorderen onder hen van christenheid, beschaving en gewoonten van nyverheid, en ter zelfder tyd in zekere mate strekken om te voorzien in het gebrek van veld en anderen arbeid, door de Ingezeten geleden; En nademaal het gevolg van het met zorg en oplettendheid apprenticeeren van een man Neger, uit de slaverny vrygemaakt, zoodanig geweest is om te toonen dat Kaffer Jongelieden zeker zijn menschlievende en vriendelyke behandeling te vinden, en in der tyd in staat te zijn zich te verbeteren en de Kolonie te bevoordeelen, in eenen graad overeenkomstig met hunne bekende natuurlyke vatbaarheid. En nademaal, ten einde de natuurlyke voordeelen bovengemeld te verzekeren, ik aan de ten onder gebragte Opperhoofden en Volk, sterke vertoogen heb gedaan en heb laten doen ten aanzien van de voordeelen welke zouden gewonnen worden door hunne geheel verarmde en onkundige en hulploze Jongelieden, indien zy waren geplaatst onder de zorg en de bescherming van het Koloniale Gouvernement, ten einde te worden geapprenticeerd aan zorgvuldig uitgezochte meesters, wier pligt het zou zijn hen te voeden, te kleeden, en te onderwyzen. En nademaal, ik reden heb te gelooven dat een aanzienlyk getal Kaffer Jongelieden vrijwilliglyk en van tyd tot tyd in myne handen zullen worden gesteld tot het bovengemelde einde, dien ik voornemens ben te zenden naar onderscheiden Districten dezer Kolonie, zoo als ik van tyd tot tyd gepast zal oordeelen. En nademaal het noodig is de regelen en regulatien bekend te maken, waaronder de gez. Jongelingen zullen geapprenticeerd worden;—Zoo proclameer, verklaar en maak ik by deze bekend, dat de volgende Regulatien stellig zullen worden in acht genomen;—

1. Iedere apprentice zal worden verbonden by eene Indenture, zoo na mogelijk in den vorm van de blanco Indenture hier annex.

2. Iedere zoodanige Indenture zal worden uitgemakt door den Resident Magistraat van het District, fungerende voor den Apprentice, aan de eene zyde, en den Meester aan de andere zyde.

3. Iedere Apprentice binnen vyftien jaren oud, zal worden geapprenticeerd tot een ambacht, of als Landbouw of Huisdienaar, tot hy den ouderdom van achttien jaren zal hebben bereikt.

4. Iedere Apprentice van achttien jaren of daarboven, zal kunnen worden geapprenticeerd voor eenen tyd niet te bovengaaende drie jaren.

5. Iedere Indenture zal moeten worden uitgemakt in duplicaat;—een copy te worden overgemaakt aan den Meester, en de andere te worden bewaard als een archief op het Kantoor van den Resident Magistraat, die periodieke opgaven zal moeten doen van de contracten van iedere zoodanige Indenture, op zoodanige wyze als hierna zal worden omschreven.

En, verder, proclameer, verklaar, en maak ik bekend, dat iedere Resident Magistraat die zal worden geroepen om te ageren in of omtrent het apprenticeeren van een jong persoon als voormeld, wordt gelast en verwacht zyne beste discretie uit te oefenen in het kiezen van onder de Ingezeten, aanzien doende om zoodanige Apprentices, van geslachte Meesters of Meesteressen, en stappen te nemen, van tyd tot tyd, om te onderzoeken of de termen en voorwaarden van de aangegane Indentures, naar behoren zijn volbragt, en in het algemeen te trachten, zoo veel als in hun vermogen is het wel werken van de tegenwoordige poging om te voorzien in de tegenwoordig schaarsche toevoer van Koloniale arbeid, en ter zelfder tyd door het terug brengen uit een leven van werkeloosheid, onkunde, en wetteloosheid van een aantal van de Jongelieden van Burch Kaffaria, by te dragen, onder maatregelen welke nu genomen worden, tot de rust, goede orde en trapsgewyze vooruitgang van die belangryke Provincie.

Ter Ordonnantie van Zyne Excellentie den Gouverneur,

(Get.) JOHN MONTAGU,

Gouvernements Secretaris.

o. 5.— 1848.

(Getekend) H. G. SMITH.

ORDONNANTIE

Vastgesteld door den Gouverneur van de Kolonie de Kaap de Goede Hoop, met advies en consent van den Wetgevenden Raad van dezelve.

Om de Resident Magistraten in staat te stellen, ten aanzien van betwiste Regten op Water, zekere vermogens uit te oefenen, voormaals uitgeoefend door Landdorst en Heemraden.

NADemaal in tyden van droogten, geschillen niet zeldzaam ontstaan tusschen Landbouwers en anderen, aangaande het genot van water, loopende door of over hunne respectieve eigendommen, — en nademaal bevorens de afschaffing van de collegien van Landdorst en Heemraden, zoodanige geschillen ter kennisneming kwamen van zoodanige collegien, welke gewoon waren dezelve spoedig en met geringe kosten af te doen en te vereffenen. En nademaal sedert de afschaffing van gez. collegien op den 31sten December 1827, geen plaatselyke collegie jurisdictie of gezag heeft gehad aangaande zoodanige verschillen, welke alleen konden worden afgedaan voor het Hooge Gerechtshof, of voor de Rondgaande Gerechtshoven: En nademaal de toevangt, ter eerster instantie, tot eene van zoodanige Hoven, noodwendig verzeeld is van verwyl, in eene klasse van zaken waarin een spoedig hulpmiddel boven alles van belang is, — en terwyl de kosten om zich voor dezelve te begeven dikwyls ongeevenredigd zyn aan de schade waarover geklaagd wordt, — waardoor overtreders, rekenende op waarschynlyke straffeloosheid, bemoeidigd worden om hunne buren te berooven van hunne regtmatige regten: En nademaal by de Ordonnantie No 77, gedateerd 30 October 1830, en getiteld "Ordonnantie tot het beter bepalen van de pligten en functien van de Civile Commissarissen van deze Kolonie," — al zulke pligten welke voorzien plagten verrikt te worden door de Landdrosten van dezelfde Districten, en welke niet door eenige andere Ordonnantie waren bepaald te worden verrikt door de Resident Magistraten of andere ambtenaars, zyn gelast te worden verrikt door de Civile Commissarissen: En nademaal geene Wet of Ordonnantie nog aan de gez. Civile Commissarissen of andere ambtenaars, de regten of eenigen derzelve heeft geschonken, welke vroeger werden uitgeoefend door het College van Landdorst en Heemraden: En nademaal het raadzaam zal zyn, in gevallen van geschillen of kwestien over water, de jurisdictie en het gezag daarover, hieronder gemeld, te schenken aan de Resident Magistraten, eer dan aan de Civile Commissarissen, als zynde van eenen regterlyken aard: — Zoo zy het vastgesteld door Zyne Excellentie den Gouverneur, by en met advies van den Wetgevenden Raad van dezelve, dat alles in de Koninklyke Open Brieven, vergund door wylen Zyne Majesteit Willem IV., van den 4den Mei, in het tweede jaar zynrer regering, en gewoonlyk genoemd het Charter van regtspleging, — of in de Ordonnantie No. 33, gedateerd 19 December 1827, getiteld "Ordonnantie voor het eeren van Resident Magistraten en Griffiers van het Vredegerecht in zekere districten en plaatsen dezer Kolonie," of in eenige andere wet of Ordonnantie voor dezen in kracht in deze Kolonie, dat strydig of onbestaanbaar zal zyn met eenige van de voorzieningen dezer Ordonnantie zal zyn, en by deze gevolgelyk wordt herroepen.

2. En zy het vastgesteld, dat de respectieve Hoven van Resident Magistraten zullen bezitten en uitoefenen, ten aanzien van alle klagten en disputen, ontstaande binnen hunne respectieve districten, betreffende de verkeerde uitleiding of toeigening van water, of beschadiging van, of verluidering van waterloopen welke de vroegere collegien van Landdorst en Heemraden van hetzelfde district, of van eenig district dat het grondgebied bevatte, nu uitmakende het district van den Resident Magistraat, met en benevens ander grondgebied, bezeten en uitgeoefend in gelyke gevallen. Altyd wel verstaan, dat niets hierin vervat, zal worden uitgelegd als gevende aan eenigen Resident Magistraat het regt of vermogen van het maken of dwingen van eenige nieuwe verdeeling van eenigen stroom of toevoer van water, of tot het veranderen van regten op water, als bestaande ten tyde van den aanvang en het in werking komen dezer Ordonnantie. Maar ten aanzien van het verdedigen van alle bestaande regten, hetzy ontstaande uit regulatiën, behoorlyk gemaakt door eenig vroeger college van Landdorst en Heemraden, uit contract, conditie, verjaring, of andere wettige bron of oorsprong, de Resident Magistraat zal oordeelen en beslissen op gelyke wyze als Landdorst en Heemraden, indien zy nu in bestaan waren, wettiglyk zouden kunnen oordeelen en beslissen. Wel vers aan echter, dat, behalve in geval waarin hy eenig schriftelyk document, acte, of instrument, ter griffie ingeboekt, en de kracht van wet hebbende, eene grotere som is bepaald by wege van schade, betaling of boete voor de daad waarover wordt geklaagd, en welke bewezen is voor den Resident Magistraat, zoodanig Magistraat, handelende onder de voorzieningen dezer Ordonnantie, in geene civiel netie geauthoriseerd zal zyn eenige boete op te leggen te bovengaaude de sommen tot welke zyne jurisdictie in civile en criminele zaken respectivelyk zal bepaald zyn.

3. En zy het vastgesteld, dat in het beslissen van alle zoodanige zaken en kwestien als voormeld, de Resident Magistraat zal moeten procederen volgens de reglementen, van kracht, in der tyd, ten aanzien van Resident Magistraats Hoven, en ieder uitspraak of vonnis van eenig zoodanig Resident Magistraat zal onderhevig zyn om te worden gebracht in appel of herziening voor het Hooge of eenig bevoegd Rondgaand Gerechtshof, in manier en vorm als by zoodanige regels en reglementen zal bepaald zyn. En het gezegde Hooge of Rondgaand Gerechtshof zal den uitspraak van zoodanigen Magistraat mogen renverseren of veranderen op zoodanige wyze als de gerechtigheid zal vorderen; en ingeval de notulen van den Magistraat aan zoodanig Hof niet zullen blyken genoegzaam getuigenis of onderrigt te leveren voor de behoorlyke beslissing van de zaak, dezelve te remitteren aan den Resident Magistraat, met zoodanige instructiën ten aanzien van het nemen of inwinnen van verder getuigenis of narigt; op zoodanig Hoog of Rondgaand Gerechtshof kan partijen, of een derzelve gelasten, op eeniger geschikten tyd, in zoodanig Hof, zoodanig getuigenis te produceren als noodig of wenschelyk wezen zal; of zoodanig Hof zal zoodanigen anderen gang mogen nemen als zal schynen te strekken tot de spoedigste en minst kostbare afdoening der zaak.

4. En wordt vastgesteld, dat niets in deze Ordonnantie vervat, zal strekken of geoordeeld worden te strekken tot het verbreken van de regten van Hare Majesteit de Koningin, ten aanzien van rivieren, stroomen of waterloopen — of haar te beletten dezelve te regelen op zoodanige manier waarop zy zulks wettiglyk had kunnen doen voor het passeren dezer Ordonnantie, uit kracht van haar koninklyk prerogatief, of andere magt of gezag, ten dien opzichte expresselyk of by implicatie in Hare gez. Majesteit gevestigd.

5. En zy het vastgesteld, dat deze Ordonnantie zal beginnen en effect sorteren van en na de promulgatie daarvan.

GOD BEWARE DE KONINGIN!

QUARTERLY FAIRS. GENERAL COMMISSION SALES, TO BE HELD AT BEAUFORT (WEST.)

THE Undersigned intends holding GENERAL COMMISSION SALES, every Quarter, of such STOCK, HORSES, CATTLE, SHEEP, LANDED PROPERTY, MERCHANDISE, &c., as parties may be desirous of offering for Public Competition.

Persons wishing to avail themselves of these opportunities will please to give the Auctioneer notice of their intention at least one or two months previous to the time specified for holding the several Sales, to enable him to advertise.

The First Quarterly Sale

will be held at Beaufort on the 4th of OCTOBER next. Some parties have already expressed a wish to avail themselves of the opportunity of disposing of Stock, and the Undersigned will advertise, in due time, the description of Stock and other Articles that will be offered on the above date, to enable parties residing at a distance to be present.

The attention of Speculators and Butchers is particularly called to this notice. These Sales will open a field of safe speculation, and present great advantages to the Butchers, as they will probably be able to purchase a large Stock of either Cattle or Sheep, and take them to a Market without being necessitated, as is now the case, to go from farm to farm to collect a sufficient supply.

15 Sheep and Cattle Farms
IN THE
Nieuweveld and near Beaufort

WITH reference to an Advertisement in the Government Gazette of 13th January last,—I, THE UNDERSIGNED, HEREBY GIVE NOTICE, that all my THIRD PARTS OF SHARES in the following:

15 FARMS,

which are all well described in the Supplement to the Government Gazette, herein referred to, are for Sale, and my Agent, Mr. HENRY ROSE of Beaufort, will receive offers for the same, namely:—

No. 1.—Maatjes Valley,	10,309	Morgen
2.—Kaffers Kraal,	1046	Do.
3.—Willems Kraal,	4334	Do.
4.—Kuilsgrat,	1705	Do.
5.—Lemoen Fontein,	1988	Do.
6.—Kuils Poort,	12,737	Do.
7.—Elands Fontein,	15,173	Do.
8.—Zout Rivers Poort,	6802	Do.
9.—Zout Rivers Valley,	7619	Do.
10.—Steenrots Fontein,	3528	Do.
11.—Quagga Fontein,	7398	Do.
12.—Welleveden,	5540	Do.
13.—Kook Fontein,	4456	Do.
14.—Palmiet Fontein,	3752	Do.
15.—Doornhoek,	4381	Do.

90,768 Morgen.

It is worthy of remark and may be stated, that in the District of Beaufort, where these Farms are situated, occasional droughts are experienced, during the continuance of which many of the best Places are of comparatively little value; while, on the other hand, after seasonable rains, water is plentiful, and the Pastures become so rich, luxuriant, and abundant, that few, if any, of the present Farmers of the District have stock sufficient to consume it, which proves that the Places are too large, and the Farmers too few in number; and generally the Undersigned ventures an opinion that for all practical purposes, one-third Part or Share of most of the above Farms is very little inferior in real value to the whole; and Purchasers of Thirds secure another important advantage, for two-thirds less capital, in an extensive range of various kinds of pasture over a wide extent of Country, which is a matter of no little importance and value, well known to the experienced South African Stock Farmer.—Application can also be made in Cape Town to the Undersigned.

TERMS OF PAYMENT made easy, and to suit the convenience of Purchasers.

A PUBLIC SALE

OF the whole of my One-third Parts or Shares in the above FARMS, or so many of them as may not be previously sold, will be held at the Town of Beaufort,

ON MONDAY,

THE 7th AUGUST 1848,

when the whole will be most positively sold without Reserve.

TERMS.

Payment in four equal parts, the First in Cash; the Second in one year; the Third in two years; and the Fourth in three years from the day of Sale, with Interest on the same, at 6 per cent. per annum.

Further particulars made known on the day of Sale. In the mean time, Applications for PRIVATE PURCHASE may continue to be made to Mr. HENRY ROSE, of Beaufort, and the Undersigned in Cape Town.

During the past year, the losses by fire amount to the sum of £196 0 3.

The paid up and accumulated Fund now amounts to £12,303 8 10, which is invested in good and available securities, bearing interest at the rate of 6 per cent.

PUBLIC SALE OF

Sheep Walks, and ARABLE LAND.

DR. TRAVERS, of Highbury, Division of George, being about to leave the Colony, has instructed the Undersigned to dispose of the whole of his Landed Property by Public Sale, together with the Stock thereon. In accordance with the instructions received, a Public Sale will be held on the Farm "Highbury," the 9th Day of September next, of the following Landed Property:

1st. The well-known fertile "Freehold" Farm, called "Highbury." There is a substantially built House, consisting of Drawing Room, Dining Room, Bed Rooms, Pantry, Kitchen, &c. &c., and also very spacious Outbuildings, as well as a splendid Shed, capable of containing 2,000 Sheep. In addition to the above, there is a Water Course constantly running (within a few yards of the House) throughout the year, irrigating upwards of 50 Acres of enclosed Ground of the most fertile description, as well as being capable of turning a Mill. In fact this delightful spot requires only to be seen to be appreciated; the lovers of sublime scenery would do well, even if it were only to come and see.

2nd. One half Share of the Quitrent Farm "DWAARS-WEG," together with a good substantially stone-built House thereon, being part of the Farm belonging to the late lamented Field Cornet SCHOOLS. The capabilities are too well known to require any comment; I would only say that the situation of this farm would render it a delightful residence for a Gentleman and his Family, where health and profit could be realised with comparatively little exertion and small outlay.

3rd. One quarter Share of the Quitrent Farm "GEEL-HOUTBOOM," adjoining the beforementioned Farm "Highbury," with a substantially built House, and convenient Outbuildings. The capabilities of this Farm consist in its immense Forests and Rivers, as also its splendid Grazing Ground. This Farm and "Highbury" combined, could compete, for Profit and Beauty, with any farm in the Colony.

The above Property will be sold first separately (as they possess jointly the desirableness of sweet and sour Veld combined), and then collectively by the Rise. Should the three Farms together realise more than if sold separately, they will then be knocked down to the highest Bidder.

Moveable Property.

Consisting of Household Furniture and Farming Utensils of all kinds, viz., a Clock, Antique Chairs, Tables, Sofas, Bedsteads, Wardrobes, &c. &c.; a first-rate Thrashing and Winnowing Machine, Ploughs, Wagons, and Carts.

Also, splendid double and single-barrelled Guns, Rifles, &c.

Riding Horses, Breeding Mares, Cows, Oxen, &c. &c. And then—though last not least—about 600 superior and healthy Merinos, which have been selected from the best Flocks, and no expense spared for their improvement.

N.B. Refreshments and a good shake-down to Travellers will be afforded.

George Town, July 1848.

ORDONNANTIE

Vastgesteld door den Gouverneur van de Kolonie de Kaap de Goede Hoop, met advies en consent van den Wetgevenden Raad van dezelve.

Tot het emenderen en aanhouden van zekere Voorzieningen van de Ordonnantie No. 8, 1843, getiteld "Ordonnantie voor het verbeteren van de Publieke Wegen van de Kolonie."

NADemaal by Ordonnantie No. 8.—1843, getiteld Ordonnantie voor het verbeteren van de Publieke Wegen van de Kolonie, is voorzien dat het Centrale College van Commissarissen van Publieke Wegen, daarin vermeld, in geene enkele afdeeling, onder en uit kracht van de gezegde Ordonnantie een grooter getal van de verpondingen, daarin vermeld, zou mogen opleggen dan drie; en nademaal het noodig is voor het voltooien van de Hoofdwegen van deze Kolonie, dat het gezegde College zal worden gemachtigd zekere verdere Verpondingen op te leggen in iedere afdeeling, niet te bovengaande drie; Zoo zy het vastgesteld, door den Gouverneur van de Kolonie de Kaap de Goede Hoop, by advies en consent van den Wetgevenden Raad van dezelve, dat het gezegde Centrale College van Commissarissen van Publieke Wegen zal zyn en by deze wordt geautoriseerd en gerechtigd, in iedere afdeeling van deze Kolonie eenig getal verdere of additionele verpondingen op te leggen, niet te bovengaande drie, welke verdere of additionele verpondingen zullen worden omgeslagen, opgelegd en geheven, en in ieder opzigt worden behandeld en beschouwd, als de verpondingen vermeld in de 24ste sectie dier Ordonnantie, even zoo als of de gez. sectie, in plaats van te voorzien dat geen grooter getal van zoodanige verpondingen dan drie, zou worden opgelegd, had voorzien dat geen grooter aantal zou worden opgelegd dan zes.

2. En nademaal sedert het begin en in werking komen van de gez. Ordonnantie No. 8.—1843, te weten op den 8 Maart 1848, Zyne Excellentie de Administrateur des Gouvernements by zyne Proclamatie ten dien opzichte zekere nieuwe afdeelingen heeft bepaald, bevattende grondgebied dat voormaals behoorde tot, en een deel uitmaakte van de afdeelingen welke in bestaan waren toen de gez. Ordonnantie in werking kwam als wet; en nademaal het raadzaam is dat zoodanige nieuwe afdeelingen, respectievelijk, Afdeelingen Collegien zullen hebben, tot het verbeteren van de By-wegen in de gez. afdeeling:—Zy het vastgesteld, dat binnen eene kalender maand, na het begin en in werking komen van deze Ordonnantie, de Civile Commissarissen van iedere zoodanige nieuwe afdeeling, of de ambtenaar in der tyd als zoodanig fungerende, in manier en vorm als voormeld in de 29ste sectie van gezegde Ordonnantie, de byeenkomst daarin vermeld zal beroepen; en ieder Afdeelings College na deze verkozene, zal worden geoordeeld en gehouden te zyn een Afdeelings College, verkozen binnen de mening van gez. Ordonnantie, en bekleed met alle vermogens en gezag by gez. Ordonnantie aan gez. Afdeelings Collegien geschonken. Altyd wel verstaan, dat in het berekenen van verpondingen, welke eenig Afdeelings College voor eenig zoodanig nieuw district hierna wettiglyk zal mogen opleggen en hebben, iedere verponding welke alreeds zal zyn opgelegd op het onroerend eigendom in zoodanige nieuwe afdeeling, of op eenig deel daarvan, waarin zoodanig eigendom vroeger gelegen was, behoorlyk in rekening zal moeten worden genomen en beschouwd als opgelegd door zoodanig nieuw Afdeelings College.

3. En zy het vastgesteld, dat geen Afdeelings College, verkozen voor het oprigten van zoodanige nieuwe afdeeling als voormeld, eenige magt of gezag zal hebben in eenige zoodanige nieuwe afdeeling als voormeld, ten aanzien van het omslaan, opleggen, of heffen van verpondingen voor een afdeeling, welke toen grondgebied bevatte, nu vervat in zoodanige nieuwe afdeeling; of ten aanzien van eenige andere stof of zaak hoegenaamd, binnen enig grondgebied onttrokken van de oude afdeeling en bevat in de nieuwe, maar ieder zoodanig Afdeelings College zal blijven en zyn het Afdeelings College voor het resterende van zoodanige afdeeling, en niet meer. Altyd wel verstaan, dat indien, in eenig geval, eenig lid van zoodanig Afdeelings College zal woonachtig zyn in het gebied nu behoorende tot de nieuwe afdeeling, hy zal worden beschouwd als onbevoegd als zoodanig lid, en zyn ambt wordt by deze vacant verklaard.

4. En zy het vastgesteld, dat het Afdeelings College van iedere zoodanige nieuwe afdeeling als voormeld, en geen ander zal gerechtigd zyn tot het invorderen van eenig bedragen van Weg Belastingen alreeds opgelegd door eenig ander Afdeelings College op of ten aanzien van eenig onroerend eigendom nu gelegen binnen eenige zoodanige nieuwe afdeeling, en welke nog verschuldigd en onbetaald blyven; en zoodanig nieuw College zal hetzelfde regt en middelen hebben tot het recouvreren van achterstallen als of de verponding door zoodanig College ware opgelegd.

5. En zy het vastgesteld, dat in geval eenig Afdeelings College, nu bestaande ter eeniger tyd voor den 30 Mei 1848, geld zal hebben opgenomen by beleening, op het crediet van eenige verpondingen, te worden opgelegd door zoodanig College, of eenige schuld zal hebben, aangegaan op het geloof van zoodanige verpondingen, (hetzy alreeds opgelegd of niet) het Afdeelings College voor eenige nieuwe afdeeling, dat eenig deel zal bevatten van het onroerend eigendom dat te voren aan de afdeeling, waar voor zoodanig oud Afdeelings College was verkozen, zal gehouden zyn te heffen, en te betalen aan het oude Afdeelings College zoodanige evenredigheid van zoodanige beleening of schuld, als de waarde van het onroerend eigendom, toen de schuld gemaakt is, behoorende tot de oude afdeeling, maar dat nu bevat is in de nieuwe, draagt tot de waarde van het geheele onroerende eigendom, op den tyd laatst gemeld behoorende tot de oude afdeeling. En in geval van eenig verschil of dispuut tusschen de Afdeelings Collegien van eenige nieuwe of oude afdeelingen, aangaande het bedragen van zoodanige contributie, zal het Centrale College daarnaar onderzoek doen, en deszelfs beslissing zal finaal zyn, en verbindend voor beide partijen.

6. En zy het vastgesteld, dat, indien ter eeniger tyd hierna de Gouverneur in der tyd, zal goed vinden by Proclamatie eenige nieuwe afdeeling in te stellen, voor of ten aanzien van zaken, in verband met de functien en pligten van Civile Commissarissen, welke nieuwe afdeeling onroerend eigendom zal bevatten, dat bevorens behoorde aan, of een deel uitmaakte van eenige oudere afdeeling, in dat geval een Afdeelings College zal worden gekozen voor zoodanige nieuwe afdeeling, en de voorzieningen van de 2, 3, 4 en 5de sectien van deze Ordonnantie zullen zoo ver als toepasselyk toegepast worden op de Afdeelings Collegien van zoodanige nieuwe afdeelingen; en het Afdeelings College of Collegien van zoodanige andere afdeelingen welke voormaals eenig eigendom bevatten van zoodanige nieuwe afdeeling. En in ieder zoodanig geval zal de Civile Commissarissen van zoodanige nieuwe afdeeling binnen eene kalender maand, na de promulgatie van de Proclamatie voormeld, zoodanige nieuwe afdeeling instellende, moeten beroepen de byeenkomst hierboven, en in de 29ste sectie van de Ordonnantie No. 8.—1843 vermeld.

7. En nademaal by de Ordonnantie voormeld No. 8.—1843 de verpondingen, te worden geheven door eenig Afdeelings College zyn bepaald tot drie: En nademaal het raadzaam is om de verponding betalers, indien zy zoo geneigd zyn, in staat te stellen, het Afdeelings College, in der tyd te autoriseren, om van tyd tot tyd de bywegen in de onderscheiden afdeelingen te verbeteren; Zoo wordt vastgesteld, dat, nadat de drie verpondingen by de Ordonnantie boven gemeld, zullen zyn geheven en opgelegd, het dan Civilen Commissarissen van iedere afdeeling zal vrystaan, iedere keer en zoo dikwyls als hy eene requisitie tot dat einde zal ontvangen, geteekend door niet minder dan twaalf verponding betalers in de afdeeling, by kennisgeving van niet minder dan 31 dagen, in de Gouvernements Courant eene byeenkomst te beroepen van alle eigenaars van onroerend eigendom, te worden gehouden op eenigen gepasten tyd en plaats in zoodanige kennisgeving vermeld, om te beslissen of eene verdere verponding al of niet zal worden geheven op zoodanig onroerend eigendom, en indien by zoodanige byeenkomst de meerderheid in waarde van belastbaar eigendom zal zyn in faueur van het opleggen van eene verdere verponding tot een zekere bedragen, niet te bovengaande een penny in het pond, en dus zal besluiten, dan zal het Afdeelings College in der tyd zoodanige verponding opleggen, welke in alle gevallen zal worden beschouwd en geoordeeld juist als of dezelve ware een van de drie verpondingen door de Ordonnantie bovengemeld, bedoeld. Maar indien zoodanige byeenkomst eenige voorgestelde verponding zal van de land wyzen, zal geene byeenkomst worden beroepen voor het weder overwegen van de gepastheid van het opleggen van eene verdere, vroeger dan na verloop van twaalf kalender maanden van den dag waarop de eerste byeenkomst is gehouden

ORDINANCE

Enacted by the Governor of the Colony of the Cape of Good Hope, with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof.

For regulating the Duties and Remuneration of Field-cornets.

WHEREAS, owing to the various alterations made from time to time, in the administration of the country districts of this colony, the functions of field-cornets have been considerably narrowed; and it is now expedient to define or describe their duties, and to substitute for the principle of a fixed annual allowance, a remuneration proportioned to the services performed:—Be it enacted by the Governor of the Cape of Good Hope, with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof, that the "Instructions for the Field-cornets in the several Country Districts," published by the then Governor and Council of this Colony on the 24th October 1805, shall be repealed, except in so far as the same repeal any former placards, ordinances, or customs, and the same are hereby repealed accordingly. Provided always, that the field-cornets and assistant field-cornets shall continue to be appointed as at present.

2. And be it enacted, that from and after the commencement and taking effect of this Ordinance, the several duties belonging to the office of field-cornet shall be the following, that is to say,—

- (a) He is, by virtue of his office, bound to apprehend without warrant, every person whom he shall have reasonable grounds to suspect of having committed any murder, culpable homicide, rape, robbery, or assault with intent to commit any of those crimes, or assault in which a dangerous wound is given, arson, housebreaking with intent to commit a crime therein; or theft of any cattle, sheep, or goat; or any other crimes of equal guilt with any of those crimes. And he may also take into custody every person whom he shall see engaged in any affray, or whom he shall find attempting to commit a crime, or clearly manifesting an intention so to do.
- (b) Whenever it shall be brought to his knowledge that any person, within his ward, has died other than a natural death, namely, by violence or accident, or his own act, or the act of God, the field-cornet shall, with all speed, repair to inspect the body, and hold an inquest thereon.
- (c) The field-cornet will obtain and transmit to the resident magistrate the fullest information respecting the circumstances of any such untimely death, and communicate, at the same time, the result of his own observations.
- (d) In cases of assault in which any wound, supposed to be dangerous, has been given, the field-cornet will repair to and examine the injured party, and apprise the resident magistrate of the case and its circumstances.
- (e) When he shall arrest any prisoner, he is authorized, if need be, to appoint any proper person or persons to be a field-corporal, or field-corporals, special constable or special constables, for the custody and conveyance of such prisoner to the nearest field-cornet on the road to the nearest gaol, or in case he himself be the field-cornet nearest to the gaol, then he will send the prisoner to the gaol direct. And every such field-corporal or special constable will be paid at the rate of six pence for each mile which he shall convey any prisoner or prisoners, and six pence for each mile which he shall be obliged to return to his own residence, besides being repaid any sum which he may have expended in providing necessary food or lodging for such prisoner or prisoners.

- (f) Every field-cornet is bound to receive all prisoners brought to him from any field-cornet or justice of the peace at a greater distance from the gaol, and to pass such prisoners on towards the gaol in the same manner as if he had arrested them himself. And any field-corporal or special constable appointed by him to convey any such prisoner,—whether the same special constable who brought such prisoner, or one appointed anew,—shall be entitled to the mileage aforesaid.
 - (g) Every field-cornet whose ward adjoins the sea, shall, in all cases of ships or vessels wrecked or stranded upon the coast repair to the spot, and use every exertion in his power to save life and property; and he may appoint such number of special constables as may be necessary to protect property and prevent plunder.
 - (h) Every field-cornet receiving special instructions from the resident magistrate, or civil commissioner, respecting any special duty to be performed, will duly conform to the same.
3. And be it enacted, that the remuneration to be received by field-cornets shall, hereafter, be as follows, that is to say,—
- (a) When he shall be from home engaged in any such service as aforesaid, he shall receive an allowance for horse-hire at the rate of one shilling and sixpence per hour.
 - (b) When he shall be from home, engaged in any such service as aforesaid, he shall receive an allowance for his time at the rate of seven shillings and sixpence per day.
 - (c) Besides any claim which he may have for time and horse-hire, he shall receive for every inquest which he may hold, the sum of one pound.
 - (d) For receiving, supplying with necessary food, and forwarding from his residence, any person brought to him on his way to gaol, he shall be entitled to the sum of one shilling per day.
 - (e) For any special service required of him by the resident magistrate, or civil commissioner, and not adequately repaid by an allowance for time and horse-hire, the field-cornet shall receive such a sum as the governor of the colony shall approve of and direct.
4. And be it enacted, that from henceforth, the field-cornets shall be deemed and taken to be under the authority of the resident magistrate of the district, as well as of the civil commissioner of the division.
5. And be it enacted, that nothing in this Ordinance contained, shall extend to alter, or affect any former Law or Ordinance, by which any duty or service has been imposed upon field-cornets; and every field-cornet, while acting in the performance of any such duty or service not otherwise remunerated, shall be entitled to be paid for time and horse-hire at the rate aforesaid.
6. And be it enacted, that this Ordinance shall commence and take effect, as law, from and after the 1st January, 1849.

GOD SAVE THE QUEEN!

PUBLIC SALE OF

Sheep Walks, and ARABLE LAND.

DR. TRAVERS, of Highbury, Division of George, being about to leave the Colony, has instructed the Undersigned to dispose of the whole of his Landed Property by Public Sale, together with the Stock thereon:

In accordance with the instructions received, a Public Sale will be held on the Farm "Highbury," the 9th Day of September next, of the following Landed Property:

1st. The well-known fertile "Freehold" Farm, called "Highbury." There is a substantially built House, consisting of Drawing Room, Dining Room, Bed Rooms, Pantry, Kitchen, &c. &c. &c., and also very spacious Outbuildings, as well as a splendid Shed, capable of containing 2,000 Sheep. In addition to the above, there is a Water Course constantly running (within a few yards of the House) throughout the year, irrigating upwards of 50 Acres of enclosed Ground of the most fertile description, as well as being capable of turning a Mill. In fact this delightful spot requires only to be seen to be appreciated; the lovers of sublime scenery would do well, even if it were only to come and see.

2nd. One half Share of the Quitrent Farm "DWAARS-WEG," together with a good substantially stone-built House thereon, being part of the Farm belonging to the late lamented Field Cornet SCHOLS. The capabilities are too well known to require any comment; I would only say that the situation of this farm would render it a delightful residence for a Gentleman and his Family, where health and profit could be realised with comparatively little exertion and small outlay.

3rd. One quarter Share of the Quitrent Farm "GEEL-HOUTBOOM," adjoining the beforementioned Farm "HIGHBURY," with a substantially built House, and convenient Outbuildings. The capabilities of this Farm consist in its immense Forests and Rivers, as also its splendid Grazing Ground. This Farm and "HIGHBURY" combined, could compete, for Profit and Beauty, with any farm in the Colony.

The above Property will be sold first separately (as they possess jointly the desirableness of sweet and sour Veld combined), and then collectively by the Rise. Should the three Farms together realise more than if sold separately, they will then be knocked down to the highest Bidder.

Moveable Property,

Consisting of Household Furniture and Farming Utensils of all kinds, viz., a Clock, Antique Chairs, Tables, Sofas, Bedsteads, Wardrobes, &c. &c.; a first-rate Thrashing and Winnowing Machine, Ploughs, Wagons, and Carts.

Also, splendid double and single-barrelled Guns, Rifles, &c.

Riding Horses, Breeding Mares, Cows, Oxen, &c. &c. And then—though last not least—about 600 superior and healthy Merinos, which have been selected from the best Flocks, and no expense spared for their improvement.

N.B. Refreshments and a good shake-down to Travellers will be afforded.

George Town, July 1848.

G. W. DUTTON, Auctioneer.

15 FARMS,

which are all well described in the Supplement to the Government Gazette, herein referred to, are for Sale, and my Agent, Mr. HENRY ROSE of Beaufort, will receive offers for the same, namely:—

15.—Doornhoek,	4381	Do.

90,768 Morgen.

It is worthy of remark and may be stated, that in the District of Beaufort, where these Farms are situated, occasional droughts are experienced, during the continuance of which many of the best Places are of comparatively little value; while, on the other hand, after seasonable rains, water is plentiful, and the Pastures become so rich, luxuriant, and abundant, that few, if any, of the present Farmers of the District have stock sufficient to consume it, which proves that the Places are too large, and the Farmers too few in number; and generally the Undersigned ventures an opinion that for all practical purposes, one-third Part or Share of most of the above Farms is very little inferior in real value to the whole; and Purchasers of Thirds secure another important advantage, for two-thirds less capital, in an extensive range of various kinds of pasture over a wide extent of Country, which is a matter of no little importance and value, well known to the experienced South African Stock Farmer.—Application can also be made in Cape Town to the Undersigned.

TERMS OF PAYMENT made easy, and to suit the convenience of Purchasers.

A. PUBLIC SALE

OF the whole of my One-third Parts or Shares in the above FARMS, or so many of them as may not be previously sold, will be held at the Town of Beaufort,

ON MONDAY,

Further particulars made known on the day of Sale.

In the mean time, Applications for PRIVATE PURCHASE may continue to be made to Mr. HENRY ROSE, of Beaufort, and the Undersigned in Cape Town.

PROCLAMATION

SIR HENRY GEORGE WAKELYN SMITH, BARONET,

Knight Grand Cross of the most Honorable Military Order of the Bath, Colonel of the Second Battalion of the Rifle Brigade, Governor of the Colony of the Cape of Good Hope in South Africa, and of the Territories and Dependencies thereof, and Ordinary, and Vice-Admiral of the same; and Her Majesty's High Commissioner for the settling and adjustment of the affairs of the Territories in Southern Africa, adjacent and contiguous to the Eastern and North Eastern Frontier of the said Colony, &c. &c. &c.

WHEREAS, in reference to the Rebellion of certain Subjects of Her Majesty, resident to the North of the Great Orange River, announced in my Proclamation of the 22d instant, it has been made to appear to me that one WILLEM JACOBS, of the District of Wenburg, in the Territories aforesaid, has taken a prominent part in misleading the ignorant, and terrifying the timid, in order to induce them to join in the present most wanton and wicked Insurrection: And whereas the said WILLEM JACOBS has thus subjected himself to a charge of High Treason, and it is expedient that he should, if possible, be brought to punishment:—

Now, therefore, I do hereby PROCLAIM AND OFFER A REWARD OF

to any person or persons who shall apprehend the said WILLEM JACOBS, and lodge him in any of Her Majesty's Prisons, or with any Officer in command of any of Her Majesty's Forces;—and further, a REWARD OF

GOVERNMENT NOTICE.

Colonial Office, Cape Town,
2d August, 1848.

WING to the period of the year at which the new Divisions recently created in, or annexed to, this Colony were formed, it has unavoidably happened that no Circuit Court can be holden in any of them during the ensuing Circuit.

The impediment arises out of the fact, that no Circuit Court can act without a lawful Jury, and that no lawful Jury can be impanelled in any of these new Divisions.

Under Ordinance No. 84, (the existing Jury law), the 1st of February in each year is the only day on which lists for Jury purposes can be legally affixed, prior to rectification by the Resident Magistrate; and, from want of time, no such lists have been affixed in any of the new Divisions, which leaves them without a Jury.

In announcing the cause which has led to the change in the Circuit Court arrangements, set forth in the Proclamation of this day's date, His Excellency the Governor directs it to be notified, that the necessary steps will be taken by the proper Officers to provide, in due time for the Circuit next after that which is shortly to commence, proper Jury lists for the several Divisions in which Circuit Courts are in future to be holden.

By Command of His Excellency the Governor,
(Signed) JOHN MONTAGU,
Secretary to Government.

GOVERNMENT NOTICE.

Colonial Office, Cape of Good Hope
2d August 1848.

At Swellendam, on Monday, the 11th of September next.
At George Town, on Monday, the 18th of September next.
At Uitenhage, on Wednesday, the 27th of September next.
At Graham's Town, on Thursday, the 5th of October next.
At Somerset, on Monday, the 16th of October next.
At Cradock, on Friday, the 20th of October next.
At Colesberg, on Friday, the 27th of October next.
At Graaff-Reinet, on Thursday, the 2d November next.
At Beaufort, on Thursday, the 9th November next.
At Worcester, on Friday, the 17th of November next.

And it is further notified, that in the event of the Judge being prevented, by any unforeseen cause of delay, from opening the Circuit Court at either of the Towns above mentioned, on the day fixed for that purpose, then, and in that case, such Circuit Court shall be opened on the day on which the Judge shall arrive in such Town.

By His Excellency's Command,
(Signed) JOHN MONTAGU,
Secretary to Government.

PROCLAMATION

BY HIS EXCELLENCY LIEUTENANT GENERAL
SIR HENRY GEORGE WAKELYN SMITH,

Baronet, Knight Grand Cross of the Most Honorable Military Order of the Bath, Colonel of the Second Battalion of the Rifle Brigade, Governor and Commander-in-Chief of the Settlement of the Cape of Good Hope in South Africa, and of the Territories and Dependencies thereof, and Ordinary, and Vice Admiral of the same; and Her Majesty's High Commissioner for the settling and adjustment of the Affairs of the Territories in Southern Africa, adjacent and contiguous to the Eastern and North Eastern Frontier of the said Colony, &c. &c. &c.

WHEREAS it is expedient to provide for the Solemnization of Marriages within British Kaffaria; Now, therefore, I do hereby proclaim, declare, and make known, that Marriages may be solemnized within British Kaffaria under and according to the Rules and Regulations following, that is to say:—

1st. Any Missionary, or other Minister of the Christian Religion, ordained, or otherwise set apart to the Ministry of the Christian Religion, shall be at liberty to apply to the Commandant of British Kaffaria for the purpose of being registered by him as a Marriage Minister, in and for the said Territory; and the Commandant shall deliver to every Minister so registered, a certificate, in writing, of such registry.

2nd. Every registered Marriage Minister shall, within British Kaffaria, be authorised and empowered to marry together persons not labouring under any just impediment, both of whom shall, for a period of not less than three months next before such marriage, have resided in British Kaffaria.

3rd. No Marriage Minister shall solemnize any marriage between persons related to, or connected with, each other in such a degree of consanguinity or affinity, as would, according to the laws of the colony of the Cape of Good Hope, be a lawful impediment to their marriage within the said colony; and every marriage which, if solemnized, or supposed so to be, within the said colony, would, by reason of consanguinity or affinity, be void,—shall be void if solemnized, or supposed so to be, within British Kaffaria.

4th. The banns of marriage between persons desirous of being joined together in matrimony, in British Kaffaria, may be published therein by any Marriage Minister, and such publication shall be made in an audible manner some time during public service on a Sunday, in the face of the congregation of such Minister, and shall contain the respective names and places of abode of each of the said parties.

5th. If either of the parties to be married shall belong to a congregation other than that of the Marriage Minister whom they desire to solemnize the said marriage, the banns shall be published in such other congregation or congregations.

6th. Banns of marriage must, in every case, be published for three Sundays preceding the solemnization of the marriage. Provided always, that no Marriage Minister shall solemnize marriage between persons, one or both of whom shall be under the age of twenty-one years (unless in case of a widower or widow) after such marriage shall be forbidden by any person, who would, if in the colony of the Cape of Good Hope, have lawful authority to forbid the same.

7th. Every Marriage Minister shall keep a Marriage Register Book, and shall enter therein every marriage by him solemnized; and every entry of any such marriage shall be signed by the Marriage Minister, and by the parties married, and shall be attested by two or more credible witnesses; and every such entry shall be in the form or to the effect of the following specimen:—

Names and Surnames.	When Married.	Age.	Condition.	Rank and Profession.	By whom Banns published.	Consent, by whom given.
John Jones.	—	—	—	—	Rev. A.R.	—
Jane Joyce.	—	—	—	—	—	—
Married after Banns by me, A.B., Wesleyan Minister.
Us { John Jones } In the presence of us { C.D. }
Us { Jane Joyce } { E.F. }

And of every such entry, at the same time, before the parties depart from the chapel, house, or places in which the marriage shall have been celebrated, shall then and there be made in or on a separate piece of paper, parchment, or vellum, a duplicate original register, in which the same matter shall, in the same manner, be entered, and be signed and attested by the same parties; and such duplicate original register shall, by the Marriage Minister by whom the marriage was solemnized, be transmitted to the Commandant of British Kaffaria, or such other Functionary as Her Majesty's High Commissioner shall hereafter appoint, and shall be filed and safely preserved by him in some safe place; and every such original register made in such Marriage Register Book as aforesaid, and also every copy thereof, certified under the hand of the Marriage Minister who made such original register, to be a true copy; and every such duplicate original register, and also every copy thereof, certified under the hand of the Commandant aforesaid, or such other functionary as aforesaid, to be a true copy, shall, respectively, be good evidence of the facts therein recorded, in pursuance of the Proclamation, before all Courts, and in all proceedings whatsoever, in which it shall be necessary to give evidence of the marriage to which the same shall relate.

8th. After the solemnization of any marriage under and by virtue of this Proclamation, it shall not be necessary in support of such marriage, (should the same come in question,) to give any proof of the actual dwelling of the parties married, or of either of them, before the marriage, or that the banns were published, nor shall any evidence be received to prove the contrary.

9th. Nothing in this Proclamation contained shall have the effect of constraining any Minister (though registered as a Marriage Minister) to marry any person whomsoever, whom he shall see fit to decline to marry.

QUARTERLY FAIRS, GENERAL COMMISSION SALES,

TO BE HELD AT
BEAUFORT (WEST.)

THE Undersigned intends holding GENERAL COMMISSION SALES, every Quarter, of such STOCK, HORSES, CATTLE, SHEEP, LANDED PROPERTY, MERCHANDISE, &c., as parties may be desirous of offering for Public Competition.

Persons wishing to avail themselves of these opportunities will please to give the Auctioneer notice of their intention at least one or two months previous to the time specified for holding the several Sales, to enable him to advertise.

The First Quarterly Sale

will be held at Beaufort on the 4th of OCTOBER next. Some parties have already expressed a wish to avail themselves of the opportunity of disposing of Stock, and the Undersigned will advertise, in due time, the description of Stock and other Articles that will be offered on the above date, to enable parties residing at a distance to be present.

The attention of Speculators and Butchers is particularly called to this notice. These Sales will open a field of safe speculation, and present great advantages to the Butchers, as they will probably be able to purchase a large Stock of either Cattle or Sheep, and take them to a Market without being necessitated, as is now the case, to go from farm to farm to collect a sufficient supply.

ROWLANDS'S MACASSAR OIL.

This faithful assistant of nature has, from intrinsic worth alone, during the last half century, acquired the SPECIAL PATRONAGE of the several SOVEREIGNS and Courts throughout Europe, and with RANK, FASHION, and DISCRETION, supercedes all preparations of prosensitively similar import.

This Oil is pre-eminently successful in nourishing, improving and beautifying the Human Hair, in all climates, and in all stages of existence; the following is a brief notice of some of its PRINCIPAL VIRTUES, as a mild, stimulative corrector, and preservative agent, for the Hair. The subject is more fully treated in a small Pamphlet which accompanies each bottle of ROWLANDS'S MACASSAR OIL, and wherein important hints and advice will be found on the Culture of the Hair of Infancy, and on its preservation and beauty through the several stages of human life.

Infancy.

Its balsamic properties nourish the Hair in its embryo state, accelerate its growth, sustain it in maturity, and continue the possession of healthy vigour, silky softness, and luxurious abundance, to the latest period of human life. Genial and purifying, it dispels all scurf and impurity, and renders the use of the fine comb unnecessary.

Baldness.

Its re-productive powers are constantly and surprisingly shown in cases of Baldness from whatsoever cause arising proved by numerous testimonials open for inspection at the Proprietors, in eliciting, unerringly, from the latent stem the active progression of vitality, so that in numerous instances where other specifics have been tried in vain, ROWLANDS'S MACASSAR OIL has superceded the ornaments of art by re-instating in full plenitude of beauty the permanent graces and utilities of nature.

Grey Hair.

Its nourishing properties are eminently successful in the PREVENTION of Grey Hair, and in the RESTORATION to its original colour—also proved by testimonials.

Whiskers and Moustachios.

Its extraordinary fecundity is singularly displayed in creating these ornaments of manhood, and in the production of strong and beautiful Hair!

Curl and Embellishment.

Its invigorating properties induce a strong tendency to curl: to Artificial Hair it imparts a look of vitality and lightness and sustains the Head Dress in all the beauties of decorative formation, glossy curl, and silky softness, unimpaired by the heated atmosphere of crowded rooms, or damp weather.

Sea-Bathing and violent Exercise.

After indulging in either of these, so apt in their consequence (by opening the pores) to exhaust the nourishing matter secreted at the roots or bulbs of the hair, the Macassar Oil will be found most efficacious, both in preserving and in immediately restoring the hair to its usual appearance of health with renewed brightness.

CLIMATE.

This inestimable Oil preserves its virtues unimpaired by change of climate, and is alike in use from the frigid to the torrid zone, from the assemblies of St Petersburg to those of Calcutta and the remote East.

CAUTION.

UNPRINCIPLED SHOP-KEEPERS, for the sake of gaining a trifling more profit, vend the most spurious trash under the title of "MACASSAR OIL," some under the implied sanction of Royalty.

It is therefore imperative on Purchasers to see that the words are in two lines on the Wrapper of each bottle, and on the inside of the Wrapper nearly 1,500 times, containing 20,000 letters.

Rowland's Macassar Oil

GOVERNEMENTS KENNISGEVING.

Koloniale Secretary, 2 Augustus 1848.

VAN wege den tyd des jaars waarop de nieuwe Afdeelingen onlangs opgericht in, of gehecht aan de Kolonie, zyn geformeerd, is het onvermydelijk gebeurd dat geen Bondgaand Gerechtshof in eenige derzelver kan worden gehouden by het aankomend Circuit.

De verhindering ontstaat uit de daadzaak dat geen Rondgaand Gerechtshof kan worden g-houden zonder een behoorlyke Jury, en dat geen behoorlyke Jury in een dezer nieuwe Afdeelingen kan worden bygeengebragt.

Onder de Ordonnantie No. 34 (de bestaande Jury Wet,) is de eerste February van het laatste jaar de eenige dag waarop Jury Lysten wettiglyk kunnen worden aangeplakt, bevorens de rectificatie door den Resident Magistraat—en uit gebrek van tyd hebben geen zoodanige Lysten in eenige der gez. Distrikten kunnen worden aangeplakt, het welk dezelve zonder een Jury laat.

In het aankondigen van de oorzaken welke hebben geleid tot de verandering in de schikkingen van het Rondgaand Gerechtshof, bepaald in de Proclamatie van Heden, gelast Zyne Excellentie kennis te geven dat de noodige stappen zullen worden genomen door de geschikte beambten, om in behoorlyken tyd voor het Circuit, en dat het welk nu in kort zal beginnen, geschikte Jury Lysten te voorzien, voor de onderscheiden Afdeelingen, waarin in het vervolg Circuit Hoven zullen worden gehouden.

PROCLAMATION

SIR HENRY GEORGE WAKELYN SMITH.

Baronet, Knight Grand Cross of the Most Honorable Military Order of the Bath, Colonel of the Second Battalion of the Rifle Brigade, Governor and Commander-in-Chief of the Settlement of the Cape of Good Hope in South Africa, and of the Territories and Dependencies thereof, and Ordinary and Vice-Admiral of the same, &c. &c. &c.

WHEREAS the Royal Charter for the better and more effectual Administration of Justice in this Colony, bearing date the 4th Day of May, 1832, ordains and directs, that it shall and may be lawful for the Governor for the time being of this Colony, by any Proclamation or Proclamations to be by him for that purpose issued, to apportion and divide the said Colony into two or more Districts, and to fix and ascertain the boundaries and limits of every such District, and such boundaries and limits, from time to time, to alter as occasion may require: Provided always, that such apportionment of the Colony into such Districts, as aforesaid, be made in such manner as to such Governor may appear to be best adapted for enabling the inhabitants of the Colony to resort with ease and convenience to the Circuit Courts to be therein established: And whereas by the said Charter, it is further granted, ordained, and appointed, that Courts, to be called "CIRCUIT COURTS" shall be holden twice at least in each year in each of the Districts into which the Colony may be so divided as aforesaid; and that each of the said Circuit Courts shall be holden by the Chief Justice, or by one of the Puisne Judges of the Supreme Court of this Colony, at such times, and at such one or more place or places within each of the said Districts, as the Governor shall, from time to time, direct and appoint:—In pursuance thereof, and by virtue of the Provisions in the said Charter contained I hereby order, direct, and appoint, that for the purpose of holding the next ensuing Circuit Courts, the Colony shall be divided into Ten Circuit Districts, namely:—

- 1st. The Division of Swellendam, including the Division of Caledon and District of Riversdale;
- 2d. The Division of George, including the District of Mossel Bay;
- 3d. The Divisions of Uitenhage and Port Elizabeth;
- 4th. The Divisions of Albany, including the District of Bathurst, of Victoria, including the District of Fort Peddie; of Fort Beaufort, including the District of Stockenström;
- 5th. The Division of Somerset;
- 6th. The Divisions of Cradock, and of Albert;
- 7th. The Division of Colesberg;
- 8th. The Division of Graaff-Reinet, including the District of Richmond;
- 9th. The Division of Beaufort;
- 10th. The Divisions of Worcester, including the District of Tulbagh, and of Clanwilliam.

And I further order, direct, and appoint, that a Circuit Court shall be holden on Monday, the 11th day of September next, at Swellendam, before one of the Judges of the Supreme and Circuit Courts of this Colony, for hearing and determining all Cases, Civil and Criminal, cognizable and triable by the said Circuit Courts, and for doing such other matters and things as, by Law, the said Judges are empowered to do, anything in my Proclamation of the 21st day of June 1848, to the contrary notwithstanding,—and the said Judge shall from thence duly proceed to hold like Courts in the Chief Towns of the said other Districts hereinbefore mentioned, on such days as shall be hereafter publicly notified in that behalf.

And I strictly charge and command all Civil Commissioners, Clerks of the Peace Deputy-Sheriffs, Field-Cornets, and other Officers, that they shall be aiding and assisting the said Courts as they shall answer the contrary at their peril.

GOD SAVE THE QUEEN!

Given under the Public Seal of the Settlement at the Cape of Good Hope, this 2nd Day of August, 1848.

By His Excellency's Command,
(Signed) JOHN MONTAGU,
Secretary to Government.

GOVERNMENT NOTICE.

Colonial Office, Cape of Good Hope
2d August 1848.

NOTICE is hereby given, in terms of the Proclamation of this date, that the Circuit Court will be holden at the following places and on the days hereinafter mentioned:—

- At Swellendam, on Monday, the 11th of September next.
- At George Town, on Monday, the 18th of September next.
- At Uitenhage, on Wednesday, the 27th of September next.
- At Graham's Town, on Thursday, the 5th of October next.
- At Somerset, on Monday, the 16th of October next.

And it is further notified, that in the event of the Judge being prevented, by any unforeseen cause of delay, from opening the Circuit Court at either of the Towns above mentioned, on the day fixed for that purpose, then, and in that case, such Circuit Court shall be opened on the day on which the Judge shall arrive in such Town.

By His Excellency's Command,
(Signed) JOHN MONTAGU,
Secretary to Government.

GOVERNMENT NOTICE.

Colonial Office, Cape Town,
2d August, 1848.

WING to the period of the year at which the new Divisions recently created in, or annexed to, this Colony were formed, it has unavoidably happened that no Circuit Court can be holden in any of them during the ensuing Circuit.

The impediment arises out of the fact, that no Circuit Court can act without a lawful Jury, and that no lawful Jury can be impanelled in any of these new Divisions.

Under Ordinance No. 84, (the existing Jury law), the 1st of February in each year is the only day on which lists for Jury purposes can be legally affixed, prior to rectification by the Resident Magistrate; and, from want of time, no such lists have been affixed in any of the new Divisions, which leaves them without a Jury.

In announcing the cause which has led to the change in the Circuit Court arrangements, set forth in the Proclamation of this day's date, His Excellency the Governor directs it to be notified, that the necessary steps will be taken by the proper Officers to provide, in due time for the Circuit next after that which is shortly to commence, proper Jury lists for the several Divisions in which Circuit Courts are in future to be holden.

By Command of His Excellency the Governor,
(Signed) JOHN MONTAGU,
Secretary to Government.

- At Uitenhage, on Wednesday, the 27th day of September next.
- At Graham's Town, on Thursday, the 5th day of October next.

And it is further notified, that in the event of the Judge being prevented, by any unforeseen cause of delay, from opening the Circuit Court at either of the Towns above-mentioned, on the day fixed for that purpose, then, and in that case, such Circuit Court shall be opened on the day on which the Judge shall arrive in such Town.

And it is hereby further notified that the lots Nos. 562, 563, and 564, at Port Elizabeth, advertised for Sale, by Proclamation of the 21st ultimo, will not be sold, and the same are hereby withdrawn.

WHEREAS I have this day received information that certain Subjects of Her Majesty, resident to the North of the Great Orange River, in the Territories over which, by my Proclamation bearing date the 3rd of February 1848, I did proclaim and declare Her Majesty's Sovereignty,—are in open Rebellion against Her Royal Authority; And whereas such Rebellion has been, most wantonly and wickedly, fostered and excited by one ANDREAS WILHELMUS JACOBUS PRETORIUS, late of the District of Natal, who has thus committed the crime of High Treason; and whereas, pending the issue of the other measures already in progress for the swift suppression of the said Rebellion,—it is expedient that the said ANDREAS WILHELMUS JACOBUS PRETORIUS should, if possible, be secured and brought to punishment:—Now therefore, I do hereby PROCLAIM AND OFFER A REWARD OF One Thousand Pounds to any person or persons who shall apprehend the said ANDREAS WILHELMUS JACOBUS PRETORIUS, and lodge him in any of Her Majesty's Prisons, or with any Officer in command of any of Her Majesty's Forces;—and further, a REWARD OF One Thousand Pounds to any Person or Persons who shall give such information as shall lead to the apprehension of the said ANDREAS WILHELMUS JACOBUS PRETORIUS

WHEREAS, in reference to the Rebellion of certain Subjects of Her Majesty, resident to the North of the Great Orange River, announced in my Proclamation of the 22d instant, it has been made to appear to me that one WILLEM JACOBS, of the District of Wenburg, in the Territories aforesaid, has taken a prominent part in misleading the ignorant, and terrifying the timid, in order to induce them to join in the present most wanton and wicked Insurrection: And whereas the said WILLEM JACOBS has thus subjected himself to a charge of High Treason, and it is expedient that he should, if possible, be brought to punishment:—Now, therefore, I do hereby PROCLAIM AND OFFER A REWARD OF Five Hundred Pounds to any person or persons who shall apprehend the said WILLEM JACOBS, and lodge him in any of Her Majesty's Prisons, or with any Officer in command of any of Her Majesty's Forces;—and further, a REWARD OF Five Hundred Pounds to any Person or Persons who shall give such information as shall lead to the apprehension of the said WILLEM JACOBS.

Baronet, Knight Grand Cross of the Most Honorable Military Order of the Bath, Colonel of the Second Battalion of the Rifle Brigade, Governor and Commander-in-Chief of the Settlement of the Cape of Good Hope in South Africa, and of the Territories and Dependencies thereof, and Ordinary, and Vice Admiral of the same; and Her Majesty's High Commissioner for the settling and adjustment of the Affairs of the Territories in Southern Africa, adjacent and contiguous to the Eastern and North Eastern Frontier of the said Colony, &c. &c. &c.

WHEREAS it is expedient to provide for the Solemnization of Marriages within British Kaffraria; Now, therefore, I do hereby proclaim, declare, and make known, that Marriages may be solemnized within British Kaffraria under and according to the Rules and Regulations following, that is to say:—

1st. Any Missionary, or other Minister of the Christian Religion, ordained, or otherwise set apart to the Ministry of the Christian Religion, shall be at liberty to apply to the Commandant of British Kaffraria for the purpose of being registered by him as a Marriage Minister, in and for the said Territory; and the Commandant shall deliver to every Minister so registered, a certificate, in writing, of such registry.

2nd. Every registered Marriage Minister shall, within British Kaffraria, be authorised and empowered to marry together persons not labouring under any just impediment, both of whom shall, for a period of not less than three months next before such marriage, have resided in British Kaffraria.

3rd. No Marriage Minister shall solemnize any marriage between persons related to, or connected with, each other in such a degree of consanguinity or affinity, as would, according to the laws of the colony of the Cape of Good Hope, be a lawful impediment to their marriage within the said colony; and every marriage which, if solemnized, or supposed so to be, within the said colony, would, by reason of consanguinity or affinity, be void,—shall be void if solemnized, or supposed so to be, within British Kaffraria.

Marriage Minister shall solemnize marriage between persons, one or both of whom shall be under the age of twenty-one years (unless in case of a widower or widow) after such marriage shall be forbidden by any person, who would, if in the colony of the Cape of Good Hope, have lawful authority to forbid the same.

7th. Every Marriage Minister shall keep a Marriage Register Book, and shall enter therein every marriage by him solemnized; and every entry of any such marriage shall be signed by the Marriage Minister, and by the parties married, and shall be attested by two or more credible witnesses; and every such entry shall be in the form or to the effect of the following specimen:—

8th. After the solemnization of any marriage under and by virtue of this Proclamation, it shall not be necessary in support of such marriage, (should the same come in question,) to give any proof of the actual dwelling of the parties married, or of either of them, before the marriage, or that the banns were published, nor shall any evidence be received to prove the contrary.

2d August, 1848.

WITHIN the period of the year at which the new Divisions recently created in, or annexed to, this Colony were formed, it has unavoidably happened that no Circuit Court can be holden in any of them during the ensuing Circuit.

The impediment arises out of the fact, that no Circuit Court can act without a lawful Jury, and that no lawful Jury can be impanelled in any of these new Divisions.

Under Ordinance No. 84, (the existing Jury law), the 1st of February in each year is the only day on which lists for Jury purposes can be legally affixed, prior to rectification by the Resident Magistrate; and, from want of time, no such lists have been affixed in any of the new Divisions, which leaves them without a Jury.

In announcing the cause which has led to the change in the Circuit Court arrangements, set forth in the Proclamation of this day's date, His Excellency the Governor directs it to be notified, that the necessary steps will be taken by the proper Officers to provide, in due time for the Circuit next after that which is shortly to commence, proper Jury lists for the several Divisions in which Circuit Courts are in future to be holden.

By Command of His Excellency the Governor,
(Signed) JOHN MONTAGU,
Secretary to Government.
